THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 2, 1905.

The Goldendale Sentinel will hereafter appear as a semi-weekly.

Hood River will hold a city election the first week in December. Are you out for an office?

What a hollow mockery in the title, "Autocrat of all the Russias," now that Nicholas has turned the reins of government over to Premier Witte, with a representative assembly to decide on all matters of legislation.

That Jim Hill, he of the Great Northern and Northern Pacific, is figuring on bridging the Columbia at Celilo and extending his railroad system into Central Oregon has percolated through the news tank of The Dalles Chronicle. The Glacier had a scoop on this story several months ago.

The Forest Grove Times remarks that the highest price brought by California apples at any of the orchards in that state is now $1.25 per box, but the best Hood River apples are bringing $2.50 per box—which shows how much more Oregon apples are appreciated in Eastern markets than the California product.

There were a good many people in Hood River rather skeptical of the practicability of a bonding district for the construction of an irrigation system. The farmers of the West side seem to have solved all difficulties along this line. They disposed of their $50,000 bonds at par, and have let contracts for construction work.
If any individuals deserve credit for the careful handling of this affair from its inception to a point where completion is in sight, to the present board of directors belongs the honor.
And a gratifying one it is.

Punctuality Record of 99.5.
That the pupils of the Hood River public schools are punctual almost to perfection is shown by the report of Superintendent Wiley for the second month of school, which gives the percentage of punctuality at 99.5.

The average attendance during the second month was 422; the average number belonging 439; the percent of attendance 96.2; actual number belonging 438.

The total number enrolled in the school is 491; the total days present 8448; the total days absent 332; total time tardy 42.

Hallowe'en Party at Prather Home.

The home of Judge George F. Prather was the scene of merrymaking Tuesday evening, the occasion being a Hallowe'en party of young women.
The girls were all dressed in weird costumes appropriate for the evening devoted to spooks and goblins. The fairies made the occasion one of goul-ish revelry, enjoyed some dainty refreshment and disappeared to their several homes at a conventional hour.

New York Empire Theatre Co.

Which goes to the Opera House in this city commencing Monday night, November 6, for an engagement of three nights, is said to be an exceptionally strong and well balanced company of eighteen members.
The company has been playing the past week in Pendleton, and the press in that city says excellent satisfaction has been given to crowded houses each night. For such a large and excellent company of artists the plays are well chosen and the prices most reasonable, and Hood River people are promised delightful and refreshing evening entertainments. Secure your seats in advance at Clark's drug store and see one of the best theater companies that has ever visited Hood River.

Masked High Jinks Dance.

An unique Hallowe'en party was given Tuesday evening at Artisan Hall, where the Mystic light, arrayed in ghastly garments, wearing yellow masks and yellow handkerchiefs knotted over their heads, welcomed a band of kindred spirits. The hall was lighted dimly with jack-o'-lanterns, candles and lanterns after the electric lights went out and looked in keeping with its weird occupants.
The first guests to arrive were Uncle Josh and Priscilla. They were followed by a motley company of dwarves, sailors, darkies, clowns, school girls and gypsies, who were soon on a good terms as if they had known each other for years. One petite young miss in pink with lavender hair laughing over her back, escaped detection for a long time, but was finally discovered to be the wife of a stout darky in white gloves, none other than Lou Morse.

The Mistle Night.

The mistle night, Mrs. H. L.
Dunham, Mrs. R. J. Kimball, Mrs.
Charles Castner, Mrs. C. T. Hardy, Mrs. H. F. Davidson, Mrs. Will Graham, Miss Alvina Headley, Mrs.
Norman Young.

Officers St. Mark's Church.

St. Mark's Episcopal church was formerly organized in Hood River by the election of the following officers Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Rand: Senior Warden, Robert H. Wood; junior warden, Chas. N. Clarke; clerk, Malcom Plano; treasurer, Edmund Cross. The reminder of the evening was spent in a social way.

Rev. H. D. Chambers of Portland, who does field missionary work for his church in Oregon, was present, and assisted with the organization.
Mr. Chambers reports a bright outlook for his denomination in this city. An effort is now being made to secure a rector for the church here.
The congregation has the funds on hand, says Mr. Chambers, to pay for the pastor's salary, as soon as a suitable man can be secured.

It is the intention of the members of St. Mark's church to enlarge the chapel at once. A large number of the newcomers to Hood River are members of the Episcopal church, and the little church here is in flourishing condition.
Murray Kay, who has had experience in the cathedral choir of England, has charge of the music for the services at St. Mark's church. Robert H. Wood is superintendent of the Sunday school, and work in all branches of the church is progressing nicely.

SHORT CIRCUIT BURNS ARMATURE

By connecting the main conductors of the electric light system with a piece of iron wire at the Indian creek bridge about 2:40 Tuesday evening, a short circuit was formed, which turned the current back to the power house, destroying the armature in the generating machine, and endangering the life of Thomas Ingram, the night electrician.

Manager R. F. Davidson believes the dynamo is damaged beyond repair, and if so, this is a loss of over $1000 to the company. Handbills announcing a reward of $250 for the apprehension of the guilty parties were distributed about the city early yesterday morning, and every effort will be made by the company to presents to the full extent of the law the party or parties who put out the lights under the guise of a Hallowe'en joke.

Mr. Ingram was sitting at a distance from the dynamo at the time.
"Everything was running smoothly," said he, "when all of a sudden a lot of flame shot to the ceiling and there was a fierce report like a clap of thunder. The room was instantly filled with smoke. I shut off the current as soon as possible, but the short circuit had done its work, and I fear the generator is ruined."

It was a very narrow escape for Mr.
Ingram. Had he been much closer it is doubtful if he could have escaped a shock sufficient to kill him. But for the fact that the Light Co. is installing a new generator, the city would have to remain in darkness for a week or longer. The new machine will be placed in position at once, and the people of the city given a better light service than before.

H. F. Davidson, manager of the company, is deeply incensed over the affair, and has distributed the following notices about the city:

"We will pay $200 reward to any person who will furnish information or a clue that we can follow up which will result in the arrest and conviction of the person or persons who tampered with the electric light wire near the Indian Creek Bridge on the night of October 31, at about 2:40. We will also reward the names of suspected persons and witnesses. We will go to all expense of detective service after the matter is placed in our hands and do the prosecuting at our own expense. The names of informants will be kept strictly confidential. It is the duty of every good citizen to assist in punishing such inhuman miscreants who are a menace to life and property and help in ridding the community of them.
Five information direct to the underigned person. The money is ready."
"H. F. DAVIDSON."

KLICKITAT LANDS CHANGING HANDS

Special to the Glacier.

Goldendale, Wash., Nov. 1.—The real property belonging to the estate of the late Fred Doe, comprising 1,300 acres was sold last Saturday by N. B. Brool, administrator, declarator, for $2,125.00. The entire tract was bought by Chas. Weigand, with the exception of one quarter section, which was bought by T. B.
Montgomery. The land lies in the eastern part of the county along the Columbia river, and opposite Arlington, and was used by Mr. Doe for sheep range, but portions of it are said to be the best of wheat land.
There were several parties over from Arlington to bid on the land, among them being O. P. Sturges, cashier of the Arlington national bank, who is an old time resident of Goldendale.

Herman Kuhnhausen was over from Camas Prairie the last of the week, having come over to lay in a supply of fuel, which our millers know as "red wood." He is at present building the new Chapman bridge at Camas Prairie.

Farmers are digging their crop of potatoes, of which there is a big yield this year.

The apple crop in White Salmon was light this year, but those who are engaged in securing good prices, the highest known in this country.

Dr. Swartz has fenced the property he purchased last summer of E. Wye-ser, and built a sidewalk from the head of the Taps.

Land Co. has just completed a fine little home in the rear of his store, for keeping his team and buggy.

The fine residence owned by Mr.
Hoffman, just west of Dr. Swartz's, is now ready for the plasterer.

John D. Weyer's house is all completed and last week he moved in with his family.

E. Weyer, Sr., and wife made a trip last week to Spokane.

A Hallowe'en party held forth at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Wolfard Monday night. There was a large attendance, and a fine time is reported.

Mr. Jones of the firm of contractors of Jones & General of Spokane, who will build a portion of the Northern railroad at this point, was here last Sunday, looking over the ground.

A harness and shoe shop has been opened in the McGowan building. The man is kept quite busy with his work, and the people of White Salmon are glad to be able to secure work on this kind done at home.

H. C. Clyde surveyed a five acre tract Monday for the Old Fellows cemetery, located on the John McCoy tract. Lots in this cemetery will soon be on the market, or as soon as a light of the ground can be made.

H. C. Bowman began this week the construction of a new residence on his farm adjoining town.

R. Fields made a business trip to Hood River, Tuesday.

Teachers at the Dufur Institute.
Superintendent L. A. Wiley, accompanied by Miss Mathews, Mrs. Givens and Professor Brown of the Frankton school, attended the teachers' institute at Dufur last Saturday. From the Dalles there were County Superintendent and Mrs. J. T. Nell, Professor and Mrs. Sanders, and two other teachers.

The party left the Dalles in a carry-all, and report a successful teachers' meeting. This coming Saturday there will be a local institute at Antelope, conducted by Mr. Neff and Mr.
Landers.

Mrs. Peter Cram, who left last Thursday for Portland, expects to return here a short time and then return to Hood River to spend the winter with her son, Frank Cram, whose family is in California.—Chronicle.

THE PARIS FAIR.

WHITE SALMON.

The Grangers had a big time last Saturday, with a dinner at the hall at noon. A large number of outsiders were invited, and all present enjoyed themselves immensely. At 2 o'clock there was a session of the Grange, when the following four new members were initiated: Mr. and Mrs. Jennings, Abe Groshong, George Smith.

In the evening the ladies served splendid supper, after which the dancers retired to the ballroom, where dancing was continued until a late hour. Proceeds from the dance and supper went toward the fund for the purchase of the park. All those who participated in the event were in high terms for the good things set upon the banquet table.

Road Supervisor John D. Weyer is preparing the roads for the winter season. Last week he had a large force of men on the new Underwood road, and fixed up this highway in good shape. He is at present building the new Chapman bridge at Cam-
as Prairie.

Farmers are digging their crop of Three Murder Cases on Docket.

Jurors have been impaneled for the November term of court, which will convene at The Dalles on Monday, November 13th. At this term three murder cases will be tried—Bess, for the murder of James Foss; Underwood, for the murder of Darnielle, and Mary Aleck who killed Molly, an old Indian woman.

The panel is as follows:
The Dalles—Joseph Means, farmer, H. M. Hilgen, farmer, J. L. Anderson, farmer, Al Bettingen, capitalist, Andy Allen, feed yard man, C. E.
Christman, farmer, Oscar Angel, farmer, H. E. Moore, stockman, L. L.
McCartney, farmer, W. H. Sharp, School Entertainment Friday Night.

The children of the Hood River public schools will hold an entertainment and basket social in the opera house, Friday evening of this week.
An admission of 10 cents will be charged. All women and girls with baskets will be admitted free. It is the intention to auction off the baskets, containing lunch for two. Proceeds from the sale of the baskets, and the other receipts of the evening, will go toward the library fund of the school.

The program will begin promptly at 8 o'clock. Special songs by the little ones promise to be a feature of the entertainment well worth twice the price of admission.

Attorney Sinnott of The Dalles was in the city Saturday, when arrangements were perfected between the Hood River and the Winans Bros. for the settlement of right of way suits out of court. Mr. Sinnott represented the Winans Bros. and Mr. Neff of Odell. This gives the railroad company a clear right of way for their 17 miles of road. Suit will be instituted at the coming term of the circuit court against Mrs. Oiler for ground the company desires for a round house, the parties being unable to agree on a settlement for damages.

Nursery Trees.

Twenty thousand, carefully grown, choice varieties—Apple, Pear, Peach and cherry trees can be found at our True-to-Name nursery for the coming season's planting. We have never been able to supply the demand and hence you should place your orders at an early date to insure attention.
