"GET TOGETHER" SAYS ODELL MAN

By Roswell Shelley.
Odell, East Hood River, April 11.—
During the past week there has been much discussion over the new water contracts submitted for signatures, by the East Fork Irrigating Co., the in Pine Grove result being a public meeting held last his place here. Saturday evening at Pine Grove, at which time a general discussion of the contract was engaged in. About all that was accomplished at the meeting. ing was the appointment of a committee of three representative men and patrons of the company to meet with Mr. Bone and take up the matter to the end that a compromise be arranged to the mutual satisfaction of the interested parties.

At this writing I shall not enter into any discussion of the differences between the company and the water consumers, but indulge the hope that mutually satisfactory arrangements the hospital in Portland, Tuesday, the can be made. Of all the years in the history of Hood River valley, 1905 ents, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Clark. Mr. will be a memerable year. The Lewis and Clark fair will furnish opportunity. and Clark fair will furnish opportunity for largely advertising the valley. There should be no seared patches that water will keep green. Every waiting inch of water that the East Fork Irrigating Co can furnish could surely be profitably need in keeping green Hood River valley, which almost entitled to be called the first addition pital in The Dalles last week, where to the Garden of Eden. An Ode to Hood River Valley,

The following ode to Hood River valley was perpetrated by John W. Darling of Corvallis and graced the initial page of the February number of the College Barometer, a pagazine published by the students of O. A. C. The effusion is not without merit which is "owed" not to any personal knowledge of the writer, we are told, but to his scute imagination, fed by literary gems gleaned from occasional copies of the Glacier which fell into his bands through the carelessness of ome of the other students. this consolation to John, that if he is as artful in wooing the gentle Muse ing.
