

FRANK A. CRAM

When you buy
READY-MADE
SHIRT WAISTS SUITS,
SEPARATE SKIRTS
OR TAILOR-MADE SUITS
buy of a RELIABLE DEALER, who stands for HONESTY in every sense of the term.

You say you can't afford to buy all wool goods; the truth is, you can't afford anything else. Sweatshop products may look good; they may be lower priced; they certainly ought to be. But reliable garments mean a lot besides the texture of the cloth; it means satisfaction in service; more than that, it means the self respect which wearing the real thing brings. Wear FRANK A. CRAM'S up-to-date garments, TRUE ECONOMY. That's what our label means. A small thing to look for, a big thing to find.

Skirts, 2.95 to $15.00

Shirt Waist Suits, $2 to $30

Tailor-made Suits, $10 to $35

The Up-to-Date Store

HONESTY IN CLOTHES

is just like any other honesty. There are no degrees of honesty, in clothes or anything else. If a man is really honest he is not dishonest in anything, not even in a little.

There is no middle ground; he is either one thing or the other.

The standard of honest in clothes is represented in the highest degree, by FRANK A. CRAM, in his well selected stock for spring and summer, 1905.

We stand for HONESTY; for no other reason than because its best; and the best isn't too good for us, or for you. Our label is a sign of it—a small thing to look for, a big thing to find.

$10, $12, $15, $18 to $22

Will do the work of twice the above sums at the regular tailors.

Date for Rice Trial Not Set.

The date of the trial of Frank Rios has not been set yet. The prosecution is not anxious to rush matters, but will be prepared for trial at the present term of court, provided the defense is ready. If not, the case will go over to the November term.

Rice continues to maintain a strict silence concerning the case. W. H. Wilson and A. A. Jayne have been secured as his attorneys.

Mrs. D. N. Byerlee received the sad intelligence last Monday of the death of her mother, Mrs. Allen Hickey, at Des Moines, on Sunday, May 21. Mrs. Byerlee had been planning a visit to her home in the East this summer.

H. J. Friedrichs is home from an extended visit in the East. Before reaching home, Mr. Friedrichs spent a few days in Portland, where he attended the state convention of the Foresters of America. Mr. Friedrichs was elected a trustee of the grand lodge.

Arthur Glover, who has been attending college at Vancouver for the past year, came up on the boat Saturday to spend a few days at the home of Mrs. J. Mohr, before leaving for his home at Dayville.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Wiley are now located in Portland, where he is assisting Superintendent Robinson to arrange and install the educational exhibit at the Lewis and Clark fair. Mr. Wiley says there is an enormous amount of work to be done in every department. Very few exhibits are now installed, but large forces of workmen are everywhere at work.

P. D. Cragger, representing the Hastings Industrial Co. of Chicago, was in this city a few days last week. Mr. Cragger is interested in establishing creameries and fruit canning establishments throughout the country. He was very favorably impressed with Hood River, and expects to return later to lay the matter before the people here. Mr. Cragger believes he would also like to buy land here to make this his home.

Born.

At Menominee, Or., Monday, May 8, to Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Cameron, a daughter.

George Fox was in Portland last week, where he attended the state convention of the Foresters of America.

Miss Nellie Perry of the East Side is visiting with her cousin, Miss Susie Kelly.

Mrs. F. Dickson of Portland, spent the week as a guest at the Mt. Hood Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Bond of Portland were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Pace their relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davenport Jr. spent Sunday and Monday in Portland visiting friends.

J. C. MacLennan of the White Salmon Land Co., passed through Hood River Monday on his way to the Dalles. He returned that afternoon by boat.

C. D. Thompson has again resumed his position as receiving clerk for the Davidson Fruit Co. during the berry season.

L. V. Taylor and niece, Miss Irene Wells, the Iowa people who spent the winter at the Mount Hood hotel, returned this week from a two-month stay in Portland. They left yesterday for a trip to Texas.

L. S. Doble, of Portland, accompanied by Mrs. Doble, was in the city during the week. Doble is well known throughout the Columbia river valley by every heavy man to railroad conductor along the line as a dog fancier and expert horseman. Incidentally, Doble travels for Fleischer, Mayer & Co.

Bishop Wells will be in Hood River Wednesday evening, May 31, for confirmation exercises at the Episcopal church. Rev. Mr. Chambers will remain here over Sunday from until after the 31st, to prepare any and all who desire to be confirmed, who are not already prepared.

Several fine new residences are nearing completion on the hill, among them being those of Mrs. George P. Crowell, E. E. Goff, William Sheets, A. W. Outbank and H. S. Richmond. These new homes will each one represent the expenditure of between $2000 and $3000. They are all handsome additions to the many fine residences of this city.

Mrs. S. W. Arnold returned Monday from Collins hot springs, where she visited Will Isenberg and family. Mr. Isenberg is rapidly recovering from his rheumatism, although the cold damp weather of the last few days has not been best for him. When Mr. Isenberg went to the springs he had to walk with two canes. He hopes to return to some his position in Stewart's store within a week or so.

The M. E. ladies' aid society will meet with Mrs. Deitz on Friday afternoon of this week at two o'clock.

James Dunn, now of Hood River, but formerly of Knappa, and an old friend of N. P. O'Brien, is visiting at Mr. O'Brien's this week.—Hood River Dispatch.

H. M. Abbott has purchased acres from Mrs. Amelia Sturgis at Mosier. Thirty acres of this land is in cultivation, mostly planted to fruit trees.

Dan Myers, who with R. J. Gould of this city is constructing a water and sewer system for the town of Vance, spent Sunday with his family in this city.

T. A. Seball, who lately removed to Parkhurst, the beautiful farm home formerly owned by Mrs. Parker, is becoming settled in the roomy manor, and is very busily engaged improving the orchards and grounds.

Mrs. S. W. Arnold gathered new potatoes from her garden on the hill in Coe's addition, Tuesday morning, May 21. The potatoes she says were large as going a size. Some of a couple of inches turned this week from a two-month stay in Portland. They left yesterday for a trip to Texas.

Two houses for rent. W. J. Baker.

Mr. Kirkwood of Hood River is here repairing orchards.—Horseshoe Bend team in Goldendale Sentinel.

While his physicians cannot say as to how soon John Crute will be able to leave the hospital their reports concerning his condition are decidedly encouraging.—The Dalles Chronicle.

Benjamin L. Colton, president of the Portland Trust Co., was a Hood River visitor last Saturday. Mr. Colton believes there is a great future in store for this little city, and he says he is always pleased to make the trip here.

Horace Meeklen, who will assist Mrs. S. Langille this summer in the management of the Cloud Cap Inn, arrived last week from New York City. Because of the small amount of snow in the mountains this season, Mrs. Langille expects to have the Inn ready for guests by June 1.

A couple not to youth's bright morning, but who are nearer the sunset of life and have determined to travel the remainder of the journey together, obtained a marriage license last week. They are E. Hendershot, of Hood River, aged 64, and Mrs. Kate Chinnaman, whose home is on Dutch Flat, and who is 64 years of age.—Chronicle.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank McFarland of Portland visited a few days last week with Mrs. M. B. Potter at Belmont. E. E. Potter of Elmira, N. Y., a brother of M. B. Potter, accompanied them. Mr. Potter came west to attend the national convention of railway conductors. A party left Thursday for Hopper.

A carload of 12-inch cast iron pipes was untrucked here last week, and will be used in the construction of a standpipe for the railroad watering tank at this point. The tank of 60,000 gallons capacity will be erected west of the passenger depot. The iron piping will be used to convey the water to a standpipe at the end of the depot, where cast-iron trains will receive water for the engines.

J. H. Crosby, one of the prosperous farmers of the thriving Obol section, was in the city Tuesday. Mr. Crosby says he has tried to induce his father, an old farmer in the state of Maine, to come to Hood River, but the idea of a 600-mile trip does not appeal to the senior Mr. Crosby, who is content to spend the remainder of his days on his farm in Maine. The old gentleman is nearly 85 years old, but is still an expert workman, his last winter having completed four bob sleds, two of which he sold at $40 each. John says the first piece of blacksmithing his father did was to make him a knife blade from an old file that was far better than most of the knives to be found today.
