The effectiveness of a "lost" ad in the Glacier was demonstrated last week, when a lady at Palo Alto, California, wrote this office for a pair of gloves, advertised as found and left at this office for the owner. There is nothing that pays so well as a "lost" ad in the Glacier.
C. A. Bell, with a crew of 50 loggers, is clearing Hood River logs, driving from 100,000 to 150,000 feet of timber a day to the boom at the mouth of the stream. It is the intention of the Oregon Lumber Co. to clear the river of logs by the middle of this month. The next batch of logs will come from the mountains on the new railroad, now in the course of construction.
Rev. J. G. Tate of Denver, supreme part of the records of the district, and have submitted the evidence without argument for the consideration of County Superintendent J. T. Neff, who will likely render his decision the latter part of this week. This is the case wherein Mrs. Sanborn was tried before the board and discharged on the ground of incompetency.

Invitations are out for the marriage of Miss Nellie Bonney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Bonney of Woodburn to Will C. Grover, Wednesday, April 5. Mr. Grover, who had charge of the new drug store until last week is now a resident of Woodburn.

The ladies aid of the Congregational church will give a social at the parlors on Tuesday evening, April 11. A cordial invitation is extended to all to be present.
Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chandler and son Willie went to Portland Sunday for a few days' visit.
Dr. H. L. Dunfile and Dr. Jones the dentist, are now located in the Bronson block, corner Oak and Second streets.
Mrs. Edith Owen, whom many of the Franktonites will remember as the proprietress of the old Warren place at Frankton was in Hood River Tuesday. Mrs. Owen brought her brother here for a short visit on his way home to Idaho. He had been called to Portland by the death of their mother who died in that city March 22 at the age of 70 years. Their mother's name was Mrs. C. McClintock, and was well known to many of our citizens. Mr. McClintock as well as Mrs. Owen were delighted with the appearance of Hood River and vicinity.
Mrs. Owen was surprised to see the many fine residences and business houses that have been erected here since she left a little over a year ago.
One of those rare occurrences, a golden wedding, took place on Wednesday of last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Wood at their home near this city. They were married March 2, 1830, in Illinois and came west 18 years ago. They lived for a short time at Hood River, but soon crossed the Columbia and settled in their present comfortable home. Seven children have been born to the union, the two eldest of whom died in infancy, the rest are all living.—White Salmon Enterprise.

T. S. Finney of Park Rapids, Minn., was in Hood River the first of the week, visiting his former neighbor, T. S. Weekly. Mr. Finney has an extensive real estate business in Minnesota, but feels the West is even a better place, and is here looking over the Oregon country. He went on to Roseburg Monday, but will return again to Hood River.
A. I. Mason returned Wednesday morning from The Dalles, where he left Mrs. Mason, whom the doctors state will have to remain in the hospital until her system is strong enough to withstand a delicate operation which she must undergo.
The next meeting of the Cascade Whist club will be held this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Vorsey.
Mrs. Dan Mears bravely foiled a burglar who attempted to enter the house last Friday night. Hearing some one at the window, she raised the curtain, and pointing a Winchester at the thief, made it plain that life was safer for him somewhere else, he immediately decamped.
Mr. and Mrs. George Sunderlind came up from Portland Tuesday.
Will Install Cider Factory.
M. L. Emry, who recently purchased the Captain Shaw property on the railroad front, is preparing to expend $1000 in a factory for making cider, vinegar and apple butter.
Mr. Emry will install a hydraulic cider press. He will operate his factory with either water or electric power.
Mr. Emry's father owned an extensive cider mill and vinegar factory in Illinois, where he learned the business, and feels confident there will be money in his undertaking at Hood River. He hopes by next year to have evaporating pans for preserving strawberries and other fruits.
Lewis and Clark Fair Notes.
A $150,000 exhibit of the products of the Philipine Islands will be an interesting feature of the United States government's magnificent participation in the Lewis and Clark exposition.
The staff work on the beautiful Bridge of Nations at the Lewis and Clark exposition is now completed. The bridge is almost half a mile long, and is built of wood and steel, in imitation of solid masonry. The bridge crosses Grand Lake, the largest body of water ever enclosed within an exposition fence, and connects the mainland with the government Peninsula.
