

SELL $60,000 BONDS AT PAR

Farmers' irrigation district bonds to the amount of $60,000 were sold at par last Wednesday afternoon to the Trowbridge & Niver Co. of Chicago.

On Saturday contracts were let to Grieblich & Joplin to the amount of $12,000 for the excavation of 12 miles of ditching.

The contract given Grieblich & Joplin includes in addition to the 12 miles of ditch work the slashing of 35 acres of ground.

The entire system will require about 5,000 feet of fluming, but between Ditch creek and Dead Point there will not be over 400 feet of fluming.

A large amount of this flume work can be completed after July 1.

The directors estimate that it will require the balance of the $60,000 to complete the entire system.

MOUNT HOOD.

C. A. Paddy went to Hood River Tuesday with a box of mixed varieties of apples from the Bailey place, which he shipped by express to Mr. Bailey at Trout Lake.

Mr. Offield caught a bear in a trap last Friday, and came down for hood.

Jan. Wisbart was struck by a limb while felling a tree near the new mill of the Oregon Lumber Co., and was laid up a couple of days with a fractured leg.

R. J. McIsaac left for Hood River Monday, where he transacted business and was expecting to help fix up the exhibit that is to be put in the Smith building.

C. L. Gregory and wife, who have been visiting with their daughter, Mrs. R. J. McIsaac, on the ranch, will leave for their home at Spirit Lake, Iowa next week.

D. E. Miller left for Portland Friday to remain over Sunday.

The contract for the new school house was let to W. H. Durkes Saturday, who will do the carpenter work for $100.

The old district was divided, so that the old school was left in the edge of the district. The new location makes it more central for everybody in the district.

H. H. Holzschueher brought in 18 head of cattle Tuesday from Antelope which will be put on his ranch. Half of them are milk cows, mostly from the young heifers.

The dance at the Mount Hood hall Friday evening was poorly attended on account of so many of the farmers being busy.

H. F. Davidson made a trip up the valley last week and secured about a carload of apples, mostly from the Ruff and London & Powers places.

George Wilson was digging potatoes last week with a table in his side to keep the blue boys, which are becoming quite a pest.

Mr. Billings has been troubled some with wet suckers, and has shot about a hundred of them this summer.

The improvement League meeting Saturday afternoon did not materialize. The weather was too blue for many of the farmers to leave their work, so no business was done.

W. S. Gribble has thirteen signers to his telephone petition, and needs thirty names to insure building the line.

The telephone people have been making the long trip every time repairs are wanted, while our people would be right on the ground all the time.

RUSHING ROAD TO COMPLETION

All right of way matters for the Mount Hood Railroad have been straightened up out of court.

Contractors Grieblich & Joplin have a force of 40 men driving piling around the Winans point, and if the truss bridge spanning the river is completed by December 1, rail laying will begin then, the weather permitting.

"It is very proper I think that any information concerning the road should be given you by President Eccles," remarked Mr. Early to a reporter who called at the office of the railroad company Tuesday morning.

"Briefly, I will say, that right of way matters are practically all closed and all work in connection with the road progressing nicely.

"All that it is possible to do to hasten the day when the road will be in operation, will be done.

"The mill of the Oregon Lumber Company will be moved later on to a new site on road. We have under construction at this time a new mill somewhat larger than the one here, capacity of which will be materially greater.

"Extension of the road into Mount Hood country? Please pass that until we have our present road finished.

don & Powers also own 50 acres of the H. W. Wait homestead. Five acres of this tract is in orchard.

Mr. Gray, who bought the Richmond place this summer, is making many improvements, having his brother in charge of the place, and is doing considerable clearing, which will be set out to orchard in the spring.

Miss Lessie Farmer bought 40 acres of the Huckabay place recently and will improve it next spring.

F. W. Lukemire is improving his homestead south of China Hill. J. S. Harbison, while not exactly a Portland man, might be added to the list of Willamette valley people who are becoming interested in the Mount Hood country and bringing in capital to improve it.

Surprise for Mr. and Mrs. Smith. Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Smith of Pine Flat, who are to leave shortly for their new home in Hood River, were agreeably surprised last Thursday morning, about 10 o'clock, when the good people of Pine Flat came trooping into their home until there was hardly room for more.

The visitors had with them the many good things which the fair sex are capable of preparing for an old-fashioned dinner. In few hours dinner was announced, and a most excellent dinner it was.

After relieving the table of a large portion of its contents, the party retired to the sitting room for a social hour. The men folks discussed the best varieties of fruit for a paying orchard, and the best method of cultivation, etc., until a late hour, when the visitors departed, regretting to give up Mr. and Mrs. Smith, but wishing them an enjoyable time in their new home in Hood River.

Money in Buerre d'Anjou Pears. There is money in an orchard of Buerre d'Anjou pears in Hood River is evidenced by E. Locke, who received $52.25 for the product of 30 trees, the fruit of which was marketed in New York last month.

A. C. Statten received a check for $67.50 for the fruit from a Buerre d'Anjou pear tree. Mr. Locke's orchard of Buerre d'Anjou is the only commercial pear orchard of this variety in the valley but he has demonstrated that this variety does well here, and other farmers will doubtless be setting more extensively to pears in the next few years.
