GLACIER BRINGS MAN FROM EAST

HE READ PAPER 16 MONTHS

Then Concluded Hood River Was Best Part of Pacific Coast—Others Will Follow.

After reading the Glacier for the last 16 months, William B. Quartz of Crafton, Pa., arrived this week. He had visited the Hood River section of the Pacific coast, and with his wife and family descended here Thursday morning. He expects to spend the winter here, and will be remarked that the country was better than he had expected.

As soon as he is established in comfortable quarters he will send for his household goods, which are now in storage in Pittsburg. He is a retired manufacturer, and has a handsome income from investments. He is pleased with all he has seen of the country, and will be a valuable acquisition to the community.

"I have been reading the Glacier for the last 16 months," he remarked, "and I knew from its columns that I must see this country. I am greatly pleased with the appearance of the town and the number of fine orchards in the vicinity. I have a few acres of land here, and will be ready to begin operations as soon as my household goods arrive. I expect to spend the winter
