

WHITE SALMON'S BIG DEPT. STORE

There is one thing sure, the people of White Salmon and vicinity can pride themselves on the fine store of C. M. Wolfard & Co. It is an exception to all stores to find such a perfect department store with a stock of goods exceeding $15,000.00 in a little city the size of White Salmon...

Prominent Berry Grower

J. P. Egan has one of the fine berry ranches along the beautiful Columbia river and is one of the influential citizens. He holds the office of justice of the peace and is county commissioner and treasurer of the White Salmon Fruit union...

Gossip About Merchants and Ranchers

C. A. Nichols, up the mountain in the Pine Flat country, has 100 acres. He is just at present constructing a new residence. It is his intention to go into the fruit business just as fast as he clears his land.

A. W. Balsiger one year ago last June opened up his general store and his business has been increasing day by day. He carries a general stock and has everything that one would expect...

John Trana, constable and painting contractor, is one of the busy men of the city. He does a great deal of good work in the city, and besides being a first-class contractor, is a good peace officer.

D. McDonald, five miles east of White Salmon, has a fine 100 acre ranch. He has 90 acres under cultivation with over an acre in bearing trees...

Carl Miller, seven miles from White Salmon, in the Pine Flat country, recently disposed of a part of his fine 100 acre tract. He is doing a great deal of improving on his farm.

Mrs. Sarah Miles has one of the fine ranches near Husum. The farm is managed by her son, James Miles. Over 25 acres are under cultivation, four acres a fine commercial orchard and nine acres in hay.

William Emmons, the nestor of the Mountain Brook country, has 30 acres and is the head of the lumber line improved farms and goes in very heavily in the fruit business.

D. W. Plank is one of the successful farmers in the Pine Flat country. He has 100 acres of fine land, and goes in heavily on the fruit proposition.

Sanford Smith, of the Pine Flat country, or rather on "apple hill," has a fine farm and is one of the very successful ones in fruit. His place is well improved and he is constantly adding more.

J. G. Wiers, road supervisor for District No. 4, has been a resident here for fourteen years and is one of the enthusiasts over good roads. He has a nice ranch north of the city, and has it stocked with 100 head of cattle and 20 horses.

Mrs. C. G. Jennings of Irrigon, Oregon, has recently opened up a restaurant and ice cream parlor. Lunches and meals are served. In connection she has a bakery.

A. H. Jewett's Picturesque Ranch and Residence

W. H. Cook has one of the fine homesteads and he is going into the fruit proposition as fast as he can clear up. He has great confidence in the White Salmon valley and believes that in time it will be furnishing the apples for the entire world.

W. J. Ferguson, in the Cook addition, has one of the fine berry farms in the valley. The past year was a most successful one for him. His berries are early and bring big prices. He is another one who does not have to irrigate.

Frank Burdoin, up the mountain about two miles from White Salmon is one of the big fruit growers on the mountain. His place commands a beautiful view of the country and his apples are very fine indeed.

J. B. Benton, the proprietor of the meat market is fastly establishing a splendid business. He is thoroughly conversant with the business and the trade is finding that when he serves meat that it is the best that can be had.

L. U. Ingram is one of the newcomers in this section having recently purchased a ten-acre tract of J. C. McCoy and has just completed a fine home. He is one of the trusted men in the employ of McCoy & Thomas, the mill men.

James C. Cox, in the Cook addition, has a producing five-acre berry ranch. He also raises some of the finest potatoes shipped from White Salmon.

E. M. Peck, adjoining his nine acres in a ranch. He has 2 1/2 acres in berries and has a fine orchard. His crop this year was one of the finest in quality.

Ed. Emmons is one of the prosperous ranchers in the Mountain Brook settlement, and is also engaged in the saw mill business. He has 100 acres of excellent land.

Captain Howard C. Cook, who has the distinction of having Cook's settlement named after him, is one of the best known and respected citizens of White Salmon. He is a retired sea captain and veteran of the civil war. He has done a great deal to promote the fruit interests of this district.

C. M. WOLFARD & CO., Leading Department House in Western Washington. C. M. WOLFARD & CO., White Salmon, Wash.

FIFTEEN THOUSAND DOLLAR'S worth of goods--the most complete department store outside of Seattle and Portland--there is no need of putting it off till you get to Portland or send to Seattle. You will find just what you want and at prices that will cause you to consider sending away to larger cities.

Clothing Department. Dry Goods Department. Hats. Shoes. We carry a fine line of Men's and Boys' Ready-to-wear Clothing... Special Bargains. Ladies' undermuslins, long and short chemises, skirts, drawers, corset covers, etc.

Grocery Department. We are the big supply house for Western Washington in the provision line. We purchase in large quantities and consequently are enabled to sell cheap, saving you 20 per cent on everything in the grocery line.

Crockery and Chinaware Dept. Jewelry Department. Drug Department. Complete in every respect, from the finest china to the plainest crockery. We have a well selected stock of fine plated ware and novelties of all kinds.

Hardware Department. Furniture Department. Hatters, ranges, heavy and steel hardware, cutlery, and cooking utensils of all kinds. Iron beds, mattresses, couches, rockers; in fact, everything to be found in a first-class furniture store is to be found in this department.

C. M. WOLFARD & CO., White Salmon, Wash. The big department store of Western Washington. C. M. WOLFARD & CO., White Salmon, Wash.

Experts in Their Line.

One of the busy firms of White Salmon is the firm of Rosegrant & Everhart, the contractors and builders. The firm makes it a rule to carry everything in stock that is needed for the construction of a house.

W. S. Locke, 2 1/2 miles north, has 100 acres and twelve acres in fruit trees. He is one of the old timers and successful ranchers of this section, having been continuously on the same site for 18 years.

E. W. Dreske, the jeweler, has been in White Salmon for eighteen months and has established an excellent business. He makes a specialty of watch repairing and has more than he can do.

Fred Groshong has a homestead five miles northeast of the city. For the past fourteen years he has been engaged in farming and has always done well. He expects to go into the fruit business as fast as he clears up his land.

N. W. Froeland, who lives seven miles from White Salmon, up on the mountain, has one of the picturesque spots on the Washington side. The past year he was one of the most successful ones in the berry raising.

John Ackley, a half mile east of Mountain Brook, has a fine 100-acre ranch. He has twelve acres cleared and has 120 apple trees out. It is his intention to plant many more trees as time goes on.

White Salmon is on the BOOM. We are growing, too. We have a complete stock of Dry Goods, Groceries, Shoes, Notions, Flour, Feed. A. W. BALSIGER, White Salmon, Wash. WHITE SALMON HOTEL. E. C. COLBURN, Proprietor.

E. H. Dreske THE JEWELER. I carry fine Watches, Clocks, Rings, Chains, Stick Pins, etc. C. S. BANCROFT White Salmon, Washington. JOHN TRANA - White Salmon - Washington...

Painting and Paper Hanging. I ENJOY THE REPUTATION OF DOING THE BEST OF WORK. Extra Copies of the "White Salmon Valley Edition" can be secured at this office.