Room in West Crapper.

Editor Glacier: I guess I will have to come again. I guess the boom has set this way and we have had too much to do to make much noise. How quick some are to act. Mr. Ilcim, one of Mr. King's nearest neighbors, sold his place of 20 acres for $1500 and came straight to Crapper district and bought Tom Vanausdel's place of six acres for $1000. Tom had already vacated it and bought 20 acres and built a house in West Crapper, where he now lives. Some one has just bought Bachelor Wilson's place, just south of the school house, and has moved onto the same, and and has moved onto the same, and some Hood Riverite is waking up and trying to buy R. B. Lindsay's farm. Even some of the experts are admit-ting that we can grow a finer apple on the foot bills than they can on the lower levels, not excepting the East Side, and we all know we can grow them big enough to suit any one Now I am not talking about there be-ing an apple teit in Hood River val-ley, as some do, for the whole valley grows good apples.

The school board met last evening and decided to hire an assistant teacher for the vi ter and say we will and decided to hire an assistant teacher for the vi ter and say we will have to build abother room to the school house next summer. How does this look to thet contracted Hood River land agent who is advising strangers not to buy in this locality, that he hates to see any one throw his money away; that we can't raise apples here. I will say for his benefit that I will act as a free land agent for strangers wishing to not this part of May Be Without Light. Wasco Caunty's Good Shewing,
The summaries of the assessment rolls recently completed by Asses or Stogsdill for 1905 show a startling increase in the valuation of taxable property in Wasco county. In 1904 the number of acres of tillable land was 116,165; in 1905 it was 132,142. Its valuation in 1904 was $786,830. Its valuation in 1904 was $786,830, which in 1905 had increased to $1,365,-

New Glass Front,

Recorder Nickelsen is having a new glass front put in his place of busing a which will add very materially to the appearance of the place and will also furnish more light for the display of goods. When it is finished he will place the large wooden horse which he purchased some time ago fully harnessed in it.

of newspapers a part of the regualr studies in the public schools of Cincinnati is strongly indoreed by Superintendent Dyer of that city. In speaking on the subject he said, however, that a wise selection would have to be made, and in this as well as in his general advocacy of the scheme he is right. There are newspapers and and newspapers, and in the best of the new papers, and in the best of the new papers, and in the best of the new papers there are subjects which it may not be desirable to introduce in the schools.

Dr. Dyer loss not share in the wholesale criticism that is indulged in by some persons becase newspapers sprint accounts of murders, prize fights, divorce cases and such things, the recognizes that a newspaper is a commercial enterprise and as such to a large extent, must furnish its customers with what they want. But he thinks it might be possible to write up the account of a prize fight in such a fashion that while retaining an entertain style, it would be free of selfont that while retaining an entertain style, it would be free of selfont that while retaining an entertain style, it would be free of selfont that while retaining an entertain style, it would be free of selfont that while retaining an entertain style, it would be free of selfont that while retaining and the selfont that when the pears were actually picked up and fed to the hogs, Mr. Scheble says these two trees have never failed to produce a big crop and that they break the more of the daily newspaper, and the really important news will matter in hose trees, will hink twice before he sells the vob it two bigs farm, on Griffin cree
