UNDERWOOD IS GROWING FAST

By a Staff Correspondent.
Underwood, Wash., June 12.—The ring of the hammer can be heard and it is sweet music to all who live in the bustling little town of Underwood. Captain Harry Olson has commenced work on his new home, Smith & Clark have added a large addition to their store, and on all sides there is evidence of boom. It is the intention of Captain Olson to erect one of the best hosteleries along the river. It will mean much to Underwood, for already the travel is heavy and new faces are seen daily near the settlement.

The two old pioneers, Amos and Ed Underwood, are looking for the great year in the history of the little town that is regarded as one of the bustling cities on the Washington side. Additional gossip relative to the new road is causing all to realize that a town is coming. The new road to Trout Lake has opened up wonderful trade for the merchants, and it is said that others are coming.

There will soon be another store, a physician is to locate there, a blacksmith shop is going to be built, and before long the hillside will be dotted with new residences.

There is under consideration the installing of an electric light plant, and then Underwood, if you please, will be putting on real city airs.

There is no question but what the new road will make Underwood, and it will in all probability be a division point. The lay of the land is natural for the company to locate there. According to the surveys that have been made, it is sure to be the supply point during construction of the road.

Activity in Real Estate.
There is a great deal of activity in the real estate market and property is changing hands rapidly. Every day the boats leave visitors who have been attending or are on their way to the fair.

The ranchers are all prosperous and have money and many of them are casting about for snags in the city of Underwood. It is noticeable on all sides how loyal all are to the new city. It has been for Underwood, but now, it is for Greater Underwood.

Among the farmers who were the most successful with their berries is John C. Clarkson. He has a patch of five acres and realized over a thousand dollars clear of all expenses. She did so and says, "I find that they have done me a great deal of good. I have never had any suffering since I began using them." If troubled with dyspepsia or indigestion why not take these Tablets, get well and stay well? For sale by Williams' Pharmacy.

His Chief Interest.
"Yes, he was pretty well fixed at one time, but he got silver-crazed in 1890 and he lost all he had."
