

The Up-to-Date Store FRANK A. CRAW The Leading CLOTHIER

Headquarters for Reliable New Goods

The Store of Quality, Enterprise, Square Dealing and Modest Prices

New This Week

A large shipment of beautiful New Rain Coats & Empire Coats in the latest three-quarter and seven-eighths lengths.

Don't fail to see them.

Men's Clothing, Overcoats and Cravenette Rain Coats AT COST

The grandest opportunity ever presented to the people of Hood River and vicinity. Hundreds of fine Suits and Overcoats offered at manufacturers' cost. See us before buying. There's money in it. No trouble to show goods. Much can be saved here.

Special Saturday Sale

18 doz. stiff Brown Shirts, worth $1.00, $1.25 and $1.50. This entire lot will be on sale Saturday at 8 a. m. for 50c each. None sold before Saturday, 21st. See window, Dry Goods Dept.

Winter Underwear

Special lots on our counters.

Ladies' Natural Ribbed Underwear 50c values for 25c.

Heavy Fleece Misses' and Boys' Underwear, 40c to 50c values, on special sale, 25c.

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

Rubber heels at Donovan's. Shingles. See us for best prices. Oregon Lumber Co.
Mantle, wall and cuckoo clocks on easy terms at Clark's.
Use Williams' anti-septic hair tonic and keep off gray hairs.
Sidewalk lumber. Delivery same day order is received. Oregon Lumber Co.
I guarantee a fit in glasses. Clarke, the optician and jeweler.
The Troy laundry does good work; you know that.
To make room for new stock all cut glass will be closed out at cost. Clarke the jeweler.
Do you use Lath? Get our price and compare it with that of competitors. You will make money this way. Oregon Lumber Co.
Well, don't you see that if you wish to see well, you should see Clarke the optician. Guaranteed work in glass fitting.
Closing out all but millinery. Knapp.
Now that all important question is settled the next thing is the ring—a fine new line of engagement and wedding rings. Prices right. Clarke the jeweler.
For surveying, see John Leland Henderson & Son.
All watch, clock and jewelry repair work guaranteed by Clarke, the jeweler.
Every man owes it to himself and his family to master a trade or profession. Read the display advertisement of the six Morse Schools of Telegraphy, in this issue and learn how easily a young man or lady may learn telegraphy and be assured a position.
Hard wood baskets for picking apples, only 50c at McDonald's.
Go to Mr. McDonald for abstracts and notarial work, renting and collecting. Legal papers carefully drawn.
Do you use Naphtha soap? 5c per bar at McDonald's.
Shoes at manufacturer's cost. Knapp.
Mr. Hartness is on a cash basis.
For work where satisfaction is guaranteed, patronize the Troy laundry. Agency at O. K. barber shop.
Ladies' hand turned and sewed shoe work a specialty at T. H. Donovan's, across from Williams' Pharmacy. All work strictly first-class.
Those contemplating putting in wheat this fall should see the Hood River Milling Co. first.
In order that their patrons may take advantage of the discount allowed on bills paid before the tenth of the month, the Water and Light Co. has arranged to keep their office in the Davidson building open till 8:30 p. m. in the first, ninth, tenth and every Saturday evening of each month.
Groceries, flour and feed at Lamar & Dunn's.
Men's hats and shirts at wholesale price at Knapp's.

Mayes Bros. get a fresh supply of meat every morning.
Mayes Bros' meat market has been supplied with a cooling fountain for keeping vegetables fresh and clean. Buy your vegetables where they come fresh as from the garden.
John Leland Henderson and son are equipped with two Gurley transits and will be ready to do surveying for the next two months. Rates per day are $5 and $10.
Watch our windows for Fall Styles. MME. AMBOTT.
All persons knowing themselves to be indebted to Frohn & Heaton are requested to pay same at my office within 10 days from this notice. E. H. Hartwig.
Remember Riggs' shoe shop, next door to McGuire's meat market. All work strictly first-class. Also boots and shoes made to order.
Don't forget the new shoe shop across from Williams' Pharmacy. All work strictly first-class.
Call and examine my new line of watches. I can save you money. Clarke, the jeweler.
Watch the Troy grow.
Patronize home industry by buying ranch butter at McDonald's.
Shoes half sold while you wait—in 20 minutes. All work first-class and guaranteed. Ladies' sewed soles and O. Sullivan's rubber heels a specialty. Donovan's Shoe Shop, opposite Williams' pharmacy.
Chicken dinner at Emstrin's every Sunday.
All the latest styles Photos at the Deitz Studio.
Fresh Olympia and Eastern oysters at the Gem Candy Kitchen.
See that dandy line of Folders at the Deitz Studio.
Fresh vegetables, butter and eggs at McGuire Bros.
For rent—Two or three good houses, furnished rooms for light housekeeping, or nicely furnished house for a short time. See W. J. Baker.
McGuire Bros. have an up-to-date meat market, clean and neat, and solicit your patronage. Their meats are the best, and orders filled promptly. Phone Main 731.
Some men spend their money and time for things others invest time and money. Invest in a season ticket to the lecture course and you will make an investment in yourself.
Tickets for the entertainment course on sale at Clarke's drug store, Monday, October 9. Season ticket $1.50; single admissions 50c; children 15c. No charge for reserve seats.
Two-quart combination hot water bottle and fountain syringe—guaranteed for one year. Only $1.50 at Clarke's.
A. W. Onthank invites his friends to call on him at his new office on Third street. He would like to include all among his friends.

The Gem Candy Kitchen makes fresh candy every day.
Do not waste money buying a poorly finished fruit jar, but get the genuine Mason jar at McDonald's.
O. E. S. NOTICE.
Hood River chapter No. 2, Oregon Eastern Star, will celebrate its 12th anniversary in Tieman hall, Tuesday evening, October 4. A cordial invitation is extended to every member of the chapter, and to all visiting members.
A. O. U. W.
Regular meeting of the A. O. U. W. in K. of P. hall, Saturday evening, October 21, at 7:30 o'clock. A full attendance is desired in order to make arrangements for the coming anniversary celebration.
See Today.
For Ken—A desirable house down town. Inquire at Knapp's store.
Wanted—To exchange 5-acre fruit farm, well improved and near Hood River for residence property in city. Apply to Geo. D. Culbertson & Co.
E. G. Cox, the carpenter, will move his shop Oct. 23 to the Dallas building on fourth street, between Oak and River streets.
100-acre mountain ranch, all under irrigation on fifth, twelve miles from Hood River; six acres cleared, one acre orchard; good bunch marketable timber. Also four lots on hill near residence of Clark's grocery; terms reasonable. Inquire of John Leland Henderson.
Wanted—To trade ten acres of partly improved fruit land, buildings etc., in Hood River valley for improved acreage at White Salmon, or Pacific county, Washington. Apply to Geo. D. Culbertson & Co.
Order your supplies at once for mince meat, and do not wait until the day you want to use it. This will insure having it on hand for you when you want it.
F. G. Cox, the carpenter, will move his shop to the old Cox & Cook shop, one-half block north of Morgan Bros. office.
For Sale at a Sacrifice.
Fifteen acres close in on the East side. Good apple land; must sell. What will you give for it? For particulars see H. M. Amorr.
For Sale.
One safe, cost $300; will sell for $175. One oil tank, cost $45; will sell $25. Large counter, scale, cost $23; sell $15. Geo. P. Crowell.
Advertised Letter List.
October 16, 1905.
Mrs. S. G. Mosher (2) Suite Norwood, Nellie Wicks, R. C. Baker, Mrs. G. Easting, Henry Fisher, Arnold odd, P. L. Wise (2).
W. M. YATES, P. M.

James McDonald of Bethalto, Ill., was the guest last week of his old friend, C. E. Day.
J. L. Johnson of Kingsville, Ky., arrived Thursday and is visiting friends and relatives in Hood River.
W. F. Gonyer left Thursday afternoon for St. Johns, where he has accepted a position in the machine shops of that thriving manufacturing suburb of Portland.
H. E. Rickssecker, former owner and publisher of the Okadale, Wash., Tidings, is spending a few days in Hood River. Mr. Rickssecker may decide to locate here and enter the fruit business.
Rev. W. C. Gilmore, who is a member of the visiting committee of Pacific United Brethren church, is at Forest Grove visiting the college and attending the annual meeting of the Congregational churches.
Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Davidson returned Saturday from a week's trip to Portland and the exposition. Mr. Davidson is planning soon to move into the city home from Willow Flat for the winter.
Geo. McGuire, of Thornton, Wash., and three children have been visiting his brothers, Henry and Walter, for a couple of weeks. Mr. McGuire returned Saturday, and the children were taken back this week by their grandmother, Mrs. McGuire.
S. A. Skinner left last Saturday for Columbia, Wash., where he is visiting with the son and daughter of Mr. Goss his neighbor in Methodist lane. Mr. Skinner will look over the wheat country of Eastern Yakima, and expects to secure a good horse while there.
George Eaton of Dolgeville, N. Y., was the guest during the week of E. A. and Bruno Franz. On his way to Hood River, Mr. Eaton stopped off at Spokane, North Yakima, Tacoma, Seattle and Portland, and of all the places visited, he regards Hood River the finest. He expects to have his parents locate here in the near future.
Enoch Brayford of the Rockford store called at the Glacier office Monday morning and asked to have the little ad, offering his wagon for sale, taken out, as he has been kept busy answering inquiries since it appeared. The wagon was sold the first night the paper appeared, his neighbor, Mr. Helme, reading the ad, and making the purchase. Mr. Brayford says he sold a Dallas man who to Mr. Brayford saying if the wagon was as represented he would be down to buy it.
Hart & Foster are the new proprietors of the blacksmith shop on the heights. They have purchased the shop and business of W. E. Godsey, and expect to remain here.
Hart comes here from the Dalles, while W. A. Foster, the other member of the firm, has been a resident of Hood River a year or more. Mr. Foster was formerly a member of the examining board of blacksmiths in the state of Washington, and for several years did shoeing in the government barracks for the cavalry horses. He has had a wide experience in this line of work.
The handsome new residence of Geo. P. Crowell was the scene of a merry company last Friday afternoon. Over fifty ladies met at one of the popular "teas" given by the ladies of the Congregational church. A game with clothespins as the mascot first started the fun. Miss Herschler sang a solo very sweetly and was recalled, and Florence Brossius gave one of her attractive songs. After all had partaken of the generous supply of refreshments, the company adjourned, feeling all the time he has taken the state of Washington, and for several years did shoeing in the government barracks for the cavalry horses. He has had a wide experience in this line of work.

B. F. Belmont is erecting a cottage on East State street for Joseph Tompkins.
B. F. Belmont is drawing plans for the erection of a hotel by the Oregon Lumber Co. at Englis.
Kenneth Robertson a fruit grower of Hood, Idaho, is in Hood River with a view of locating here.
Rev. W. G. Elliot, Jr., preached to a large congregation in the Unitarian church Sunday morning.
Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Parkins and Mrs. Myrtle Stone Stump, of The Dalles were in Hood River last week.
Charles Foster made the record catch of fish in Hood River last Saturday. He landed 63 trout, the total of which weighed 18 pounds.
E. A. Thomas, secretary and manager of the Portland Clear Co., made a business trip to Hood River, Tuesday, going on the same day to Dugas.
Watts the marble man was down from The Dalles, Tuesday, and set up a handsome monument over the grave of the late C. L. Gilbert, in Idwalde cemetery.
C. H. Bennett, who recently purchased the boiler farm north of the Valley Christian church, is pleased with his purchase, and is busy getting his full work underway.
Billy Shipman, night clerk at the Commercial house, The Dalles, was in Hood River during the week. Mr. Shipman will accompany them at his also to the city home from Willow Flat for the winter.
C. H. Gove is spending some time at Cambridge, Idaho, where he is improving a homestead relinquishment. Cambridge is 60 miles north of the growing state of Idaho.
W. D. Davies, producer and wholesale dealer of fancy fruits, at Florin, Calif., spent Friday in Hood River. He was accompanied by R. F. Hosking of Portland, and the two men took a drive through the valley.
Superior P. A. Blosser has had a new wagon and team at all times Monday putting gravel on the Pacific side hill. The most of this work is done, as the funds of the district have been used up in doing other very necessary and very heavy work.
The members of Women's Alliance in this county requested a meeting at William G. Elliot's hall Friday morning, at 9:30, with funds for an all day work meeting. Gentlemen invited to lunch at noon. Hostesses: Mrs. Huxley, Mrs. Newby, Mrs. Hart, Mrs. Clapp, Mrs. G. Gilmore.
Carl Gilmore, the recently sold his East Side farm, is planning to leave with his family to an extended trip to Portland and Willamette valley points. Mr. Gilmore has been a resident of Hood River for over 12 years, he says, and is very glad to have been taken a trip to the valley.
Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Sanders, accompanied by Mrs. Thompson, a sister to Mrs. G. Gilmore, have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Sanders, Mr. Charles Smith and Mrs. Wilson are brother and sister. Mrs. Thompson left Friday for her home in the East.
Rev. J. W. Mayes, of the Italian church left Wednesday morning for Bellingham, where he will fill the pulpit of the same church. During the absence of Mr. Nelson, William G. Elliot of Portland will fill the pulpit of the same church on Sunday, and possibly on Monday of Portland the following Sunday.
M. V. Rains brought suit against Mr. and Mrs. Field in the east side justice court at Portland, the amount involved being $25. The complaint asserts that a change in the commission by the Board of Commissioners of Hood River in 1904, at an agreed price of $2.00 per acre, that he sold the lot to them, but that at this time he has received no part of the legal amount, which is 5 per cent of the purchase price.
The Dalles' post-graduate society met Saturday night and reorganized for the winter. The committee on constitution reported a new constitution which was adopted. An election of officers resulted as follows: President D. L. Davidson; Vice President A. T. Dodge; Secretary M. G. Gonyer; Treasurer J. O. Cameron; Sergeant-at-Arms Mrs. W. C. Dodge; Editor Mrs. M. Cameron. The society commences its winter work very auspiciously. Next Saturday there will be a question box in addition to the literary program. All are cordially invited to attend.

Famous Ostrich Plumes

The genuine Fattion line. Nothing better can be bought.

We will sell them to you at manufacturers' cost until November 1st, providing we furnish the hat.

We show the same styles found in Portland's most exclusive shops at much lower prices.

Entire Shoe Stock on Sale at Cost

KNAPP'S

J. Williamson of Ione is in the valley seeking a location.
Evangelist Handaker and wife began a revival service at Odell last night.
Charles B. Prather left Monday for Roseburg, where he will enter the Soldiers' Home.
Mrs. J. E. Duganne of Portland is visiting with her daughter, Mrs. W. C. Gilmore.
Miss Maudie Geo was up from Portland Sunday and spent the day with her mother Mrs. E. Geo.
Ed Byerlee, manager of the Okadale Fruit and Poultry farm, spent last week in Portland, where he took in the closing days of the exposition.
Robert Lesure, Henry Thomas and Mrs. Richmond were in The Dalles Monday as witnesses for Mrs. Riggs, who made final proof on her homestead at Mount Hood.
James R. Davis of Grand Junction, Col., has purchased the Carl Gilmore farm, paying $5000 for 20 acres. Mr. Davis has moved onto the property with his family.
D. McDonald returned Saturday night from Portland, accompanied by his little daughter who had undergone treatment for appendicitis in a hospital there. The little girl is now out of danger and is recovering nicely.
Walter Upson went to Lyle Thursday, returning Sunday with two rainbow trout, one of which measured 29 inches long and the other 21. Mr. Upson reports splendid fishing at Lyle, the fish there biting at anything.
Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Sanders left Tuesday morning for Seattle, where Mr. Sanders goes to bring home his father, whom the doctors have found is suffering from a fractured thigh, after a fall received six weeks ago. A month ago Mr. Sanders, sr., was walking with the aid of crutches. His leg became worse, and an x-ray examination revealed a broken bone. Mr. and Mrs. Sanders expect to return today.
A. R. Ingalls and J. R. Fields of New Plymouth, Payette valley, Idaho, spent last Wednesday in Hood River. These men are fruiters but have heard so much of this famous section of Oregon, came here to see for themselves. Mr. Smith took them over the valley. They left out nothing in their praise of the orchards and the trees loaded with apples. Mr. Field is horticultural inspector for his district in Idaho.
Rev. J. W. Mayes, who was recently appointed to supply the circuit for the Methodist church at Bickleton, writes to his sister, Mrs. Geo, that himself and family are pleased with their location, and are getting along nicely. Mr. Mayes supplies the following circuit in Eastern Klickitat county: First Sunday of each month, morning and evening at Bickleton and Pleasant Ridge at 3 in the afternoon; second Sunday morning at Bluelight and evening at Glade; third Sunday morning and evening at Bickleton and afternoon at Enterprise; fourth Sunday morning at Glade and evening at Bluelight. First Tuesday of each month services are held at Huth's.
Mrs. H. S. Richmond spent Monday in The Dalles.
Mr. and Mrs. F. Heavener were visitors in The Dalles Monday.
Mrs. C. L. Gilbert is visiting relatives and friends in Ohio and Indiana.
Rev. J. B. Spight of the Baptist church will hold services Sunday at Mosier.
Mrs. W. E. Gibson of Elkhat, Ind., has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. D. G. Treador.
Mrs. J. Edgington left Monday for Wasco, where she will visit with former neighbors and friends.
V. C. Brock, of the first National bank, attended the Knights of Pythias meeting in Portland last week.
The Ladies' Aid society of the Congregational church will meet Friday afternoon with Mrs. G. E. Williams.
Mrs. John Sanger and Miss Ella Sweeney were in Portland a few days last week, attending the Lewis and Clark fair.
Charles Prather made sale last week of 40 acres of his East Side farm to James Chisley of Vantage. Chisley says he "gave it to the mayor of Vantage."
Miss Ella Sweeney from Bradford City, Pa., is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Sanger. Miss Sweeney is making a tour of the country.
Mrs. Riggs of Mount Hood, widow of Dr. Riggs, made final proof on her homestead claim before the register and receiver of the United States land office at The Dalles, Monday.
Members of the Modern Woodmen of America and Royal Neighbors went to Mosier last night, in response to an invitation from the lodge there to join with them in a banquet and good time.
Dakin and Kent are busy these days, with numerous painting contracts. They will do the work on the Sherman and Staten buildings, and also have work on the Wilson cottage in The Dalles. C. U. Dakin, Bert Kent and Orville Lakin are working in The Dalles this week.
Fouts & Darby, attorneys at law, is a new sign in large old letters on a second story window in the Breach block. This new firm expects to be located here by November 1. Both young men are recent graduates of the Oregon law school, having left the institution with honors and a splendid standing with the leading attorneys of the city of Portland. Mr. Fouts expects to continue his partnership with a Portland office, while making his residence here. With the advent of these two young men, Hood River will have five attorneys.
J. J. Meurs of Grand Rapids, Mich., accompanied by his wife and four children, arrived Sunday and have rented the Cox house, intending to remain here at least a year, and if they like the country may locate here permanently. Mr. Meurs is a brother of Dan Meurs of this city. He is employed as a chemist in the factory of the Pittsburg Plate Glass Co.
Mrs. Meurs has so far recovered from her attack of typhoid fever that she is able to be up and around the house, but her little girl is now a victim of the same fever, and is reported very sick.

GET IN THE HABIT OF TRADING AT

Booth's

THE BIG STORE WITH LITTLE PRICES

50 Toy Knitting Machines Free to fifty little girls who will bring this ad. to our store, and who will tell their mammas to come and see the nice underwear we are selling so cheap—we will give a knitting machine; they're lots of fun.

Underwear Our strong suit. We thought we had brought to heavily, so we marked them way down to move quick, but we won't have enough to last the season. The price is ridiculous for such good garments, but it's your gain if you'll come before they're gone. Just think of buying a fine suit of fleece lined boys' underwear for 50 cents, and others in proportion.

Lanterns. Dark nights now; you'll need some light. Our new swing-out globe lantern is a fine one—the most improved lantern made. 65 cents Sweaters for boys; all wool, solid colors and striped, made with new style waist band; good wearing garments. 75c to $1.25 Boys' Knee Pants, only a limited lot; extra good quality, worsted and corduroy, pretty patterns. While they last, 48c pair	Gloves. We sell the kind that wear. Apple polishing gloves, 3 pair 25c; oiled canvas gloves, 25c; asbestos tanned working gloves, 50c; heavy calfskin gloves, 85 cts. Ladies' & Misses Caps in velvet and felt, all colors. The new automobile shape. They're very pretty. 50c. Tam O'Shanter Caps. Woolly reds, grays and mixed colors. Special lot while they last. 25c each	Mufflers. The new Perfection cravat shape with collar spring; fine for ladies or gentlemen; are quickly put on. Light and dark silk. $1.00 each Warm Bedding is what one thinks of these cold nights. We are offering some excellent values in warm fleece comforts; see them. Golf Gloves. We've got the new, pretty patterns in wool and mercerized cotton. It's time to wear warm gloves. 35 to 60c.
---	--	--