

ROAD DOWN NORTH BANK

at this point of the river. C. M. Levey, vice president of the Northern Pacific, is reported to be directing the movement in person. He arrived at Vancouver Saturday, but kept well out of sight. He was accompanied by Constructing Engineer Bethel and A. G. Avery of Tacoma, chief counsel for the Pacific division. The men avoided hotels and their presence was not generally known. Mr. Levey has given the strictest orders to all agents of the Northern Pacific and the Regulator line that nothing shall be given out concerning the movements of the company's men.

Operations Opposite The Dalles.
Saturday night and Sunday construction gangs were landed just across the river, and are pitching camp on the Korick place, ready to begin work at once, reports The Dalles Chronicle.
Other workmen were brought to Leve yesterday and 200 work horses were landed at Cape Horn. The force across the river will be augmented later and naturally the activity so close at hand will affect business at The Dalles, from whence much of the supplies will be purchased. When the C. R. & N. changed hands some months ago it was declared it had passed into the hands of the Northern Pacific, which road would make of it a link in the north bank route. A week ago when N. W. Bethel, who is head engineer for the C. R. & N., and has maintained his office at The Dalles for two years past, moved to Vancouver, it was only another evidence of "doings" on the other side, which are developing rapidly in the past few days.

GIVE LINEN SHOWER TO MISS BAKER

The ladies of the Eastern Star gave Miss Pansy Baker, who is soon to be married to Mr. DeWitt, a pleasant surprise Monday afternoon in the form of a shower party.
The guests assembled at the home of Mrs. Frampton C. Brosius, and Miss Baker was summoned from the telephone office where she was substituting. Fearing some accident had happened at her home she quickly answered the call and entered Mrs. Brosius' parlor to be met with shouts of laughter and a shower of linen. The ladies present then seated her and placed in her lap a handsome set of table linen presented by several members of the Eastern Star, and at her feet a box of canned fruit and several glasses of jelly. In the shower had fallen lunch cloths, center pieces, tray cloths, dollies, towels, pillow cases, a pretty lustrous scarf, handkerchiefs and other dainty pieces of linen.
One friend, thoughtful of the culinary department of the new home presented a Dover egg beater, a cookie cutter, and other articles used in the manufacture of cake. A flowered craze mending bag of a dainty lavender color will remind the young housekeeper of duties beyond the kitchen. A set of silver knives, a silver butter knife and two handsome China plates were also on the list.
A committee of ladies of the Eastern Star served cake and lemon sherbet, and a social hour or two were spent in the offering of good wishes and good advice to the prospective bride.
Members of the Eastern Star present at the shower: Mesdames L. Clark, E. E. Savage, F. C. Brosius, G. E. Williams, A. D. Moe, A. Whitehead, Wm. Chipping, T. J. Kinnaird, A. M. Kelsay, H. L. Dumble, Douglas, L. E. Moore, H. F. Davidson, Wm. Ellis, C. E. Barry, Glen Fabric, Chas. Castner, V. C. Brock, Wm. Yates, Carl Ross, E. H. Shepard, J. L. Hershner, D. E. Rand, C. L. Morse.
Other guests: Miss Hoody, Lota Kelsay, Clara Blythe, Ota Walker, Edith Shea, Dora Dean, Nettie Back, Bertha Long, Gertrude Wallace, Miss Susa, Miss Owens, Miss Olinger, Miss Hubbard, Cora Pugh, Nettie Pugh, Stella Richardson, Olive Storgers, Blanche Blowers, Laura Cramer, Gladys Hartley, Miss Wright, Miss Baker, Majorie Baker, and Miss Goff.

Initial Party of the Season.
The initial party of the social season was given by the Misses Olive Sturgis and Blanche Blowers, Wednesday evening of last week at the beautiful home of Mayor Blowers on St. Clair avenue. The evening was spent in playing the interesting game of progressive whist. Prizes were awarded, Mr. Collartson winning first and Miss Mellie Olinger second.
At a late hour a very dainty lunch was served, consisting of fruit, salad, cake and coffee. The house was tastefully decorated in China astors and Oregon grape.
Among those invited were: Misses Majorie Baker, Pansy Baker, Mellie Olinger, Lota Kelsay, Laura Cramer, May Davidson, Ethel Edrican, Alice Yates, Pearl Eccles, Gladys Hartley, Clara Blythe, Stella Richardson and Miss Susa. Messrs. Ole Johnson, William Sheets, Percy Cross, Clayton Brock, Thomas Cole, Truman Decker, Monte Dukes, Bert Edrican, William Kier, Tom Laraway, Pete Culbertson and George Slocum.

Dunbar-Orr Wedding.
The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Orr, on Sherman avenue, was the scene of a very pretty wedding at high noon Thursday, September 7, when Miss Sadie Orr was married to J. A. Dunbar of Portland. After the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Dunbar left for Portland, where Mr. Dunbar has provided a neat little home at Mount Scott.
Rev. Mr. Hardingham of Gresham was the officiating clergyman. Robert Orr, brother of the bride, acted as ring bearer. The bride was beautifully attired in white organdie with a white veil, and she carried a large cluster of handsome white roses.
Mr. and Mrs. Dunbar were the recipients of many beautiful presents, presented with showers of good wishes. Both are well and favorably known in this city. Mr. Dunbar is a pharmacist of Portland.

Notice.
Having disposed of my stock of goods and rented my store, I have an office in the old post office building, where I wish to collect all accounts due me, so I can pay what I owe. Then all of us will feel better to be out of debt.
GEO. P. CROWELL.

WILL ADMIT PUPILS FREE

All Hood River school children will be admitted free to the exposition grounds on Hood River day, reports Frank Chandler, who returned Tuesday from Portland, where he conferred with the exposition officials. This will include the school children of the valley as well as those of the city schools.
The special rate of $1.75 for round trip fare on the railroad is good for seven days, which should insure a larger crowd than was at first expected. A special train will be provided for the occasion, and will leave here at whatever hour is considered the most convenient. Street cars will be at the depot to meet the train and carry the crowds to the exposition grounds.
The following letter from Theodore Harlow, assistant to President Goode, explains matters in detail:
"The president has authorized the admission of all school children from Hood River free on that date; providing they wear badges of uniform character, showing that they are pupils of the Hood River schools. We will have a special gate established for their admission, but their teachers must be on hand to identify them in addition to the use of the badges. The teachers and other adults accompanying the children will, of course, be required to pay the full admission of fifty cents each. In this connection, permit me to suggest that you urge upon all parents or relatives the necessity of accompanying the children as far as practicable, in order that their safety may be assured. The exposition of course cannot be responsible for the children, and the presence of the parents would therefore be a great safeguard in protecting them.
"If you will notify me (telephone Exchange 42) just at what hour your party will arrive at the main entrance of the exposition, corner 29th and 30th streets, I will arrange to meet them there with a band.
"We shall also be glad to provide our Auditorium for any exercises that you may desire to hold. If desired, we can also have an exposition official make you an address of welcome, and the band will likewise be at your service.
"If you have any data that you wish to publish in connection with this special 'Hood River Day,' we shall be glad to utilize it to the best possible advantage, inasmuch as no other publication than the Daily Official Program is allowed to circulate on the exposition grounds. I would request that you furnish me with the details of your program or itinerary for the day and we will have it inserted in that program."

CHILDREN SHOULD ATTEND REGULARLY
W. A. Wiley, city superintendent of schools, says that owing to the difficult and unsatisfactory work of uniting classes starting one half year apart, there will be no beginner's class formed after the Christmas holidays this year.
"This announcement is made," says Superintendent Wiley, "because our primary grades are not overworked and we will take all pupils who will be six years of age before March 1, if they come not later than the third week of school. After that time the classes will be too far advanced for beginners to make up the work. It is also very important that the little folks attend regularly. Our schools must follow the state course of study which provides for but one class in each grade and the beginning class to be started at the beginning of the school year.
"Our schools are beginning the year's work with bright prospects. The present enrollment is about 430, and the teachers are glad to see the interest of the patrons manifested by the unusually large number of visitors. If you haven't visited our schools, do so and see for yourself what our schools are doing."
The Latin class began work under the direction of Professor Crouse on last Monday with membership of 12.

Want Wasco Butter at the Fair.
John Koberg is in receipt of a letter from C. L. Schmidt, superintendent of the Wasco county exhibit at the exposition, asking for samples of Hood River butter for the Wasco county display at the fair. Mr. Schmidt would like about eight or ten rolls, and says in his letter:
"The Board of Judges on Exhibit will get in to judge, commencing about the 15th of this month, and we should like to have the butter on or before that time. Wasco county is not represented at all with its dairy products, and if we do not fill this gap in our county exhibit we will not get the number of points necessary to get the premiums.
"Send butter by express at my expense, also endorse bill for butter and I will remit at once."
As Mr. Koberg sells his milk, and his dairy herd being dry right now, he is not in position to supply the butter. Mr. Schmidt will be pleased to receive butter from any other Wasco county dairyman.

Will Contest the Divers' Will.
Heirs of Davey Divers, the Hood River pioneer, who died last summer, have filed a contest against the will, the Neff Bros. being the defendants in the case. Joe Divers of Golden Dale, Mrs. James English and Mrs. M. H. Nickelsen of Hood River have filed the complaint, and the case came up for first hearing before Judge Lake at The Dalles, yesterday afternoon.
Deputy Sheriff Olinger served subpoenas today on the following witnesses: John Heinrichs, Dr. F. C. Brosius, D. A. Turner and Chris Dethman.

Will Complete Grading This Month.
Charles T. Early reports that the Mount Hood Railway Co. expects to have all grading completed by the end of this month, except that on the few pieces of land where rights of way have not been obtained. Condensation proceedings have been instituted, and the cases will be taken before Judge Bradshaw, the 24th of October, the judge not desiring to call an extra session of the jury before that date, the regular session of court opening shortly after.

Filters in the Reservoir.
The water coming into the mains from the reservoir now flows through a filter which prevents sediment or any small particles from floating into the mains. The flow of water is sufficient to fill the reservoir every two hours in the day, consequently the water would be both fresh and clear.
The water company has executed a contract to furnish water free for flushing the sewer systems to be put in by the city in the near future.

WILL SHIP CREAM BY THE HALF TON

Special Correspondence.
Mount Hood, Or., Sept. 13.—Talk about cream," enthusiastically remarked Robert Leasure the other day, "Why the people here have struck their pace all right. All are getting interested in the business, and by another year there will be at least 1000 pounds of cream going out of here at a shipment. All will then have a good job at home instead of going away to work. It will also make a good market for our hay, which we have not had for the last year or two."

Charles Hellmer had a rather expensive runaway last Friday, but the horses were not hurt. His wagon was a total wreck, having hitched onto two or three stumps.

All are busy with their second crop of clover, hay which is a good crop.
What was the matter with Mount Hood last week? We want the patrons of the Glacier to know all about this place every week.
Only the primary department of the school has opened here. The other department will begin about the first of the month. The Board finds teachers are a scarce article.
There will be an auction sale on the M. Dumas ranch this week, the first of the kind in the valley. V. V. Willis is going away, but we look for him back before long.
First-class Surveying Outfit.
At the Emporium are kept 2 first-class transit and solar attachments, and the proprietor, a practical surveyor, is prepared to do the work of laying out acreage property in lots and blocks, and doing all kinds of surveying and plating.
