

EASTER ANNOUNCEMENT

Hundreds of Ladies

In this city have recently received by mail a booklet telling them about the splendid garments for women we are showing this Spring

La Vogue.

No make of women's garments in the country that quite compares with the "La Vogue" line in genuine good style, correctness of design, graceful fit and perfect make. They are moderate in price, too.

There are beautiful Silk Shirt Waist Suits, Cloth and Silk Suits, Silk Coats, Jaunty Covert Jackets, Rain Coats and Skirts, all excellent. These splendid styles backed by our recommendation ought to interest the most particular dressers.

Come See Them before too many are gone

You are sure to be very well repaid for your trouble

THE UP-TO-DATE STORE

At Least 75 Per Cent. Maybe More

Of the Clothing now being sold is made from fabrics adulterated with mercerized cotton. It is a fact of vital importance to the dealer as well as the wearer.

To The Dealer,

Because it soon kills his reputation for good quality. The Cloth looks good, but falls down when put to the test of wear.

To The Wearer,

Because whether he buys them for what they are or what they appear to be he is sure to be disappointed in the wear and looks of his clothes.

But if it is easy to be deceived in buying clothes it is easy to escape deception.

Miss Mary Wolfard of White Salmon is in the city to attend the Nelson-Smith wedding.

St. La France, a Portland capitalist and former resident of Hood River, is in the city.

J. D. McCulley, a business man of Joseph, Ore., was in the city last week the guest of Dr. and Mrs. M. F. Shaw.

M. M. Cull of Albany, grand chancellor of the Knights of Pythias for Oregon, paid the local lodge an official visit Tuesday evening.

Dr. Cooper left Monday for Iowa, where he goes to attend to some business affairs. He expects to return in a couple of months to make Hood River his home.

Rev. H. C. Clark of Belmont will preach at the Methodist church next Sunday at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. The quarterly conference will be held on Saturday at 3 p. m.

Mr. Sherwood, from Mansfield, Tins. county, Penn., is in the valley with a view of buying a home here. Mr. Sherwood comes from the same part of the Pennsylvania as the colony that came to Hood River in 1876, and our prices are a little less than elsewhere.

The Interstate Publishing company of Spokane, which recently issued a "history" of Yakima, Klickitat and Kittitas counties, containing writings of pioneers and others, has brought suit against a number of persons who contracted for historical data, and who refuse on one ground or another to pay for the same. In a case brought against W. L. Splan to recover some $71, Justice Nichols decided against the company, as a consequence the company's attorney this morning asked for a change of venue in the case against E. S. Yates to recover $18.50. It is said there are 25 or 30 of these suits to be filed in Republic.

H. J. Fredericks was up from Portland last week.

Mrs. Charley Clark, of Hood River, with her little daughter, are visiting Mrs. W. O. Hadley—Wasco News.

George T. Prather made sale last week of Ghu Fabrick's 80 acres on the East side to J. O. Mark; consideration, $3250. The land is partly improved.

S. P. Shutt, who has been a newspaper publisher in Oregon for 20 years, will start a paper to be called the City next week at Gold Beach, Curry county.

Laraway & Cooper finished Friday night setting 23 acres to Nextwons and Spitzengorge, with just enough other varieties to act as pollinators. One year ago the land was virgin soil.

Whiskey Creek, tributary to Hood River, will hereafter be distinguished as Clear Creek, and it naturally follows, says the Portland Telegram, that red noses will give way to red apples.

Mrs. J. L. Carter of Hood River, was in the city last night, the guest of Mrs. and Mr. H. E. Crawford.

While here she met her brother, Joseph Ector, whom she had not seen for 20 years.—Hepner Times.

The amount of taxes collected by the Sheriff on April 3 is $14,225. This is a good showing for that date, and speaks well for our citizens in the public treasury.—Chronicle.

Mrs. Charles Halverson, who recently came here from Pennsylvania, says she feels perfectly at home in Hood River, "Oregon is Pennsylvania with all her good points and with none of her bad ones," says Mrs. Halverson.

Mrs. H. C. Clark, now residing in the famous Hood River valley, was in Goldendale during the week visiting old-time friends. She and her husband, Rev. Clark, are well pleased with that part of Oregon.—Golden-Globe Agriculturist.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Conklin and daughter Margaret reached Hood River Saturday morning from Kirkville, Mo., and are guests for the present at the Hotel Wagona. Mr. Conklin owns a wheat ranch in Klickitat county east of Goldendale, and left the first of the week to look after the same. Mr. Conklin and family expect to make their home for the summer in this city and may later purchase property here. They have been readers of the Glacier for a year or more, and feel that they are somewhat acquainted here already. Saturday they drove over the valley to view the apple orchards and berry fields.

Mrs. Price returned Saturday from a trip to Portland.

Mrs. McKelgan of Collins Landing is visiting Mrs. Spear on the heights.

A. I. Mason returned Sunday afternoon from a visit with his wife in the hospital in that city. He says Mrs. Mason is getting along nicely, and her physicians expect her to be strong enough for the operation today.

Dakin & Kent will begin this week to paint the residence being erected near T. J. Conning's by Will Sheets the fire chief. Dakin & Kent put a new coat of paint to C. H. Stranahan's dwelling last week, also the home of Contra for Arnold.

I. C. Nodigh has been notified by Forest Supervisor Ascholtz to report for duty as a ranger on the reserve by April 15. The first work laid out by the supervisor is the construction of the trail from Lost Lake around Mount Hood to Government camp. When this is completed it will be possible to ride around Mount Hood on horseback. The trail will make it much easier for the forest patrol to protect the forests from fires.

Car Robbins, who was taken to the hospital at The Dalles last week suffering from an abscess in his right lung, resulting from a seven-week's siege of pneumonia, is feeling much better since his operation. His friends have every hope that he will soon recover. Mr. Robbins was employed during the winter at the Parkertown mills. He was accompanied to The Dalles by his brother and sister Joseph and Cady and by I. C. Nodigh.

S. F. Byhte and family are now residents of their Twin Oaks farm one mile west of the city. Manager Allen and family will occupy the Byhte residence on West Oak street. The former proprietor of the Glacier will now enjoy life on his fruit ranch. Nelson & Sanders, have just been given a contract to erect a new house for Mr. Byhte. John Zelle and some are already at work on the foundation. The building is expected to be completed by June 15.

Miss Gertrude Kinney, a nurse from The Dalles Hospital and a friend of Mr. and Mrs. Burns Jones, and others in the valley has been spending her days of convalescence from a siege of the typhoid fever at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jones. Miss Kinney is a skilled and accomplished nurse, and the fact that Mr. and Mrs. Jones returned from the hospital so fortunately after their illness last summer is due largely to her skilled work. Miss Kinney returns to The Dalles this week for further treatment. She says having a "nurse" to so enjoyable as being a nurse, that it is much pleasanter to wait upon others than to receive the attention yourself. Her Hood River friends hope for her speedy recovery and that she may conveniently be coming to Hood River permanently in the near future.

S. W. Condon of White Salmon was in Hood River Sunday, on his way to Portland. He returned Tuesday.

Joseph Davenport of Mount Hood has left for St. Anthony, Idaho, where he owns a farm.

Mrs. H. L. Vorse returned Monday from Hood River, where she visited her mother, Mrs. P. Cram.

Grattan Condon of White Salmon, who has been at Eugene since last fall, attending the high school there, returned last week to assist his father on the farm. The young man made a splendid record in his school work.

William Kable, who recently purchased the former home and lots where Dr. Cooper resides on River street west of L. Henry's is improving the grounds and expects to build another cottage on the vacant lot. It is summer unless he sells.

W. F. Arnold, whose family came up from Hood River that a little over a month ago, accompanied by Mrs. Arnold and the children, left for Pendleton where they will make their home.—Chronicle.

Billy Washie, who was over from his ranch under the hills of Upper Hood River, had Friday, 1908, his strawberries are doing nicely, and that there are berries there as large as the foot of a man's thumb. He has three and a half acres, which will produce very early berries.

Mrs. Pettis of North Bend, Ore., who has been in California for a winter passed through Hood River a week and stopped for a few days' visit with her friend Mrs. A. C. Lutz on West River street. Mrs. Pettis thinks Hood River the most lovely place she has ever visited and would come here to live if she could get the men folks to move, but thinks this would be hard to do because of their large property interests at their Eastern homes. She expects to come again and make a longer visit as she was hurried away before her visit was out this time, by a message from home.

Coning Social Event.

An invitation will be given by the Hood River orchestra at the Odell hall, April 28.

Invitations will be sent out, and further particulars given in a next week's paper.
