

CLUB LEVIES ON ADVERTISING FUND

The meeting of the Commercial club directors Monday night was not very largely attended, yet the movement started by these few members to arouse a greater interest in the club work bids fair to result in much for the future. An assessment of 35 per cent was made on the subscriptions raised some time ago for a general advertising fund. A. W. Outbank, who is acting secretary in the absence of Mr. Moe, was instructed to notify the subscribers to this fund that payment of the assessment is due on or before Saturday, April 15.

The advertising committee of the Commercial club which canvassed the city a few weeks ago secured pledges of over $800. No report was on hand from the committeemen who were to see the farmers, but it is understood that the country has taken an active interest in the matter and has subscribed very liberally toward this fund, which will be employed chiefly in exploiting the Hood River valley and town at the Lewis and Clark fair.

The assessment levied Monday night will go toward paying for the special Hood River write-up in the Portland Evening Telegram, and for some pamphlets gotten out some time ago by the club for distribution to people inquiring for Hood River literature. There are over 1000 copies of the Evening Telegram on hand, which will be used wherever needed. Copies of this issue may be obtained at the Glacier office by people who wish to send them to their friends in the East who would be interested in reading about Hood River. Several hundred copies have already been mailed to addresses in the East.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Commercial club on the first Tuesday of May, the proposition of having suitable literature prepared for distribution at the Portland fair will be taken up. Also the proposal to have the members of the National Editorial association who will visit the fair on a special excursion in June, to visit Hood River for a strawberry banquet, will be looked after by the club.

The secretary of the Commercial club is in correspondence with parties who are anxious to locate a large manufacturing plant at Hood River. The plans are not sufficiently under way to be made public just yet, but it is thought that within a few weeks it may be possible to have a representative of the proposed enterprise lay the matter before the business men of the city at an open meeting of the club.

An Idea for the Mission Board.
White Salmon, Wash April 10.—Editor Glacier: How would this do for a compromise between the people who are willing to accept all the money Mr. Rockefeller wants to donate to mission and the folk who look upon his money as "blood money, polluted in the getting." Whereas, Mr. J. D. Rockefeller, whose rapacity and generosity are well known among men and also among angels, has offered to furnish dried lubrication to the otherwise dry roadway of our missionary zeal, and

Whereas the chalk beds of the British coast are said to be made up of the powdered skeletons of countless millions of living organisms that have each contributed its mite to the general result, and

Whereas, Mr. Rockefeller's "system" arises to the dignity of being almost supernatural in its facilities for grinding wealth out of the helplessness of the people, and as such commands our undivided admiration and awe, now, therefore, be it

Resolved, that while we recognize in the "system" a cruel disregard of individual liberty and aspiration, yet we want the money and trust that God, who notes the sparrow's fall will bless its use in the conversion of the heathen to the benign religious faith that Mr. Rockefeller represents. Resolved, That with our eyes on heaven and our opturped pain outstretched behind our back to receive the benefactions from the Organized Brotherhood of Burglars of America and the Modern Highwayman's society of the United States, we hereby condemn petty larceny as sinful and demoralizing. It Gets Them Every Time.

Here are a couple of letters the Glacier received in Monday morning's mail, each writer enclosing the money for a year's subscription:
C. A. Armstrong, Principal High School, Canton, Ohio.—I visited the valley last summer and have become much interested in it since that time. Please send me the paper for a year.
Mrs. A. M. Dickason, R. F. D. No. 3, Chillicothe, Ill.—Having visited in Hood River and read your paper, I am interested in them both, so enclose subscription.

Party at Dan's Home.

A few of their friends gathered at the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Dan on West River street Thursday evening and an enjoyable time was spent. The party broke up in the "wee sma' hours," thanking their host and hostess for a very pleasant time. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Mayes, Mr. and Mrs. Al Klinger, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Sunderland, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Loftis, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Beatty, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sparger, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Dan, Frank Steerit.

A Night Attack.

Last night the little daughter of Mrs. Brown, as she was sweetly and peacefully slept in her little bed near the window was attacked by a death-dealing demon known as Croup Whooping Cough, and but for the timely use of Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar, which she always keeps handy, the life of the little one might not have been saved. Kennedy's Laxative Tar and Honey is different from all of the old-time cough syrups and is best for children because it acts on the bowels, it is harmless, safe and certain. Contains no opiates. Sold by G. E. Williams.

Stokoe-Hutchinson.

Another one of Frankton's nicest girls has deserted us and for better or for worse has started to play keep-house on her own account. This time it is Miss H. M. Hutchinson, the foster daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Noble of Frankton and better known to her friends here by the name of Maud Noble. Miss Maud was one of the nicest of Frankton's girls, was always genial, bright and pleasant company for her young associates, kind and affectionate in her foster home, where she was reared and loved the same as the other children and in fact never knew until she reached her majority that she was not the child of Mr. and Mrs. Noble. Miss Hutchinson taught school at Wyeth during the past school year, her school closing last Friday, and it was during this residence in Wyeth that she met her fate in the person of George W. Stokoe, who is foreman in the tie-dipping plant at that place. Maud's friends have been suspicious of her lately and were anticipating an opportunity to give her a good "send off" on the matrimonial race, but she and her running mate forestalled all the wisely laid plans by quietly slipping up to The Dalles and getting the nuptial knot tied last Saturday. The happy couple at once began house-keeping at Wyeth where Mr. Stokoe is employed.

The best wishes of her many friends in the valley and city of Hood River for a long and happy life will go with Mr. and Mrs. Stokoe.

DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cools, soothes and heals cuts, burns, boils, bruises, piles and all skin diseases. K. E. Zickelose, Adolph, W. Vir, says: "My little daughter had white swelling so bad that piece after piece of bone worked out of her leg. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured her." It is the most wonderful healing salve in the world. Beware of counterfeits. Sold by G. E. Williams.

BARRETT.

Mrs. F. C. Sherrish and Mrs. E. Brayford were making a call Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. Helme.

The Labbe boys are clearing out the strawberry land for J. R. Kinzie, our polite and obliging mail carrier. Must say right here that the Labbe family are all workers.

Mr. Oats, representing Wadhams & Kerr Bros. of Portland, was out to store on Friday and picked up a nice little order for groceries.

C. C. Hill has been plowing up some land on the Helme place. John says he must put in some spuds so as to get some returns.

G. R. Gastner called at the Rockefeller store on Saturday morning last and left an order for a nice bill of goods. Then asked "Do you deliver goods?" Why of course, Rockefeller delivers goods on any part of the valley.

A 25c ad in the Glacier brought a customer for a $25 wagon. Nothing like an ad in the Glacier. Look them over this week and see the ad on the horse.

CASCADE LOCKS.

We are now having fine spring weather. Had a stiff frost last night, which will be apt to damage our early fruit.

Mr. Connor spent Sunday on his ranch at White Salmon.

Mr. Martin of White Salmon, formerly of the Locks, is back to the Locks for a short stay. He reports everything booming at White Salmon.

Mr. Connor has just purchased a fine horse from N. D. Sanford.

Two of our young people James Laybe and Hattie Axell went to The Dalles last Wednesday and were married by Father Desmaris. They are nice young people and have been well liked. We don't fancy their leaving town to get married, we have a minister and a justice of the peace here. They did not let us know in time to throw our old shoes at them. We will watch the next young couple that are to get married.
