

INCORPORATION SALE

—AT THE UP-TO-DATE STORE—

Frank A. Cram

Will close out his entire stock at wholesale prices before February 1, 1906.

THIS does not mean that we will discontinue business operations in Hood River. We make this sacrifice in order to go into business on a larger scale than ever. The growing conditions in Hood River requires a larger capital, therefore, we have decided to incorporate this business with a larger working capital, backed by some of the most responsible men in Oregon. We propose to add new lines, and carry on a general business, making such changes from our present system, as seem desirable. This sale is absolutely honest as well as necessary. We want as great a volume of cash, and as small a stock of goods, as possible, to turn into the proposed stock company. I shall continue in the management of the new company and will have better facilities for handling the business than ever before. We will be in a position to take care of all our customers' requirements, and do it right.

Our store will be closed all day

FRIDAY, JUNE 2d

Our force will proceed to mark everything down. Only telephone orders filled while store is closed.

Great Sale Begins Saturday, JUNE 3d.

$75,000

STOCK

Slaughtered

Between Saturday, June 3, 1905
and February 1, 1906

For the next 228 days this Great Carnival of Bargains will attract the attention of every man, woman and child, within a radius of 100 miles.

We must sell, not only our present immense stock, but also all fall goods, as our fall contracts are already placed and we must receive the shipments. Our loss will be your gain, however, which is a satisfaction in itself. We realize that to reduce this immense stock in a few days or weeks is impossible, hence we will take the next 228 days and reduce the price of everything from 15 to 50 per cent except agency lines such as Butterick patterns, Coates thread, etc., which are contract goods.

Dry goods, Ladies' Ready-made Suits, Skirts, Jackets, Capes, Waists, Muslin Underwear, Dress Goods, Silks, Wash Goods, Lace Curtains, Sheets, Pillow Cases, Bed Spreads, Blankets, Towels, Table Linens, Draperies, Portiers, Rugs, Silkline, Calicoes, Gingham, Outing flannels, etc., Mens' clothing, Single pants, Fancy vests, Underwear, Shirts, Boys' and Youths' clothing, Single pants, Shirts, Sweaters, Hats, Mens' and Boys' shoes, Ladies' and Children's shoes.

All come in for the general slaughter. Don't buy unless we save you from 15 to 50 per cent on everything. Look on the other side for a slight index to our splendid stock and remember that space will not permit us to mention but a few items in this immense gathering of goods. YOURS TRULY, FRANK A. CRAM.

N. B.--Mail orders from outside towns will get the same benefit, on all orders sent us during this great sale.
