 Both at Spokane and Salem Saturday night about 10 o'clock a fiery red meteor was seen in the sky. At the former place it was described as a ball of fire as large as a man's head. It was first observed as a small streak in the southwest, travelling on a horizontal line. As it approached it grew larger and went out in a flash. At Salem it appeared about a foot in diameter and went so rapidly that it left a halo in its wake like a comet. It was in sight about five seconds.
 W. O. Sanders has just closed a contract with A. C. Staten for the erection of a $2000 cottage on his fruit farm two miles west of the city. Mr. Sanders is a contractor of 12 years experience, and for the last seven years has given a good deal of his attention to the line of architecture, to which he seems particularly adapted. His work in Hood River has given him satisfaction, as several handsome dwelling houses in the city and valley will testify. The business card of W. O. Sanders & Co. appears in another column.
