Hops are Free from Lice.
The Climate and Crop Bulletin for the week ending Tuesday, September 12, reports conditions throughout the state as follows:
The temperatures during the week were higher than usual and no rain fell, except a small amount near the immediate coast. The warm and dry weather caused late crops to mature rapidly, and hop picking is now general and crumpe picking has begun in many orchards. No lice or mold is reported in the hops and the crop is turning out better than expected a few weeks ago. With another week or ten days of favorable weather the bulk of the hop crop will be safely housed. Prunes indicate yields better than last year but considerably less than a full crop. Threshing is now practically completed and the grain crop it is thought will about equal that of last year. Pastureage is very short and stock is losing flesh, especially in the dairy districts where the supply of milk is even less than usual at this time of the year. Corn is doing well and the crop of matured corn will be larger than usual, if the weather continues good for a week or two longer. Potatoes having good rain and this crop is uneven in its condition being dependent upon the soil and the time of planting. Potatoes planted late on high land are the poorest. Peas are plentiful. Apples are small in size and about half of a full crop of late varieties is indicated.
P. D. Heinrichs, reporting for Hood

Who Wants It?
It is an ill wind that blows no good. The Hood railroad has cut my farm in two tracks, and I am going to sell one of them; good soil, well watered, located in the heart of our best apple district, close to a 4-room grand school house, and rural delivery and telephone service at your door. Terms easy. particulars, inquire of A. I. Mason.

WILL MAKE DAY
A GREAT EVENT
PREPARE TO GO 1000 STRONG
All of Hood River Will Attend Exposition September 28—Business Houses to Close.
Hood River will be in evidence at the Lewis and Clark exposition on Thursday, September 28, 1000 strong. Every man, woman and child in the city and valley is enthusiastic over the idea of making a success of Hood River day, and every one so far spoken to is arranging to go. The business houses of the town will all be closed that day, and the merchants and their families, and their clerks and their families, will take the opportunity of seeing the exposition once more.
At the meeting in the Commercial club rooms Saturday afternoon, very encouraging reports were received from the various committees who had been appointed to see whether the people wanted a Hood River day, and the reports were then named by Chairman Thompson, and the work is now under way to make Thursday, September 28, an occasion to be remembered by the exposition officials and the city at large.
The O. R. & N. has granted a round trip rate of $1.75, and there is some hope that this can be bettered if a large delegation is secured. There will be a special train for the occasion. The public schools will close for Thursday and Friday, and an effort is being made to have the school children taken into the grounds free of charge to participate in the exercises there.
Arrangements are being perfected for securing 50 or 60 boxes of the apples for distribution on the grounds. It is the intention of the committee in charge to distribute cards about the grounds inviting the people to call at the Wasco county booth in the horticultural building and secure an apple there. Unique and original baskets have been secured for the day. The various committees named in the completion of arrangements are as follows:
General Arrangements—C. T. Early, Frank Chandler, A. A. Jayne.
Closing of Business Houses—W. O. Ash, Frank A. Cram, A. J. Graham.
Program and Parade—Rowell Shelby, J. L. Carter, Rev. W. C. Gilmore.
Chairman [Thompson] was later made a member of the committee.
Buttins and Badges—A. I. Mason, A. D. Moe, C. E. Markham.
To Provide Fruit—E. H. Shepard, H. F. Davidson, Joseph A. Wilson.
Reports of all the committees will be heard Saturday afternoon.

MOUNT HOOD WILL SEND DELEGATES
Special Correspondence.
Mount Hood, Or., Sept. 13.—A special meeting of the Mount Hood development league was held in Mount Hood hall Saturday. The following persons were elected as delegates to the dairy convention in Portland on September 25: R. J. Mofsean, W. L. Hucksley, H. A. Gray, R. Spaulding and Henry Reine. They will learn what they can in regard to the best methods of dairying and report to the league upon their return. They will also remain in Portland until September 28, and help swell the crowd on Hood River day.
The annual meeting of the Middle Fork Irrigation Co. was held last Saturday. An adjourned meeting of the same company will be held on Saturday, September 23, at 1 p. m. in Mount Hood hall. All stockholders of this company are urged to be present, as matters of vast importance will be acted upon.
W. S. Griddle and family are in Portland attending the fair. Mrs. Warren Cooper has charge of the postoffice and store during her absence.
George Platt of Black Hawk county, Iowa, who has been here looking after business interests and visiting friends, has returned home. Mr. Platt has made arrangements to have his land cleared and set out to orchard. He is very much impressed with the possibilities of Hood River valley and believes that in time it will even surpass the lower valley.
Tom Larwood is erecting a barn rather novel in its structure. It is 12 x 25 ft. in four posts. The entire barn with the exception of its roof is made of two inch plank. Jesse Davidson is doing the carpenter work. Mr. Larwood will enter quite extensively into dairying as a business.

Will Replace Jerome on Upper River.
A member of the executive committee of the Open River association says another boat will be in commission on the Columbia river above Collins within a week to take the place of the sunken Jerome, and that the Jerome will be raised and put in service very soon.
The accident to the Jerome was a fatal blow to the portage road at a time when difficulty was experienced to get steamers to enter the upper river trade. But the committee is not discouraged and is working with increased zeal to secure boats.
The Jerome was making her first trip when she struck a rock and went to the bottom of the Columbia, at a point near where a similar accident occurred to the steamer Paul Mohr plied on the upper river about ten years ago.
"Puss" Geyer Wants the Home News.
C. D. Geyer, familiarly known here as "Puss," writes from Sartont, Mo., to have the Glacier sent him each week for the coming year. Continuing Mr. Geyer says:
"There is nothing as good as Hood River news. I am working for the St. Louis & San Francisco Railroad company as road agent and telegraph operator. I got 800 a month, but am coming back 'home' in the next summer. Hope this will find all in Hood River as a. Best regards to all Hood Riverites."

Will Ask for Bids on Bonds.
F. C. Sherrick was in The Dalles Monday, where he conferred with Attorney Wilson regarding some legal matters connected with Hood River Irrigation district. Mr. Sherrick says Engineer Kay and party have completed the permanent survey and cross-sectioned the same from Hadley Gap ditch creek. Director Sherrick hopes the district will be able to advertise for bids for the bonds within a few days.

Advertised Letter List.
Alice Conway, Ross Eaton, Jones Lida, Hanna Knutson, Cora McCauley, Kate Shafer, Mrs. I. C. Taylor, Blane Hartran, J. G. Bauman, Owen Cox, Harry Davenport, Dr. T. B. Dickson, E. R. Hazelton, Ed Martin, C. J. Olney, W. L. Philip, B. Z. Smallman, A. W. Selleck, F. S. Stanley, Jos. Wickham.
W. M. YATES, P. M.

Replace Greeks with White Men.
Because the farmers along the route of the Dalles-Dufur road had been robbed right and left by the Greek workmen, the contractors on the Great Southern discharged 127 of the surface men last week and replaced them with white laborers. The difficulty has not delayed the work, and lat laying will be completed this week.

Soothing and Cooling.
The salve that heals without a scar is DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. It draws out inflammation, soothes, cools and heals all cuts, burns and bruises. A sure cure for piles and skin diseases. DeWitt's is the only genuine Witch Hazel Salve. Beware of counterfeits, they are dangerous. Sold by G. E. Williams.

Must Serve Time for Killing Sheep.
A very short term of court which Judge Bradshaw has just held in Wheeler county, resulted most disastrously for an old man 61 years of age and his two sons, who were sentenced to two years in the penitentiary for shooting sheep belonging to Mike Fitzgerald of Mitchell.

ROAD DOWN NORTH BANK
N. P. Begins Active Operations
GRADERS IN FIELD
Start to Work at Carson Landing
SECRET MOVES BECOME KNOWN
Early Predictions of the Glacier are Being Confirmed by Recent Events Along the Columbia River.
With surveying parties and construction gangs in the field and right of way agents closing deals with the land owners, the very air is charged with railroad operations on the north bank of the Columbia. The Glacier was the first paper in the Northwest to give the news of railroad operations down the north bank of the Columbia, and its early predictions that the Northern Pacific is behind the movements have received almost daily confirmations within the past week.
The renewed activity in different quarters now makes very reasonable the supposition that the work is to be commenced at once. Engineering offices have been opened in Vancouver, men and horses and tools have been shipped to the front. Late Saturday night a train of 11 cars loaded with wheel scrapers, teams and equipment for grade work, including a large quantity of giant powder, was hurried to Vancouver. The steamer Dalles City of the Regulator line, now owned by the Northern Pacific, was rushed to that point, and spent all night loading from the cars. Early Sunday morning the steamer, containing four carloads of equipment, left for upper river points. The cargo was distributed along the Northern bank from Washougal to Cascade Locks.
Will Isenberg of this city, who was at Collins last spring Sunday, says the steamer Dalles City stopped at that place in the afternoon and unloaded there a gang of men with steel drills and a camping outfit. Permanent camp was established at Collins, and designated as camp No. 5. The man in charge of the party maintained a strict silence as to whom he was working for, but when Mr. Isenberg conversed with him regarding the general conjecture that the operations were being conducted by the Northern Pacific he had nothing to deny.
Mr. Isenberg says men with tools and camp outfits were also landed at Stevenson, Carson Landing, Cooks Landing and as far up the river as Drano.
Portland papers stated Monday that the Steamer Defender had been chartered for conveying a party of surveyors to White Salmon, but up to Tuesday morning the boat had not reached its destination. However, a gang of railroad men is daily expected to begin grading operations on the Lantenbaugh property just west of the White Salmon landing. Several of the land owners there hold signed agreements with Northern Pacific right of way agents that when they give a quit-claim deed to any property, it shall be used for a right of way for a railroad.
People of White Salmon have every assurance that active operations will begin there within a few weeks. A few of the farmers in the berry belt have not yet granted rights of way. At Underwood, nothing definite has been accomplished, but it is understood that Captain Harry Olsen has granted right of way for $2500.
There is an understanding between the crossing of the mill company's land, as there is also with the government lands where the fish hatchery is situated at the mouth of the White Salmon river.
Efforts have been made all summer to keep secret the activities of the Northern Pacific, and as soon as the O. R. & N. realized that something was going, a force of men was thrown into the field below Cascade Locks with an effort to block the work of their northern competitor. The O. R. & N. owns a short piece of track at the Cascade Locks, which in early days was operated as a portage road. Efforts will be made now to prevent the Northern Pacific from paralleling

People of White Salmon have every assurance that active operations will begin there within a few weeks. A few of the farmers in the berry belt have not yet granted rights of way. At Underwood, nothing definite has been accomplished, but it is understood that Captain Harry Olsen has granted right of way for $2500.
There is an understanding between the crossing of the mill company's land, as there is also with the government lands where the fish hatchery is situated at the mouth of the White Salmon river.
Efforts have been made all summer to keep secret the activities of the Northern Pacific, and as soon as the O. R. & N. realized that something was going, a force of men was thrown into the field below Cascade Locks with an effort to block the work of their northern competitor. The O. R. & N. owns a short piece of track at the Cascade Locks, which in early days was operated as a portage road. Efforts will be made now to prevent the Northern Pacific from paralleling

N. P. Begins Active Operations
GRADERS IN FIELD
Start to Work at Carson Landing
SECRET MOVES BECOME KNOWN
Early Predictions of the Glacier are Being Confirmed by Recent Events Along the Columbia River.
With surveying parties and construction gangs in the field and right of way agents closing deals with the land owners, the very air is charged with railroad operations on the north bank of the Columbia. The Glacier was the first paper in the Northwest to give the news of railroad operations down the north bank of the Columbia, and its early predictions that the Northern Pacific is behind the movements have received almost daily confirmations within the past week.
The renewed activity in different quarters now makes very reasonable the supposition that the work is to be commenced at once. Engineering offices have been opened in Vancouver, men and horses and tools have been shipped to the front. Late Saturday night a train of 11 cars loaded with wheel scrapers, teams and equipment for grade work, including a large quantity of giant powder, was hurried to Vancouver. The steamer Dalles City of the Regulator line, now owned by the Northern Pacific, was rushed to that point, and spent all night loading from the cars. Early Sunday morning the steamer, containing four carloads of equipment, left for upper river points. The cargo was distributed along the Northern bank from Washougal to Cascade Locks.
Will Isenberg of this city, who was at Collins last spring Sunday, says the steamer Dalles City stopped at that place in the afternoon and unloaded there a gang of men with steel drills and a camping outfit. Permanent camp was established at Collins, and designated as camp No. 5. The man in charge of the party maintained a strict silence as to whom he was working for, but when Mr. Isenberg conversed with him regarding the general conjecture that the operations were being conducted by the Northern Pacific he had nothing to deny.
Mr. Isenberg says men with tools and camp outfits were also landed at Stevenson, Carson Landing, Cooks Landing and as far up the river as Drano.
Portland papers stated Monday that the Steamer Defender had been chartered for conveying a party of surveyors to White Salmon, but up to Tuesday morning the boat had not reached its destination. However, a gang of railroad men is daily expected to begin grading operations on the Lantenbaugh property just west of the White Salmon landing. Several of the land owners there hold signed agreements with Northern Pacific right of way agents that when they give a quit-claim deed to any property, it shall be used for a right of way for a railroad.
