

FRANK A. CRAM, the LEADING CLOTHIER

Top Coats

of every description, color, weave and lining. Our prices are a joke to anyone who has priced elsewhere

Brandegee, Kincaid & Wood. Copyrighted, 1905

Brandegee, Kincaid & Wood. Copyrighted, 1905

Men's Furnishings

That's where we shine. More value here for less money by 33% than Portland stores will sell equally stylish goods.

OUR INCORPORATION SALE

puts reliable

Clothing, Shoes, Wool Underwear
Hats, Shirts, Hosiery, Sweaters, etc
AT WHOLESALE PRICES

We save you fully one-third on all your Winter outfit. A big line of Mackinaws and Lumbermen's Supplies just received.

We have the Goods, and we sell them.

The
Up-to-Date Store

The Paddock New Raincoat

We show a line of these perfect fitting garments one-third less than Portland.

Brandegee, Kincaid & Wood. Copyrighted, 1905

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

Rubber heels at Donovan's.
Shingles. See us for best prices. Oregon Lumber Co.
Mantle, wall and cuckoo clocks on easy terms at Clark's.
Use Williams' anti-septic hair tonic and keep off gray hairs.
The Troy Laundry does good work; you know that.
To make room for new stock all cut glass will be closed out at cost. Clarke the jeweler.
Do you use Lath? Get our price and compare it with that of competitors. You will make money this way. Oregon Lumber Co.
Well, don't you see that if you wish to see well, you should see Clarke the optician. Guaranteed work in glass fitting.
Closing out all but millinery, Knapp. Now that all important question is settled the next thing is the ring—a fine new line of engagement and wedding rings. Prices right. Clarke the jeweler.
For surveying, see John Leland Henderson & Son.
All watch, clock and jewelry repair work guaranteed by Clarke the jeweler.
Every man owes it to himself and his family to master a trade or profession. Read the display advertisement of the six Morse Schools of Telegraphy, in this issue and learn how easily a young man or lady may learn telegraphy and be assured a position.
Hard wood baskets for picking apples, only 50c at McDonald's.
Go to Mr. Outbank for abstracts and notarial work, renting and collecting. Legal papers carefully drawn.
Do you use Naphtha soap? 5c per bar at McDonald's.
Shoes at manufacturer's cost, Knapp.
Mr. Bartness is on a cash basis.
For work where satisfaction is guaranteed, patronize the Troy Laundry. Agency at O. K. barber shop.
Ladies' hand turned and sewed shoe works specialty at T. H. Donovan's, across from Williams' Pharmacy. All work strictly first-class.
Those contemplating putting in what this fall should see the Hood River Milling Co. first.
In order that their patrons may take advantage of the discount allowed on bills paid before the tenth of the month, the Water and Light Co. has arranged to keep their light in the Davidson building open till 8:30 p. m. the first, ninth, tenth and every Saturday evening of each month.
Groceries, flour and feed at Lamar & Davis.
Men's hats and shirts at wholesale price at Knapp's.

The Gem Candy Kitchen makes fresh candy every day.
Do not waste money buying a poorly finished fruit jar, but get the genuine Mason jar at McDonald's.
For Rent—A desirable home down town. Inquire at Knapp's store.
Wanted—To exchange some fruit farm, well improved and near Hood River for a house property in city. Apply to Geo. D. Callender & Co.
160 acre mountain ranch, all well irrigated, in the Hood River valley, near Hood River; six acres cleared, one acre orchard; good house and other buildings. Also four acres in the Hood River valley, near Hood River, all well irrigated. Inquire of John Leland Henderson.
Wanted—To trade ten acres of partly improved fruit land, buildings etc., in Hood River valley for improved acreage at White Salmon or Pacific county, Washington. Apply to Geo. D. Callender & Co.
Order your supplies at once for nice meat, and not a 10c until the day you want to use it. This will insure having it on hand for you when you want it. MEAT BROS.
It is to your interest to refer to Mr. Bartness' ad under the new system.
Notice.
The regular annual meeting of the Hood River Fruit Growers' Union will be held on Monday, November 11, at 1 p. m. in the hall, Hood River Fruit Growers' Union, E. H. Shepard, Sec'y.
For Sale at a Sacrifice
First class residence on the East side. Good yard, brick and stone. What will you give for it? For particulars see Mr. H. M. Amorr.
For Sale.
One acre, east $300; will sell for $175. One and a half, east $45; will sell for $25. Large county, scale, acre $27; will $15. Geo. P. Crowell.
Bids Wanted.
Notice is hereby given that the board of directors of school district No. 43 of Hood River, Wasco county, Oregon, will receive bids for the carpenter work for the construction of a school house 234 ft for said district to be constructed in accordance with the plan and specifications thereof. Sealed bids for such work will be received at the office of the board at the residence of J. R. Sheld, clerk in said district, till Saturday, the 25th day of October, 1905, at the hour of 1 o'clock p. m. The board reserves the right to reject any and all bids. Plans and specifications may be seen at the office of the clerk in said district.
J. R. STEELE, Clerk.
P. E. Beckel and W. J. Smith of Westleyne, Mich., were in the city yesterday looking up locations, and were being shown about the city by Will Rand.
Wind River Lumber Company, Cascade Locks, has closed its mill for the next three months. The reason of the shut-down is due to the fact that the State of Washington conducts a salmone propagating station on Wind River and for three weeks each year the stream is given over to the Fish Commissioner, and log driving operations are suspended.
H. M. Abbott returned Monday afternoon from Mosier, where he is operating a residence on his fruit farm. Mr. Abbott says property is increasing in value at Mosier, a large amount of Portland capital having been invested there during the last spring and summer. The land there is especially adapted to fruit, and many are going extensively into the business.
James Cooper of Rowena was in Hood River Tuesday, to see about the purchase of a band of sheep from the Davenport Bros. Mr. Cooper owns a ranch at Rowena, where he has planted 2000 peach trees this fall. He also has a farm at Mount Hood, where he will set 15 acres to apple trees. The 15 acres are already cleared. He might clear five more this winter and set out the entire 20 acres in apples.
D. L. Davidson of Willow Flat, president of the Dukes Valley Literary society, reports that the program committee, owing to sickness, was unprepared at last Saturday's meeting. The question box was opened, and some good discussions were had. Next Saturday there will be a debate on the subject: "Resolved, That the printing press has done more to civilize the United States than the railroads." The debaters are: Affirmative—J. O. Cameron, Will Durham, C. W.

Murphy. Negative—A. T. Dodge, Mark Cameron, the third member yet to be chosen.
Will E. Sherman spent last week in Salem, his former home.
W. R. Wimmer was transacting business in Portland last week.
Miss Edith Woodworth returned last week from a three weeks' visit in Portland.
Henry Hockett of The Dalles made a flying visit to his father, Harry Hockett on Saturday last week.
Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Moss were in Portland last week to attend the performance of Ben Hur at the Marjann Grand.
A Highland Kiosk, Vollette reached at the Hood River post office without an address. The owner may have the same by calling at the Globe office.
Rev. P. E. Billington, corresponding secretary of the O. C. M. C. will preach at the Valley Christian church next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.
W. G. Elliot, Jr., preached a very able sermon in the Lutheran church, Sunday morning. In the afternoon he conducted services at the Crapper school house.
A. W. King has discontinued his subscription to the Globe because this paper has been devoting too much space to suit him in talking the world what a good country Hood River is.
Philip Kollas was in town Monday to extend his subscription another year on the Globe. Mr. Kollas says he takes the Globe as his favorite, and one he could not get without.
J. R. Nickelsen, the vehicle and implement man, has received a display of horse harnesses, and has a fine stock on exhibit, when harvested, and attached to one of his fancy runabouts. Mr. Nickelsen will have a glass front in his warehouse on Fourth street, and otherwise improve the store.
R. E. Prather arrived in Hood River Thursday morning from Monmouth, where he has been visiting his mother for several weeks. Mr. Prather left here last spring for Billington, where he says he spent seven weeks in a hospital suffering from an attack of pneumonia.
W. C. Saunders & Co. started the playhouse, Joseph Frasier's, on at work on the Sherman today this week. Contractor Saunders expects to have this building completed within a few days. Work is progressing rapidly with the new residence Mr. Saunders is erecting for A. C. Sisson, which is also ready for the plasterer.
The members of the United Guild of the Episcopal church and Monday evening at the cozy home of Miss Walton, where they prepared work for the annual bazaar, which is to take place the 1st week in December. Next Sunday morning the young women will sell at the home of Mrs. Jones on Third street.
A change is expected in the Portland Journal, free trial noted in the third column. Miss Della Crute of the Dalles, having the long story of what has been going on in the Dalles. Mr. Crute has 25,000 votes and Mr. Crute has 25,000 votes and Mr. Crute has 25,000 votes in this district. Mr. Crute has 25,000 votes in this district.
Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Hamilton returned Tuesday morning from Seattle, accompanied by their son, Mr. J. W. Hamilton, and daughter, Miss Gertrude R. Hamilton. Mr. Hamilton is a contractor and is building a new house on the hill near the city. The house is a very nice one, and is being built in a very stylish manner. Mr. Hamilton is a very successful contractor and is well known in the city.
Traveling that men and people who live along the river say it looks good to see the steamer Columbia making daily trips up and down the river. The boats, though the portage road is still in the hands of the contractor, are being built. Other steamers will be put on the river as soon as practicable, reports the Dalles Chronicle.
H. W. Sellgren was in the city Friday a very long period of time for an injured leg, which he had broken. The cylinder of a small sailing vessel, which Mr. Sellgren was on, was blown off by a wave of the sea. Mr. Sellgren did not consider the injury a very serious one at the time, as he was sure to get it fixed, but he was within the last few days his leg has been giving him considerable pain. Mr. Sellgren has moved with his family from Trout Lake and will spend the winter at Blings.

Carl and Henry Jantzen re erecting a commodious dwelling house on their ranch.
Mrs. Henry Oleson, who was over from Underwood yesterday, reports her new hotel nearing completion.
Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Davidson have again taken up their residence in town, having moved in from their Willow Flat farm.
Elder J. W. Jenkins, formerly pastor of the Valley church, arrived Wednesday noon from Portland, on his way to his home at Athena.
Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Nelson of Larimore, N. D., were guests during the week of Mrs. George P. Crowell, and Mrs. Nelson's brother, Will Sheets.
Mr. and Mrs. John Sosey and children of Canton, Ill., arrived Saturday with the intention of making Hood River their home. Mrs. Sosey and Mrs. Sosey are sisters.
A baby girl but a few days old was left on the door step of the home of Mrs. Edith Spracklen, Sunday night at The Dalles. The foster mother is already the mother of five little ones.
The Davidson Bros. farm at Willow Flat will turn out this fall between 600 and 1000 sacks of fine potatoes. The potatoes are being stored for the present in the warehouse of the Davidson Fruit Co.
Councilman J. E. Rand left yesterday for The Dalles, where as a member of the sewer committee of the city council he will review the city records to secure a complete list of the property holders of this city.
H. S. Hudson, supreme master Artisan, was in Hood River last night and addressed a large audience in Artisan hall. Mr. Hudson has attained considerable of a reputation as a humorous speaker, and his remarks are always appreciated.
The following party left last night for Blinlock on a duck shooting expedition: J. H. Nickelsen, F. E. Jackson, Bert Stranahan and Edgar Wright. Mr. Wright went up in advance and secured transportation for the party to the hunting grounds, and camping places. Frank Button and Cecil Holman are expected to join the party later. Ducks are reported very plentiful.
R. W. Simpson, clerk at the Hotel Waucoma, returned yesterday from his ranch at Mosier. He reports many improvements at that place, among them: A new barn 100x60 for Mr. Stokes, also a new house 18x30. Mr. Stokes has slashed six acres, which he will plant in the spring to apple trees. Gotten Treitz is rebuilding the dwelling destroyed some time ago by fire. Mr. Flury has slashed and burned four acres, and erected a neat cottage enclosed with a picket fence. Mr. McVey has a large crop of vegetables of all kinds, and a second crop of strawberries, some of which Mr. Simpson gathered himself. Thomas is erecting a new barn. Winifred Olinger of Hood River is busy clearing land on his homestead, and will set an orchard in the spring.
Have You Sprayed Yet?
Get your material of Clarke and save money.

Millinery Clearance Sale.

BELOW COST GENUINE BARGAINS

Street Hats, Tailored Effects, French Sailors—all good shape styles. From $2.00 to $2.50 values, now $1.00. Don't forget sale on high grade Ostrich Plumes. Your choice from the best stock of Shoes in town at cost. Broken lots below cost. Iron clad school hose at cost.

KNAPP'S

H. E. Judge, agent for the Valvoline Oil Co., was securing orders in Hood River Monday.
A marriage license was granted Tuesday morning to J. A. Fawcett of Grass Valley and Sarah D. Weygant of Hood River.
Mrs. J. M. Spriggs of Mill A, at Chenoweth, suffered a broken arm last week, and was in Hood River Tuesday for treatment. The broken member had swollen severely.
Members of the W. C. T. U. are requested to meet at the Congregational church at 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. The subject for the weekly discussion is: "Loyalty to the Work."
Harry Moe and bride of Dayton, Wash., were guests during the week of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Moss. Mr. Harry Moe is associate editor of the Columbia Chronicle, at Dayton, a city of 3500 population.
Mrs. Louise Goddard left Friday night for Portland, where she goes to take charge of the department of physical culture and to assist in the department of music and oratory. She will remain in Portland during the winter.
Walter Walton, recently of Pittsburg, is in Hood River on a visit with his mother, Mrs. Walton, who resides in the Arnold cottage in Coe's addition. Mr. Walton is a brother of Mrs. Murray Kay. He may decide to spend the winter here.
Teams were busy the first of the week hauling a carload of rolled barley to the farms of G. D. Woodworth and Robert Jones, who purchased a carload of the feedstuff at Grass Valley, Sherman county. The car contained about 12 tons of grain.
Fire resulting from a defective flue destroyed the residence of Thomas Goss on Methodist here last Saturday afternoon about 4 o'clock. The daughter, Miss May, was alone at the time, attending to chores at the barn. Neighbors came to her assistance, and some of the furniture, including the kitchen range, was saved. The loss will amount to about $200. Mr. Goss was absent, visiting his son and daughter in Eastern Klickitat county.
J. P. Barnett, who was in the city Wednesday morning, reports that Supervisor Woodworth has placed a force of men at work on the road in the north end of the road and filling up mud holes elsewhere. The road bed constructed by Supervisor Woodworth last year is wearing well, and when this mile of work is completed it will represent one of the best roads in the valley.
The local chapter of the Order of Eastern Star held its annual chicken pie supper in the banquet hall of the Ocean temple, Tuesday evening, the occasion being a celebration of the 12th anniversary of the establishment of the order in Hood River. Worthy patron, C. D. Thompson, presided as toastmaster, and several very instructive talks were listened to. Sam Bartness, not being eligible as a Star, was introduced as the tail of a comet, and replied to the introduction with belittling humor.

GET IN THE HABIT OF TRADING AT

Booths

THE BIG STORE
WITH LITTLE PRICES

THE BIG STORE
WITH LITTLE PRICES

Mat Board and Binding for mounting pictures. A new lot of very pretty styles and colors just received.

Tissue Paper—Plain, crepe and fancy, for baskets, flowers, lamp shades, etc. All colors. Little prices

Fancy Work Materials—Fine to commence your Christmas work. Stamped Doilies, center pieces, stand covers, silks, needles, lace materials, handkerchiefs and collar patterns, sofa cushion tops, etc. Little prices

Gloves—If you are looking for a good pair of gloves that you can get lots of wear out of, come to us! That's the kind we sell. For warmth, wear and looks we've got 'em skinned to death.

Racine Feet for little and big. They are better to use than so much darning. You can only get the genuine at this store. 10c pair

Drapery Materials for curtains, couch covers, shelf covers, etc. Silkline, figured and lined, for sash curtains, brass upholstery navys, curtain rods, etc. Little prices

Pretty Dishes. We make a special pride in this department. You can always find something new here. Cups and saucers, tea sets, plates, individual pieces, colored glassware, etc., in large assortment at Little prices

Men's Shirts—the kind that wear and last. Show dirt! Well made, all in variety, full in sleeves. 50c each

Handkerchiefs. We have the best beautiful line of handkerchiefs for holidays we have ever had. Silk, linen, satin and muslin embroidered, silk initial, fancy borders and plain hem-stitched, from 2c to $1.50. See them.

For your Bird—Grass and painted cages, chains, springs, hooks, seed cups, baths, bird seed in packages, bird gravel with cuttle bone, etc. Little prices

Hardware. We have the use of paying more for hoes, pulleys, hammers, hatchets, axes, saws, shovels, saws, wire cutters, hoes, axes, and a hundred other articles that you need occasionally, when you can get them here at Little prices