Monday, October 3, has been set apart as Music Day at the Lewis and Clark fair.

walks, store doors and upper-story windows. "Hood River," "The Real Thing" and other slogans advertised well the town and valley.

The other banners were gratuitous contributions. Three merchants—Frank A. Cram, R. B. Bragg and the Paris Fair, furnished the material.

There were no special exercises during the day, but at the Wascow county booth in the Horticultural building,

The exposition officials were surprised at the tremendous excursion from this city, and the extraordinary turnout from valley and town was a source of pride and gratification for every loyal and patriotic Hood Riverite.

Enthusiastic predictions three weeks ago stated that 1000 people would go from here on Hood River day.

The special train of twelve coaches which left here at 7 o'clock Thursday morning carried 1015 passengers, and it is estimated that at least 150 or 200 people had gone down the day before on the boats and trains.

Hood River people were conspicuous on the trail, about the exposition and in all parts of the city.

These lithographs were supplied by Mr. Davidson of the Davidson Fruit Co. Above and below the picture of the big red apple were the words: "Hood River Apples; Best in the World."

While the parade up town from the union depot was not the success in every way that had been hoped for,

SET 20 ACRES WALNUT TREES

FINDS PROFIT IN NUT CULTURE

Woodworth Will Follow Up Experiment Made by Mr. Isenberg—Sees Money in It

As his neighbor, M. P. Isenberg, has found that English walnuts do well in this soil and climate,

The tree has set thick with fruit buds, and gives promise of bearing several pounds of nuts next season.

C. A. JOHNS COMES OUT FOR GOVERNOR

C. A. Johns of Baker City is sending out the following letters to the people of Oregon:

"Baker City, Oregon, Sept. 28, 1905.—Subject to the terms and conditions of the primary law I am and will be a candidate for governor on the republican ticket.

"It is not a question of salary. There are many things far more valuable than gold, and to my mind the office of governor of the state of Oregon is one of them.

"No matter what may be the result, I pledge my hearty support to the ticket. Yours truly," C. A. JOHNS.

Chamberlain Will Run Again.

An interview from Governor Chamberlain, published in the Evening Telegram says that while the democratic will not seek a renomination, yet if he is the choice of his party he will be a candidate for re-election next spring.

Political Side Lights From Pendleton.

It is reported that C. A. Johns and Malcolm A. Moody will work for each other's interests in the next campaign.
