

WILL HOLD REVIVAL MEETINGS HERE

Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Handaker, whose portraits are shown above, will begin a series of meetings in a large tent near the old armory building on River street the first Sunday in September. Mr. and Mrs. Handaker have been very successful in their work and win the highest regard of the people of all denominations wherever they go, by their upright, generous, genial christian conduct. It will be remembered that they conducted a very successful series of meetings at the Valley Christian church last winter.

The Christian church is growing very rapidly and is becoming a strong organization in Hood River valley. In 1930, this denomination ranked eighth among the churches of the United States. It now ranks sixth. The net gain in membership last year was 26,489 and the members number 1,390,000 in the nation while in this state the membership in round numbers reaches 10,000, with a net gain of 1200, last year.

This body of christians hold and advocate the Divine inspiration of the Holy scriptures—the all sufficient revelation of God to man and the only rule of faith and practice; the incarnation of the lodge—the eternal word of God—in the person of the Lord Jesus Christ; that redemption from sin and the gift of everlasting life can be received only in His name, through faith, repentance, and baptism; the necessity of a righteous, benevolent and holy life as an evidence, and the fruit, of repentance; the desirability and necessity of christian union; of their mission to turn the world from the service of Satan to the service and worship of the Living God; the fullness and freeness of salvation offered in the gospel to all who will accept it on the terms given in the Word, and of the final everlasting separation of the ungodly from God and those who are saved in Christ, and their eternal punishment, by banishment from His presence and glory. All these things and many others will be fully and clearly set before the people by Mr. Handaker, who is a clear, logical, and very pleasant and interesting public speaker.

Glacier readers will enjoy the meetings if they attend, no matter of what faith they may be; because there will not be heard a single word of abuse upon any denominational peculiarity or belief. It is not Mr. Handaker's method of work. All are cordially invited and will be heartily welcomed.

About That Elder Factory.

Hood River, Or., Aug. 14, 1905.—Editor Glacier: I was somewhat amused and considerably disgusted with the elder factory proposition in last week's Glacier. While I readily admit that such an institution is badly needed, the supreme gall displayed by the parties making the proposition is enough to knock a wooden Indian off his pedestal.

Those gentlemen ask the Hood River people to pay them $10,000 with which to build on $8000 plant, leaving them $2000 with which they can buy, at the prices stated about 13,300 bushels of coal apples; then they most magnanimously propose to take charge of this plant and capital, run it to suit themselves and pay the Hood River investors a dividend—when they see fit to declare one—on 15 1/2 per cent of their investment they taking the other 84 1/2 per cent of the profits to reimburse them for possessing the magic name of Jones.

As I stated before I believe that Hood River needs a factory of this kind, but if it must be built by Hood River capital I believe that Hood River capitalists should reap the profits on their investment.

As to the value of the name of Jones as a commercial commodity I will venture the assertion that not one person in one thousand on this coast knows that Jones Bros. of Louisville, Ky., are making cider, but there are few who do not know about Hood River apples, and the name of Hood River would therefore be comparatively more valuable than the ancient and honorable name of Jones.

Now, while the writer does not rejoice in the possession of the name of Jones, he knows how to make cider, and if the people of Hood River wish to put up the money to build and operate a plant, he will, in the kindness of his heart, agree to run the concern and give them 50 per cent of the profits, he taking the balance and a comfortable salary of course—for "knowing how." This is 31 1/2 per cent better than they are offered by the Jones bunch game and yet the writer fully expects to have to remain

State Needs Rain Badly.

The climate and Crop Bulletin for the week ending Tuesday, August 15, reports conditions throughout the state as follows:

Dry weather continues and the need of rain is becoming more urgent. Streams are getting low and pastures are becoming very short, except on the lands and on the mountains ranges. Stock, up to within a few days ago, kept in good condition, but now cattle are losing flesh except where they are helped by the heavy rains. The harvesting and the thrashing of grain are being rapidly pushed and some farmers are through with their work. Fall wheat and barley yields continue good. The straw of spring wheat as heavy and the heads are large, but the berry shriveled during the recent hot weather, with the results that the yields in nearly every section of the state are less than expected. Oats suffered similarly, and while the damage was possibly not so great as in the case of spring wheat, oat yields are also disappointing.

Corn and late potatoes need rain; the hot days curd the corn leaves, but they freshen up again during the coolness of the nights. Hops are uneven, and reports regarding the condition of the crop are conflicting. Sugar beets in the Grand Ronde valley are promising, but the crop is not so good as it was last year this time. Peaches are plentiful in the markets. Apples are smaller in size than usual, but otherwise the yield in the well kept orchards promises to be nearly an average one. Prunes have dropped more than usual at this season of the year.

P. D. Hinriches, reporting for Hood River, says:

"Weather is cooler; ground very dry where not irrigated; second crop of clover partly out and cured, yield good; early potatoes ripe; Bartlett pears and Gravenstein apples will soon be ripe, but the crop will be short; a garden products, where watered, are doing well; water supply for irrigation plentiful."

Cuban Diarrhoea.

F. S. soldiers who served in Cuba during the Spanish war know what this disease is, and that ordinary remedies have little more effect than so much water. Cuban diarrhoea is as mild as severe and dangerous as a mild attack of cholera. There is one remedy, however, that can always be depended upon as will be seen by the following certificate from Mrs. Minnie Jacobs of Houston, Texas: "I hereby certify that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy cured my husband of a severe attack of Cuban diarrhoea, which he brought home from Cuba, of God—in the person of the Lord Jesus Christ; that redemption from sin and the gift of everlasting life can be received only in His name, through faith, repentance, and baptism; the necessity of a righteous, benevolent and holy life as an evidence, and the fruit, of repentance; the desirability and necessity of christian union; of their mission to turn the world from the service of Satan to the service and worship of the Living God; the fullness and freeness of salvation offered in the gospel to all who will accept it on the terms given in the Word, and of the final everlasting separation of the ungodly from God and those who are saved in Christ, and their eternal punishment, by banishment from His presence and glory. All these things and many others will be fully and clearly set before the people by Mr. Handaker, who is a clear, logical, and very pleasant and interesting public speaker.

Atacks of colic, cholera morbus and diarrhoea come on so suddenly that there is no time to hunt a doctor or go to the store for medicine. have had several attacks of colic and it has proved to be the best medicine I ever used." Sold by Williams' Pharmacy.
