The Chicago Packer finds short apple crops in Michigan and New York. Taking the state on a whole, this year's crop in New York will be about 40 per cent of last year's yield.

Probably taking its cue from the good work of Mr. Hall for the O. R. & N., the Southern Pacific lines will expend $100,000 in advertising the scenic attractions of the line between Los Angeles and Portland.

Government reports go to show that the quality of this year's apple crop is much below the average. This should mean that fancy fruit will bring a good price, but with an abundance of the common grades, the grower who puts up a poor pack and poor apples will have difficulty realizing anything but small returns.

Let every man who is a taxpayer in the city of Hood River, and the women too, attend the mass meeting of citizens at the Commercial club rooms Friday evening, when the sewer and water questions will be discussed. Sewers are a vital necessity to Hood River. The members of the city council no doubt realize this, but they have been without funds necessary for an undertaking of this kind, and furthermore when the attempt was made last spring to levy an assessment for a sewer system, so strong was the opposition from many quarters that the proposition was annulled. The subject is a serious one, and one of vital importance to the health of the community. A system must be constructed sooner or later whatever the cost. From prudent citizens there is a firm demand that something be done. Here will be an excellent opportunity for the people of the city to publicly express their views on a question in which we are all interested. There will also be a discussion of the water question. Let everybody turn out.

The creamery route is already distributing $45 a week to the farmers of Mount Hood, reports Mr. Gribble of that place, who looks after the shipment of the cream which is brought to his store. Mr. Leasure made his first shipment of 19 pounds last week, which was six milkings from two scrub cows, as he terms them, and the report received Tuesday from the creamery company showed a test of 38.2 butter fat. Mr. Leasure says his cows have had nothing but pasture feed. He is well pleased with the result. S. Copple of Odell received a report the same day which went 42 per cent butter fat. His cows are Jerseys. This is far above the average, 30 pounds of butter fat being considered a very good showing. William Davidson shipped cream which went 42 1/2 per cent butter fat. The butter fat is now worth 28 1/2 cents a pound. This is within a cent and a half of the wholesale price of the creamery butter. As it costs but 1/2 cent a pound to ship the cream from Mount Hood to Portland and return the cans, there is a profit of 2 cents to the farmer. Looks like pretty good money, doesn't it?

WILL MAKE FINE RANCH AT MOSIER

By a Staff Correspondent.
Mosier, Or., Aug. 16.—A. A. Wright, assistant manager of the Portland Hotel, is doing things these days. Little over a year ago he purchased the James Brown place, and while he has done a great deal of work already, he has not begun. He has been looking over the ranch and has given out that it is his intention to have a model farm.
Already he has commenced work on a stone cottage. This will be finished and furnished in elaborate style and used as a summer home by Mr. and Mrs. Wright. When all the plans are carried out, it will surely be a model ranch. Mr. Wright will not draw the lines close, but on the other hand, has instructed C. D. Morgan, his manager, to cut loose and make a "kid glove" ranch. Mr. Morgan is one of the busy men, looking after the force of twenty men now clearing fifteen additional acres for potatoes.
Dr. C. A. MacCrum of Portland also has one of the fine ranches in this section. About a year ago he purchased the Pete Miller farm and is arranging the very finest orchard that can be arranged. This year he added fourteen acres, and E. D. Hosken, his manager, says the work will be carried on, clearing all the land and putting it in fruit.
A. P. Bateman, manager of the East Hood River Fruit company, is just now congratulating himself over the good fortune he had in checking one of the finest trees on his ranch. Mr. Bateman has a large force of men at work clearing and during the high wind of last week, the fire spread as though the entire timber along the river would be consumed.
Mrs. Annie Varnell and two children of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dray of Scott, Ohio, Marlin Dray of Ada, Ohio; Mrs. L. Davis of Clinton, Ohio, have been guests at the home of J. P. Carroll. The guests from Ohio are all relatives of Mr. Carroll and are on the coast on a vacation. They leave tomorrow for Olympia, returning next week to Portland to do the fair, and then will visit in California. In honor of the occasion Mr. and Mrs. Carroll entertained a number at 12 o'clock dinner Tuesday. Among those present were Messrs. Leo Houton and Gater, of White Salmon, Wash., who were for years fellow townsmen of the Messrs. Dray.
E. J. Middleward and family and George Chamberlain started out on Tuesday on a fishing trip. Camp will be made in one of the McClure cabins and two weeks or more passed.
Mr. and Mrs. Amos Root are home from the fair after a week of sight-seeing at the big show.
Mrs. L. C. Butler, who had been

MUCH WORK BEFORE KLICKITAT COURT

Special to the Glacier.
Goldendale, Wash., Aug. 15.—The board of county commissioners met Monday, Aug. 7, as a board of equalization, with Chairman W. E. Hornbrook, J. P. Egan and E. Y. Stouffer in attendance. They finished the business of the term Saturday. Following is a synopsis of the proceedings.

Assessment J. P. Sison reduced $950; assessment Jacob Plendl reduced from $1850 to $1240; personal assessment J. W. Gilgewater's reduced $65; Mrs. Hickinbotham's assessment real estate reduced $240; J. M. Wilkins real estate reduced $200; C. B. Yeackel's personal assessment raised $21; Henry Yeackel's personal assessment raised $240; request J. U. Chamberlain for reduction refused.
The board then adjourned sine die, in special session, and a great deal of business was attended to as follows:
The George Gerbing road was continued until right of way is secured. The right of way for the change in the R. D. Cameron road having been given by R. D. Cameron, the change was accepted.
The following bills were allowed as surveyors' assistant: On Cook road, George Curtin, R. Adams, and A. Smalley, 2 days each, $4 each; Walter Walters, 2 days, $4; Arthur Emmens, 2 days, $4, and Roy Emmens 2 days, $4.
To work on Thornton road: By J. P. Egan 1 day, $4; Ira Rowland 1 day, $2.
Harold A. MacLeod, as surveyors' office and field assistant, $37.50.
In the matter of the appeal from the decision of the county superintendent by G. E. Ackley and others, over the division of a school district, the decision of the superintendent is sustained.
The contract for the building the trestle across Jones Creek, was awarded to Rosegrat & Everhart, their bid being $280, while the bid of Maine & Adams was $317.
H. D. Cole, former supervisor of district No. 4, made his final report and was accepted and warrant ordered drawn in his favor for $51.75.
In the matter of the vacation of a portion of the Thornton road, the time for the hearing was set for October 5.
The personal property tax of Mrs. M. C. Moore was ordered cancelled to the amount of $300, on account of exemption which had not been allowed her.
The wood contract was let to P. J. Ford for 30 cords at $3.50 per cord for the court house.
The C. R. & N. Ry. Co. came before the board by its attorney, N. B. Brooks and asked the board to file a charge against the White Salmon wharf. The board ordered the matter continued until the company show title to said wharf.

DUKES VALLEY.

Oscar and Mark Cameron and families and Wm. O. Dodson and family have gone to Lost Lake to camp out a while and rest up. They expect to be gone about a week or ten days.
Ye scribe and better half and W. C. Dodge and wife went out to Sand Canyon last week to gather blackberries. Our time was limited and berries scarce, so we did not get quite all the berries in the country. We would say for the benefit of those who wish to get many they had better go prepared to stay several days, as the berries are scattered over a large territory and are found only in small patches. There are plenty of berries if time enough is taken to find them.
The Whistler brothers have their store building completed, and have gone to The Dalles to be gone about a month, when they will return and put in a stock of dry goods and groceries.
Mr. Whetzel moved his family on his homestead last week. In moving Mr. Whetzel upset his wagon, spilling its contents all over the side hill. There was canned fruit and dishes and household furniture in the mixup and strange to say, not a thing was broken.
Dennis Dodson and wife moved to Belmont last Sunday.
A. T. Dodge is across the river this week digging a well for H. C. Henget.
W. C. Dodge is still unable to find his cow that was reported lost last week.
This seems to be an unusually dry season, as corn and potatoes that were not irrigated are nearly all dried up. Last year we got a pretty fair crop of potatoes and good roasting ears with no irrigation at all. Springs of water around in the hills are running less water than for several years.

UNDERWOOD.

Your little correspondent will scratch you off a few notes from Underwood.
Mrs. Olsen's new hotel is nearing completion.
Will Underwood is over at Hood River working on the dam.
Mr. Cromwell spent a greater part of the week fighting fire at Chenoweth.
Mr. Fuller is the mail carrier between Underwood and Chenoweth.
Mr. Spriggs passed through Underwood Saturday on his way to White Salmon to file on a timber claim up on the mountain which he has been contesting.
Mr. Kelley and family expect to return to Portland after spending two weeks vacation at Acorn Lodge, E. C. Goddard's summer home.
Dr. Brusius of Hood River was called over Monday to attend Mrs. Vetcher who has been quite sick with tonsillitis.
Mr. Luthy and children made a trip to the buckleberry mountain last week.
Robert Cline took a party of Hood River people on the Little White Salmon for a few weeks outing. D. Jenkins and family were among the party.
Mrs. Ed Underwood and children left for the buckleberry mountains, Saturday.
B. F. Beals has a very lame back, caused by some trees falling and striking him while fighting fire at Chenoweth a few weeks or more passed.
H. C. Debs purchased a fine new single wagon in Hood River Saturday.
C. H. Cromwell expects to set some

JULY DRY, BUT NOT MORE THAN USUAL

"The weather for July was very warm and dry, there being but one day when more than .01 of an inch of rain fell, to wit: July 16," reports co-operative observer D. N. Byrden.
"But July 1905, is no exception to the rule in this respect. As to moisture, July in the years 1894, 1896, 1899 and 1901 had no rain except a trace, while the highest in the series being the month of moisture during the entire month. The highest record of moisture during July for the past 22 years was .80 of an inch in 1898, the average for the 22 years is but .49 of an inch.
"Regarding the temperature, it is but little in excess of the mean temperature since 1889. The mean for July in that year was 70 degrees; for last year was 70, and for the 18 years ending with July, 1905, it is 67.6 degrees, while for July this year it is 70. The maximum temperature for July during 17 years last past ranges from 87 degrees to 90 degrees, the highest being 90 degrees, being the latter figure. This year the highest mark made by the mercury was 95 degrees.
"While many think July, 1905, to have been abnormally warm and dry, it is simply because they forget. The records kept daily and placed on permanent records correct our falling memories and refute the lament of the old inhabitant that 'July, 1905, is the
