Wins Free Suit Offer

Master Fred. Bowen has won the $5.00 suit of XTRAGOOD clothes recently offered by

to the first boy under sixteen who should find and identify the salesman from the Chicago house which makes the well known XTRAGOOD brand of boys' and children's clothing. Some days ago, the above-named firm of this city began advertising the approach of the Chicago salesman, and coupled with the announcement of his coming an offer to give, free, any $5.00 suit in their store to the first boy finding him. The boy had been instructed to say: "You are from Ederheimer, Stein & Co., Chicago, and sell XTRAGOOD clothes."

The much-sought-for salesman arrived suddenly yesterday and was almost immediately beset by crowds of boys. After being recognized Mr. Al. Claybaugh gave the order and go the suit.

George Soule has purchased 100 acres of land in the Willamette valley for $1500. Ezra Monson, book-keeper for the Oregon Lumber Co., spent Sunday in Portland. C. J. Olney, manager of the Capital Box Company, of Tacoma, was a recent visitor in town. Mrs. Mathews, mother of Miss Mary Mathews, has been spending a week with her daughter in this city. Carl P. Ross, formerly of Crapper, is building a cottage on River street on one of four lots he recently bought. Evangelist Handsaker and Mrs. Handsaker are holding meetings at Lostine this week where they are having good success. G. F. Merrill, of Red River, Minn., has purchased the ten acre ranch of H. S. Lewis near Belmont. The price paid was $2,300. Arthur Spehr, representing Eilers Music Co. of The Dalles, was a visitor in town Saturday. Mr. Spehr was here looking up business. Mr. Moore, a resident of the heights, returned Sunday from Yakima Valley, where he has interests, and where he has also been visiting friends. Voyle Lindsay arrived in town from Cascade Locks last week. Mr. Lindsay, who had his leg broken recently in a falling tree, is getting along nicely. C. F. Fisher, who has been acting in the capacity of clerk and cashier at the railroad station here for some time has left, and has been succeeded by H. V. LaDow. E. E. Dove, who has been at Cambridge, Idaho, where he owns a farm, for some time, returned to Hood River this week and will spend the winter here. James F. Ledbetter, who recently made a business trip to Portland, is now present residing at Belmont. H. M. Abbott's ranch and will go into the poultry business on an extensive scale. S. D. Paton and J. Pa'on, of Portland, were in town last Friday. The former gentleman came to Hood River 10 years ago with H. P. Davidson, and for some time made his home here. Roy Wertz, who has been working for the Hood River Milling Company, has returned to White Salmon for the winter and will recently clear a tract of land he bought from N. W. Freedland. Rev. R. H. Barnes has rented the house in Cox's addition formerly occupied by A. D. Doe and will occupy it as soon as his household goods can be gotten into it. The Hood River Milling Company is distributing very handsome calendars among its friends and patrons. It is quite a work of art and many of those who were fortunate enough to obtain one are having them framed. Charles E. Spidell representing the National Life Insurance Company, was a visitor at this office one day last week. Mr. Spidell has about decided to locate at Hood River and open an office here. E. L. Smith went to Oregon City Tuesday to attend a meeting of fruit growers there for the purpose of forming a fruit growers' union. Wednesday he addressed a meeting at that place, and today he is at Graham, where he was also invited to speak. The Davidson Fruit Company has had an arc light placed on the corner opposite its office. It renders the streets in that vicinity for a block away navigable on the darkest night. It might be a good thing if we had a little less prohibition that doesn't prohibit and more light. W. M. Musser of Jules City, Kan., cousin of J. M. Confer of this city, will arrive in Hood River this week and hereafter will make his home here. William Moody and family, who are also related to Mr. Confer, will arrive here soon from Garden City, Mo., and have decided to make this their home. J. H. DeMoss for a number of years a resident of this locality, has decided to remove to DeSoto Springs, Sherman county, and has been about town saying goodbye to his many friends. Mr. DeMoss says that while business interests are taking him away from Hood River he knows no more desirable place to live than in this city. The St. Mark's Guild held its meeting at the home of Mrs. Walton last week and 17 members were present. Work was commenced for the bazaar to be held on Wednesday, of the first week in December, when articles of fancy work of all kinds suitable for Christmas presents will be placed on sale. This week the meeting was held at Mrs. Dano's and the work continued. There was a good attendance present and the ladies of the guild expect to have a fine display. Mrs. J. O. Cameron, who recently underwent an operation at the Cottage Hospital is making a good recovery. A. T. Zeek, proprietor of the brickyard, three miles south of town, is hauling brick onto the lot owned by the lodge of Artisans. In all there will be 120,000 brick placed on the lot. W. V. Johnson recently purchased 120 acres at White Salmon from J. B. Turner for $5,000. It was rumored that Mr. Johnson sold 40 acres of his purchase the same day for $80,000, but we have discovered that this is not true. Thanksgiving day the Hood River foot ball team will play their recent adversaries of Cascade Locks at Columbia park. There will be no stumps holes in the field that day, and it is expected that there will be a different story to tell when the game is over. There will be a meeting of the W. C. T. U. at the Congregational church Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, at which a full attendance is desired. Also, each member is requested to be prepared to take some part in the program. Articles of incorporation have been filed for an association to be known as the Cottage Hospital association, which has for its object the equipping and maintaining of a hospital at Hood River. The amount of the capital stock will be $10,000, and the shares will be sold at $1 each. The incorporators are H. L. Dumble, H. C. Brosius, J. E. Watt and W. F. Shaw. Officers: President, Dr. Dumble; Vice President, Dr. Watt; Secretary, Dr. Brosius; Treasurer, Dr. Shaw. The Christmas committee of the Congregational church has decided to accept the suggestion of Manager Goff of the Electric Light and Power company in lighting the Christmas tree for the Sunday school this year with colored incandescent lamps. This is quite an innovation, and while adding to the attractiveness of the tree will also do away with the danger attached to lighting it with candles. Rev. O. J. Nelson, pastor of the Unitarian church, will deliver his farewell sermon next Sunday in Hood River. Mr. Nelson expects to soon leave this city for a wider field of church work. During his stay here he has made many friends and has done good work for the church and the congregation regret very much to have him go, but realize that his ability demands a greater scope of activity. A party of railroad officials passed through Hood River Sunday. They were General Superintendent Buckley and L. R. Fields, division superintendent of the Southern Pacific. R. I. McDonald, division engineer; J. F. Graham, superintendent of motive power; T. W. Younger, master mechanic; Thomas Walsh, superintendent Washington division; Superintendent Campbell and other officers of the O. R. & N. The railroad station here Monday morning presented the appearance of being the scene of a Japanese convention. The depot and platform were filled with the countrymen of the little fellows who trimmed the claws of the great Russian bear. Part of them came here to work on the grading of the Mount Hood railroad, and others went across the river to the construction work in progress on the north bank. The ministers' meeting was largely attended Monday morning. Rev. Elkins presented a paper on "Desecration of the Lord's Day." Spirited but brotherly discussion followed the well written paper on various phases of the Sunday question. Rev. O. J. Nelson, in taking leave of the association, expressed his high appreciation of the kindness and genuine brotherhood exhibited among the members of the association. The best wishes of the association for Rev. Nelson in his new field were extended. A. W. Outhank reports the sale of the Lee property on the East Side to H. M. McCoy of Nebraska. Mr. McCoy has been tenting for over a year and has finally decided to have a home of his own and live like civilized people, and best of all, to make his home in Hood River.

made at different times, although he never would make any definite statement. It appears that he has a wife living at Napa, Cal., and she was informed of his death, and sent word to have him buried here. They had not been living together for several years. Mr. Moody was a Mason and an Odd Fellow at one time, but had allowed his membership to lapse in both orders. The Minors, however, looked after the funeral arrangements and furnished a lot in Idwile cemetery. J. E. Nichols was the undertaker in charge, and the funeral services were held in his chapel Wednesday. Thanksgiving Dinner at Mount Hood. The bachelors of Mount Hood need not eat a lonely dinner this Thanksgiving, for the ladies of the neighborhood, taking pity on their solitary condition, are planning to serve a good, home Thanksgiving dinner at the hall on that day, between the hours of 1 and 4 o'clock. There will be enough for the bachelors and any others who want a good dinner. Twenty five cents will be the price of a meal, the proceeds to go toward paying off the debt on the hall. Osteopathy. Dr. Hamilton of Goldendale will be in town for the next two weeks at the home of Mrs. Ettrick, where he will treat successfully such diseases as sciatica, rheumatism; chronic, liver, kidney and stomach troubles; infantile paralysis, St. Vitus dance and all nervous complaints. Machinery for Gold Run Mining Co. S. H. Cox left Tuesday for Vancouver, Wash., where he attended the annual meeting of the stockholder of the Gold Run Mining company at that place. Mr. Cox expects to go from Vancouver direct to the mines and will not return here before Christmas. The company is going to construct a twenty foot overshot wheel and a hoisting and pumping plant at the mines and the machinery for this purpose arrived here some time ago. As soon as this is in operation, work in the shaft will be commenced vigorously and by the first of the year it is expected that it will be possible to send ore to the smelter. Improving the Underwood Road. A dozen or more of the citizens living along the road from Underwood to the R. D. Cameron place, spent several days last week in improving the road leading out from Underwood. This was a very commendable act on the part of these men, and now this road has a better grade and is in better shape generally than any other between the Columbia river and Trout Lake. Work of this nature will always bear good returns and will make the land along the way more valuable. Let the good work spread. Miss Jennie Fritchard of Portland, state inspector of the Women's Relief corps, was in town recently and inspected the local relief corps. She reports the organization as being in good condition. Gentle horse, harness and hack for sale. Apply to McDonald.

Don't Forget the Sale of Ladies' Street Hats KNAPPS

J. P. Alpin, manager of the Flour Milling Co., went to Portland Saturday. County Commissioner Hubbard and George Prather went to The Dalles Tuesday. A plain drunk was before Recorder Nickless Tuesday and paid a fine of $5 and costs. Remember the foot ball game and dance Thanksgiving day for the benefit of the foot ball team. Mr. and Mrs. John Whistler, who have been living at The Dalles, came to this city Monday and will hereafter make their home here. Mrs. J. H. Gould, of Crapper, who sustained a stroke of apoplexy last Monday is expected to recover. It is feared however that one half of her body will remain paralyzed. A large number of Hood River people went to The Dalles Tuesday to appear at the condemnation proceedings being instituted by the Mount Hood Railroad company. The young ladies' guild held its meeting this week at the home of Miss Bowen. It was well attended and plans for an entertainment of some kind are still under consideration. The next meeting will be held at the home of Miss Crow. W. M. Hamilton of Goldendale, an osteopathic physician, is in this city where he will remain a couple of weeks practicing his profession. Mr. Hamilton is an old friend of the McGuire Bros. The ladies of the Unitarian church will hold a sale of cooked food in the vacant store in the Smith building Saturday afternoon. It will consist of dainties for Thanksgiving such as mince pies, cakes, plum puddings, etc. H. M. Abbott has traded ten acres of land at White Salmon and five acres on the state road with John Phillips for 50 acres in the Crapper district, near the new irrigating ditch. The ministers' association request all who desire to donate clothing, vegetables, money or any other goods of use to bring such to the Congregational restry Thanksgiving morning. A committee will be in charge to receive and properly deliver such gifts. Death of John Newton Moody. John Newton Moody died at the Hood River hospital Monday afternoon of cirrhosis of the liver, aged about 60 years. Mr. Moody has been sick several weeks, and during the last two weeks but little hope has been held out as to his recovery. The deceased was an employe of the Menominee Lumber Co. at the mill at Menominee, and was well thought of by his employers. He died apparently without means, except for a small amount that was due him for labor at the time he was taken ill, and his fellow employes have raised a purse of over $70 to help defray the expenses of his last sickness and the funeral expenses. Judge Lake will be asked to appoint G. W. Cameron administrator. It is thought that the deceased had some money in banks out of town, from remarks that he
