

THE COLD WEATHER IS HERE * PREPARE FOR WINTER

Our Great Incorporation Sale makes it easy as well as comfortable. Your Winter outfit is here, ready for wear, just as reliable as ever, only much less expensive. FRANK A. CRAM is surely Cutting the prices.

Ladies' Empire Coats

and Rain Coats. A large assortment again arrived. Newest things. Prices fully 25% lower than Portland.

Ladies' and Children's

Outing Flannel Night Gowns, Skirts,

Kimono, at less than goods are sold from piece. Acorn Brand. Garments full width.

Ladies' and Children's

Wool and Fleeced Underwear

Union Suits and two-piece garment. Every item necessary to ward off the cold. Don't pay doctors' bills when a warm garment will ward off the sick spell.

The Up-to-date Store

Men's Cravenette Raincoats

Are the accepted items for Fall and Winter wear. Cram has them in a vast assortment. Prices range from

$7.88 to $20.00

See them before spending more money elsewhere for inferior goods.

Wool Underwear

Union Suits and regular garments. An immense stock. At prices less than raw wool costs.

Men's Outing Flannel

Night Shirts and Pajamas

We offer for less than the material costs by the yard.

Just Watch Our Business Grow

Famous Ostrich Plumes

The genuine Fatton line. Nothing better can be bought.

We will sell them to you at manufacturers' cost until November 1st, providing we furnish the hat.

We show the same styles found in Portland's most exclusive shops at much lower prices.

Entire Shoe Stock on Sale at Cost

KNAPP'S

vegetables, but it will be a great help in coloring up the apples.

Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Lamar were visitors in the Dalles last Thursday.

Miss Mabel Carter is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. H. Tracy, at Canyon City, Oregon.

Alex Stewart and Frank Gieger came down from Mosier to attend the Masonic lodge meeting Saturday evening.

Miss May Hendricks of Stockton, Mo., is visiting Mrs. J. K. Carson. Miss Hendricks expects to make her home in Hood River.

A large O. R. & N. engine, weighing 15,000 pounds, and drawing a long freight train, sidetracked at the passenger depot, Friday morning, where it attracted considerable interest.

Hood River Lodge No. 105, A. F. and A. M., commenced their winter work Saturday evening with a full attendance. A banquet at the close of the meeting was an enjoyable occasion.

Dr. P. Cooper, accompanied by Miss A. Zajicek, left last Thursday for Villisca, Iowa, where Miss Zajicek will spend the winter. Dr. Cooper will return sometime next month.

O. C. Dean, the White Salmon ferryman, who was in the city Friday, says he is taking lots of new comers into the White Salmon country these days. There are many others there inquiring after land.

The annual meeting of the Farmers' Irrigation Company, advertised to be held last Saturday, was postponed for one week on account of small attendance. It is desired that there be a full attendance next Saturday.

W. B. Strohbridge is building a new house on his property on the East side of the city, and intends to move into the place as soon as the house is completed. He will close out his paint and wall paper store in town.

Harry Bailey left Friday morning for Cascade Locks to do repair work on the telephone lines. The high wind of the night before had played havoc with the wires and only one of the long-distance strings were conveying messages that morning.

Mrs. E. Leopold and daughter Miss Mabelle have been up at Hood River the past month spent last week at home, near Thatcher. They started for Hood River yesterday where they will spend the winter.—Forest Grove Times.

A team belonging to John Vanthier of Mount Hood, became frightened at the cars Saturday and made a spirited run towards home. There was no one in the wagon at the time. The team soon overturned the wagon and broke loose but were caught before running a great distance. The wagon was damaged some, but otherwise no serious damage resulted.

Cliff and Frank Jackson of Corvallis, N. D., visited with A. D. Moe and family Friday, taking the boat for Portland Saturday morning. They have disposed of their North Dakota property and are looking for a location in the west, having visited several sections of Washington and Oregon before coming to Hood River. They were very favorably impressed with the valley and may conclude to locate here.

Remember October 18, when the Portland Newhall company will appear.

E. R. Bradley's paper, The News-Letter made its first appearance last Saturday.

Arthur Canning and his mother, Mrs. T. J. Canning, left yesterday for Portland.

Representative A. A. Jayne is in Portland, attending the harmony meeting of Oregon Republicans.

Among those who left Wednesday evening for Portland were Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Rand, Mrs. E. L. Smith, Mrs. O. J. Nelson and Mrs. Watt.

Roswell Shelley left yesterday afternoon for Portland, where he will attend the peace conference of the public school leaders.

M. J. Emery has installed a hydraulic cider press at his factory recently erected alongside the industrial track of the O. R. & N., in the west end of the city.

The Apples Growers' union sent a car of Northern Spy and Baldwin apples to New York the first of the week. The Davidson Fruit Co. is preparing to ship a car of Spitzbergen in a few days.

Hon. and Mrs. D. F. Percival of Cheney, Wash., were guests last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Blythe. Mr. Percival is a pioneer of Eastern Washington and president of the bank of Cheney.

J. E. Rand left Wednesday afternoon for Portland, where he will represent the sewer committee of the city council at a meeting of Attorney Wilson and Engineer Paget, to prepare a final report for submission to the council Monday evening.

Bishop O'Reilly, who is ill at St. Vincent's Hospital, Portland, is suffering with a well defined case of typhoid fever. The distinguished patient is considered to be in a dangerous condition and it will be some time before the convalescent stage is reached. Father Roseant is another member of the Catholic clergy who is ill at St. Vincent's.

In the contest conducted by the Portland Journal to determine who of the young ladies of the state shall enjoy a free trip to Hawaii, Miss Emilie Croson of The Dalles leads the third district with 19,491 votes, and Miss Lucille Crute of the same city is a close second with 18,379 votes. Miss Stella Richardson of Hood River follows closely with 17,055 votes. Miss Gertrude Sharp of Prineville is a new candidate in this district and starts with 20 votes to her credit.

DITCH MEETING THIS SATURDAY

When President Bowers of the Farmer's Irrigation Co. sought to call to order the annual meeting of the Ditch Co. last Saturday, it was discovered that a quorum was sadly lacking. Adjournment was then taken until one o'clock, Saturday afternoon of this week. The farmers are requested to bear this in mind, and to attend the meeting, when some important matters will come up for discussion.

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

Rubber heels at Donovan's. Shingles. See us for best prices. Oregon Lumber Co.

Mantle, wall and cuckoo clocks on easy terms at Clark's.

Use Williams' anti-septic hair tonic and keep off gray hairs.

Sidewalk lumber. Delivery same day order is received. Oregon Lumber Co.

I guarantee a fit in glasses. Clarke, the optician and jeweler.

The Troy laundry does good work; you know that.

To make room for new stock all cut glass will be closed out at cost. Clarke the jeweler.

Do you use Lath? Get our price and compare it with that of competitors. You will make money this way. Oregon Lumber Co.

Well, don't you see that if you wish to see well, you should see Clarke the optician. Guaranteed work in glass fitting.

Closing out all but millinery. Knapp.

Now that all important question is settled the next thing is the ring—a fine new line of engagement and wedding rings. Prices right. Clarke the jeweler.

For surveying, see John Leland Henderson & Son.

All watch, clock and jewelry repair work guaranteed by Clarke the jeweler.

Every man owes it to himself and his family to master a trade or profession. Read the display advertisement of the six Morse Schools of Telegraphy, in this issue and learn how easily a young man or lady may learn telegraphy and be assured a position.

Hard wood baskets for picking apples, only 5c at McDonald's.

Go to Mr. Outback for abstracts and notarial work, renting and collecting. Legal papers carefully drawn.

Do you use Naphtha soap? 5c per bar at McDonald's.

Mr. Bartness is on a cash basis.

For work where satisfaction is guaranteed, patronize the Troy laundry. Agency at O. K. barber shop.

Ladies' hand turned and sewed shoe work a specialty at T. H. Donovan's, across from William's Pharmacy. All work strictly first-class.

Those contemplating putting in wheat this fall should see the Hood River Milling Co. first.

In order that their patrons may take advantage of the discount allowed on bills paid before the tenth of the month, the Water and Light Co. has arranged to keep their office in the Davidson building open till 8:30 p. m. the first, ninth, tenth and every Saturday evening of each month.

Greens, flour and feed at Lamar & Dunn's.

Men's hats and shirts at wholesale price at Knapp's.

Mayes Bros. get a fresh supply of meat every morning.

Mayes Bros' meat market has been supplied with a cooling fountain for keeping vegetables fresh and clean. Buy your vegetables where they come fresh as from the garden.

John Leland Henderson and son are equipped with two Gurley transits and will be ready to do surveying for the next two months. Rates per day are $5 and $10.

It is to your interest to refer to Mr. Bartness' ad under the new system.

Watch our windows for Fall Styles. Mrs. Amory.

All persons knowing themselves indebted to Frohn & Heaton are requested to pay same at my office within 10 days from this notice. E. H. Hartwig.

Remember Riggs' shoe shop, next door to McGuire's meat market. All work strictly first-class. Also boots and shoes made to order.

Don't forget the new shoe shop across from William's Pharmacy. All work strictly first-class.

Call and examine my new line of watches. I can save you money, Clarke the jeweler.

Watch the Troy grow.

Patronize home industry by buying ranch butter at McDonald's.

Shoes half sold while you wait—in 20 minutes. All work first-class and guaranteed. Ladies' sewed soles and O. Sullivan's rubber heels a specialty. Donovan's Shoe Shop, opposite William's pharmacy.

Chicken dinner at Emstrom's every Sunday.

Do not waste money buying a poorly finished fruit jar, but get the genuine Mason jar at McDonald's.

For Sale.

One safe, cost $200; will sell for $175. One oil tank, cost $45; will sell for $25. Large counter, scale, cost $23; sell $15. Geo. P. Crowell.

New Today.

Benefit dance at the Opera House Friday evening.

Fresh Olympia and Eastern oysters at the Gem Candy Kitchen.

See that dandy line of Folders at the Deitz Studio.

Fresh vegetables, butter and eggs at McGuire Bros.

For rent—Two or three good houses, furnished rooms for light housekeeping, or nicely furnished house for a short time. See W. J. Baker.

The first entertainment of the series of high class entertainments to be given will be October 18.

The Great Western Lyceum Bureau plan to bring only such talent as will give entire satisfaction. Get your tickets and seats reserved for the coming concert.

The quarterly business meeting will be held Wednesday evening, Oct. 18, at the Valley Christian church.

The Gem Candy Kitchen makes fresh candy every day.

All the latest styles Photos at the Deitz Studio.

McGuire Bros. have an up-to-date meat market, clean and neat, and solicit your patronage. Their meats are the best, and orders filled promptly. Phone Main 721.

Some men spend their money and time for things; others invest time and money. Invest in a season ticket to the lecture course and you will make an investment in yourself.

Tickets for the entertainment course on sale at Clarke's drug store, Monday, October 9. Season ticket $1.50; single admission 50c; children 15c. No charge for reserve seats.

Two-part combination hot water bottle and mountain syringe—guaranteed for one year. Only $1.50 at Clarke's.

A. W. Outback invites his friends to call on him at his new office on Third street. He would like to include all among his friends.

Reserve your date for the dance Friday evening, October 12.

At the Churches.

River Side Congregational—W. C. Gilmore, Pastor. Sabbath school at 10 a. m. A special service for the Sabbath school, church and home will be conducted at 11. Christian Endeavor at 7:15 p. m. Short address and music at 7:30.

Reptile services are now held in the Hood building on the heights, instead of Carmichael hall.

Methodist—Subject of sermon at 11 a. m.: "The Day of Prosperity." 7:30: "Paul Obtaining Mercy." All cordially invited. Rev. W. C. Evans, pastor.

Unitarian—Sunday School at 10 o'clock. Rev. W. G. Elliot Jr. will preach the morning sermon at 11. The discourse on "The Public Schools" announced for next Sunday will be postponed to a later date. O. J. Nelson, minister.

Belmont M. E. Church.—H. C. Clark, pastor. Services, Belmont: Sunday school at 10 a. m.; Class meeting at 11 a. m.; Epworth League 7 p. m.; preaching every Sunday evening and 24 Sunday in month at 11 a. m.; Prayer meeting Thursday 7:30 p. m. Services at Pine Grove same as above except preaching, which is on 1st and 3d Sundays at 11 a. m. Crapper—1st and 3d Sundays at 3:30; Sunday school at 2:30. Mount Hood.—The 4th Sunday at 11 a. m.; Sunday school at 10 a. m.

For Sale at a Sacrifice.

Fifteen acres close on the East side. Good apple land; must sell. What will you give for it? For particulars see H. M. Amory.

Dance at the Opera House Friday evening.

W. H. Pennington went to Condon Tuesday to visit his son, C. R. Pennington.

The Male Quartette and bell rings will be here October 18. Be sure to hear them.

S. M. Keir and Mrs. Cass and son, of Viroqua, Wis., are visiting A. S. Keir at Hood River.

Marriage license has been granted at Goldendale to Stephen L. Billings and Amelia Stadelman of Trout Lake.

H. C. Kane, salesman for the Remington Typewriter Co., Portland, spent several days in Hood River this week.

Mr. Davenport, member of the commission firm of Davenport Bros., Portland was in Hood River during the week.

Mrs. W. L. Carns, of Odell, returned Monday from The Dalles, where she has been undergoing treatment for several weeks.

You will enjoy Mr. Maupin, October 18. He is a splendid cornet soloist, having been conductor of the Fourth Regiment Band Missouri National Guard.

E. J. Chilcote, formerly of Missouri, but recently a resident of Portland, is looking for a farm to rent, or employment. His family are at present at St. Martins Springs, but will visit Mr. Chilcote as soon as he finds a location.

J. E. Hellenious, editor and publisher of the Watchman at Seattle, spent yesterday in Hood River.

He had been seeing the sights at the exposition for several days, and was told there to make a trip to Hood River as a location.

S. N. Riade, formerly of Grafton, N. D., now in the hospital department of the U. S. S. Paul Jones, which is quartered at Portland, took a run to see his old school mate, S. Keir, of Keir & Cass, the first of the week.

D. L. Davidson of Willow Flat was in the city yesterday afternoon, and says the fit at meeting of the Duke's Valley literary society will be held at the school house Saturday evening, beginning at 7:30 sharp.

It is about this year at Salem and it will be necessary to elect a new one. President Davidson is anxious that there be a large attendance at this initial session.

The city council failed to have a meeting Monday evening for lack of a quorum, and principally because the engineers who have charge of the sewer contract failed to get data into the hands of the sewer committee in time for them to make a report. It is fully expected that all details will be fixed up in time for them to make a report at the next meeting Monday evening and that there will be no more delay in getting the sewer started.

Saturday morning Attorneys Bennett and Wilson filed with the clerk of the United States circuit court motions for a new trial and arrest of judgment in behalf of their clients, Congressman Williamson, Dr. Van Geener and Marion K. Biggs. The motions are made for each defendant separately. They are very brief and formal. District Attorney Heney yesterday said that he did not believe the motions would be heard until after the Jones-Potter case was concluded.

Government dipper dredge No. 2, recently brought from the Upper Willamette river is at Cascade Locks where she will be employed in dredging the upper and lower entrances to the locks, which have been shoaling considerably. A depth of eight feet on the lock floors at low water is required. While the shoaling at the canal is not of a serious nature, the United States engineer's office has deemed it advisable, in view of the coming heavy grain shipments, to clear out the locks and approaches.

Mrs. W. C. Evans left Tuesday for Midland, Ark., where she will visit her daughter, Mrs. L. C. Puckard, and also her first grand child. She was accompanied by her son, George Evans, who is a student at the University of Arkansas, and her daughter, Alice, and Mrs. O. D. Bea and daughter, who were bound for Edmond, Kansas. They expect to meet Mr. Bea in Kansas City, who is at present at the Arkansas Hot Springs being treated for cancer. Mr. Bea is reported to be quite poorly, and if he is unable to meet them at Kansas City, Mrs. Bea will go to him at the hot springs.

Mrs. Gilson of Ellensburg, Ind., is visiting her sister, Mrs. D. J. Traylor.

The railroad water tank near the depot is now being completed, the iron work being erected this week.

Mr. Hughes, of the firm of Perkins and Hughes, The Dalles-mine house, visited Hood River the first of the week.

H. P. Orr returned to Condon, Ore., Tuesday, where he will soon finish the building he is erecting at that place.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Franz and Mr. and Mrs. D. Jackson left on the early train Wednesday morning for Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gray of Winlock, Wash., have been the guests during the week at the home of their son, O. H. Gray.

Hood River Chapter No. 25, O. E. S., held a regular meeting Tuesday evening with a good attendance, followed by a banquet.

Suoc & Upson, the enterprising blacksmiths and wagon makers, report a very heavy run of work and are keeping a good force busy in both departments.

O. O. Frobenburg, the Mount Hood mail carrier says the road at the railroad crossing at Odell is becoming impassable the new fill being soaked with the rains and the ground has become very soft.

St. Mark's church met with Miss Bradley Monday evening, and worked on music for the choir and also made plans for the service, which will be held some time in December.

Mr. Broadhead of Kansas City has accepted a position in the bishopric of Delaware & Gray, on Oak street. Mr. Broadhead is a nephew of J. L. Broadhead of the church district.

The Hood River-East Hall team will give a benefit dance at the Opera House Friday evening. Dancing will be continued as long as any one wishes to dance. Tickets, 50 cents per couple.

M. E. McCarty was a passenger for Portland Monday morning. The Parks Fair had some goods in the crowd down the line the first of the week and Mr. McCarty went down to adjust the damages.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Hollowell of Falls City, Polk county, left Wednesday morning for Portland accompanied by Mrs. Hollowell of this city. Mr. T. B. Hollowell of Falls City is a brother of J. M. Hollowell.

Francis Handaker will preach at the tent Sunday morning and evening. Subject of morning discourse, "Christian Grace." Evening, "The Unpardonable sin was sin against the Holy Ghost."

A. Kuller, who recently purchased the Glass, Ore. branch of the East Side wires, A. D. Dunn from Summer Wash, that he would not be found dead in that place, and is anxious to get back to Hood River.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Stanley, of Baraboo, Wis., visited Mrs. D. B. Blumher and wife Sunday morning, leaving for home Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Stanley have been visiting the Portland fair and making a tour of the coast cities.

T. J. Kinn, who recently resigned his position as station agent for the O. R. & N. at Hood River, has purchased a motor car and will devote all his time to that business hereafter.

O. Olson of Duluth, Minn., came in today from Portland, and will at once erect a house and barn on the twenty acres he purchased of Alfred Wood, at Odell, last spring. Mr. Olson's family are now in Portland, and will become residents of the valley as soon as a building can be put on the ranch.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Congregational church will give an afternoon tea at the residence of Mrs. Geo. Crowell on Friday afternoon, October 13. An interesting program has been prepared and an enjoyable time is anticipated. A cordial invitation is extended to every one to be present.

The first snow of the season covered the tops of the mountains of Bald Butte and the range extending to Mount Hood, Saturday morning. It has been snowing constantly on Mount Hood since the recent rains, and the being treated for cancer. Mr. Bea is reported to be quite poorly, and if he is unable to meet them at Kansas City, Mrs. Bea will go to him at the hot springs.

The first snow of the season covered the tops of the mountains of Bald Butte and the range extending to Mount Hood, Saturday morning. It has been snowing constantly on Mount Hood since the recent rains, and the being treated for cancer. Mr. Bea is reported to be quite poorly, and if he is unable to meet them at Kansas City, Mrs. Bea will go to him at the hot springs.

The first snow of the season covered the tops of the mountains of Bald Butte and the range extending to Mount Hood, Saturday morning. It has been snowing constantly on Mount Hood since the recent rains, and the being treated for cancer. Mr. Bea is reported to be quite poorly, and if he is unable to meet them at Kansas City, Mrs. Bea will go to him at the hot springs.

The first snow of the season covered the tops of the mountains of Bald Butte and the range extending to Mount Hood, Saturday morning. It has been snowing constantly on Mount Hood since the recent rains, and the being treated for cancer. Mr. Bea is reported to be quite poorly, and if he is unable to meet them at Kansas City, Mrs. Bea will go to him at the hot springs.

The first snow of the season covered the tops of the mountains of Bald Butte and the range extending to Mount Hood, Saturday morning. It has been snowing constantly on Mount Hood since the recent rains, and the being treated for cancer. Mr. Bea is reported to be quite poorly, and if he is unable to meet them at Kansas City, Mrs. Bea will go to him at the hot springs.

The first snow of the season covered the tops of the mountains of Bald Butte and the range extending to Mount Hood, Saturday morning. It has been snowing constantly on Mount Hood since the recent rains, and the being treated for cancer. Mr. Bea is reported to be quite poorly, and if he is unable to meet them at Kansas City, Mrs. Bea will go to him at the hot springs.

The first snow of the season covered the tops of the mountains of Bald Butte and the range extending to Mount Hood, Saturday morning. It has been snowing constantly on Mount Hood since the recent rains, and the being treated for cancer. Mr. Bea is reported to be quite poorly, and if he is unable to meet them at Kansas City, Mrs. Bea will go to him at the hot springs.