SETTLERS HERE FROM THE EAST

Valley's Population Increased Last Week by 25 People—They Buy Farm Lands.

Four families from the East have within the last few days made purchase of farms on the East Side, and have moved onto the land with the intention of making Hood River their home. These four families have added in total 25 people to the population of the valley. They are all people with means, and propose to improve their lands in many ways to increase the wealth of the valley.
