

LOOKING NOW FOR THE COWS

"That was a splendid meeting this afternoon, and to me the prospects look brighter for a cream route here right now than they did a year ago at Sunnyside, in the Yakima valley, where we are now sending in $2300 a month for cream."

Mr. Brown explained that when his company entered the field at Sunnyside they had got down to $4 a ton and the farmers were seeking some means of making a profit from their farms. A half dozen meetings were held, which finally resulted in naming someone to go out and buy cows by the carload.

Mr. Winchell has carefully estimated the hay crop in the Pine Grove district, and finds that the local consumption will take 100 tons, leaving 600 tons to market.
