With potatoes imported from Germany selling at $2.00 for a sack weighing 100 pounds in New York City, it would seem that there ought to be a market for western tubers at a profitable figure. Good potatoes can be bought at Hood River for 60 cents a sack and selected ones at 75 cents. Why don't the railroads encourage the home producer by giving him a rate that will allow him to compete with foreign markets?
Boards are very likely to become very prevalent at White Salmon this winter. The local board there is said to have closed up his shop and gone on a two week's fishing trip. A gentleman living across the river who came to this city recently to receive the attention of one of our tonsorial artists remarked that he didn't know whether it was worth while, as by the time he had made the journey over he would be ready for another shave.
Mrs. Chas. Sletten is contemplating giving a production of "Pinfore" under the auspices of the Congregational church this winter. Mrs. Slet-
