THE COMING ELECTION.

The coming election on December 5, will be one of the most important events in the municipal affairs of the city of Hood River that has ever taken place. Three councilmen are to be chosen at this election and it will rest with the voters of this city whether they want to put themselves on record as for or against the progress of their home town.

During the coming year matters of vital interest will have to be brought before the city council. The building of a sewer, which has been fairly launched by the present council, after several changes of administration, should be completed without further delay. Other matters of equal importance will come before the city council in the next year. In order to secure the success of the sewer proposition and the safeguarding of the public interests, it will be necessary to elect councilmen who are pledged to support them.

If you are alive to the best interests of the city of Hood River you will see to it that you cast your ballot for the candidate who is outspoken and sincere in his support of these improvements that insure the healthfulness and upbuilding of our town.

No money consideration can pay for neglect in these matters and every citizen of this community who can cast a ballot should personally interest himself and work toward electing men who will put self interest aside and will support measures which will benefit the majority and not the few.

The Glacier therefore believing that the best interests of the city will be served by the following gentlemen, if elected, heartily endorses them:

For Council—E. O. Blaecher, J. F. Watt, L. E. Morse.

For City Treasurer—Truman Butler.
 For Recorder—J. R. Nickelsen.

Governor Chamberlain has appointed Thomas O. Halley, of Pendleton, as the successor of Judge Wolverson to the seat on the supreme bench recently vacated by that gentleman to become United States Judge for the district of Oregon.

Charles E. Wolverson, Associate Justice of the Oregon Supreme Court has been appointed United States District Judge for this state by President Roosevelt. Judge Wolverson succeeds the late Chas. R. Bellinger. There were many aspirants for the position and the appointment of Mr. Wolverson ends a fight for this political plum that has lasted since the death of Judge Bellinger.

The Rev. W. A. Patterson of Princeton, Ind., in an address to the United Pentecost convention in Chicago, recently took exception to the use of the beautiful hymn, "Lead, Kindly Light," written by the eminent prelate, Cardinal Newman, in Christian churches. Mr. Patterson contends that its intent may apply to any man "be he Christian, Atheist or Buddhist." Exactly, Mr. Patterson, is why Cardinal Newman wrote it. Being, as he was, a man of most profound intellect, he wrote for all mankind, and not for the Pharisee alone.

Senator Ingalls once said upon occasion: "Give me the man that is patriotic to his country, patriotic to his state and patriotic to the town he lives in." As the Christmas season approaches it will be necessary for the good people of Hood River and vicinity to do more or less shopping. There is no better way of showing your patriotism to the town you live in than by patronizing the home merchants. Remember that in many ways the prosperity of the city depends on their success and that when you are spending money with them you are indirectly putting it in your own pocket.

IMPORTANT EVENT IN BANKING BUSINESS

One of the most important events that has taken place in the banking business in Hood River was consummated Wednesday when the banking firm of Butler & Co. decided to incorporate that institution. Heretofore this firm has done business with Leslie and Truman Butler as its sponsors and managers.

The firm of Butler & Co. bankers was founded in 1900 by Mr. Leslie Butler and his son Truman, and was the first banking institution to open its doors in Hood River. At the end of the first year the bank had deposits of $30,000 which have gradually increased until the amount of money now deposited with this firm is $230,000. No better proof of faith in the integrity of a business institution is wanted than this.

The business has grown to such proportions, however that it has become necessary for the bank to have a wider sphere of financial action and it was decided to incorporate, and associate themselves with some of the larger financial institutions.

Yesterday a meeting was held at the bank at 9 o'clock and the following officers were elected:

Officers
 President—Leslie Butler.
 Vice President—J. N. Teal.
 Cashier—Truman Butler.
 Directors—Leslie Butler, Truman Butler; J. N. Teal, R. T. Cox, of Portland; J. W. French of the Dalles.
 Stockholders

Leslie Butler, J. N. Teal, Truman Butler, J. W. French, L. A. Lewis, R. T. Cox, Mrs. Clementine F. Lewis, Smith French, C. H. Vaughan.
 The new bank has been incorporated under the name of the Butler Banking Company and it has increased its capital from $20,000 to $50,000 fully paid. The presence of such men as J. W. French, J. N. Teal and L. A.

Lewis as members of the board of directors and among the stockholders of the newly incorporated bank place it in a position to give its patrons facilities in the banking business which should be possessed by a firm doing the large business of the Butler Banking Company.

CANDIDATES FOR OFFICE NOMINATED

Tuesday evening a convention was held in the city hall to nominate candidates for the offices of councilman, city recorder and city treasurer. The meeting was well attended and considerable interest was manifested in the coming election which will be held on December 5.

George Prather was chosen as chairman and A. W. Outhank was elected secretary. Mr. Prather stated the business before the convention and said that nominations were open for councilmen.

Truman Butler nominated John L. Henderson, O. L. Stranahan put the name of J. H. Gill in nominal 94, J. E. Holman proposed A. L. Carmichael's name for the office of councilman and H. P. Davidson nominated L. E. Morse. Eugene Holman nominated L. W. Wood, but this gentleman declined to allow his name to go before the convention.

As there were no more nominations, H. P. Davidson and Elmer Rand were chosen tellers and the ballot was taken, Chairman Prather stating that there were three to elect and that the names of the candidates could be placed on one ballot.

The ballot resulted as follows: Gill, 34; Morse, 29; Carmichael, 25 and Henderson, 14. Mr. Henderson then moved that the nominations be made unanimous and the motion was carried.

The chairman now announced that the nominations were open for city recorder. O. L. Stranahan proposed the name of Mr. Outhank for this position and the motion was seconded. Mr. Outhank arose and said that he did not want the position and that if the present recorder could be induced to retain the office he would not take it then placed the name of J. R. Nickelsen in nomination which was seconded. There being no more candidates named the ballot was taken, which resulted in 23 votes for Mr. Outhank and 13 for Mr. Nickelsen.

Nominations were then opened for city treasurer and J. T. Holman named Truman Butler for this office. There were no other candidates and H. P. Davidson moved that the secretary be instructed to cast the vote of the convention for Mr. Butler. This motion prevailed and Mr. Butler was declared elected.

The convention adjourned.

RUNNING ENGINE ON THE NEW RAILROAD

The first train to be run over the Mount Hood Railroad left this city at 10 o'clock yesterday morning for the bridge at the throtle. The train was very liberally patronized as half the town of Hood River was on the engine and the other half were along the track as spectators. The first stop was made at Telephone Pole which was reached on time. It was decided to abolish this station on the first run, and on the next trip the train ran right through to Bridgeville without stopping.

Trains have not, however, been placed on any regular schedule as yet but it will be a great while before they are. Trains have been laid as far as the point where the company is building a bridge across the river and have been running an engine and three cars loaded with materials for completing it over this part of the track since last Sunday. The railroad company is making good headway and will soon have the bridge done and be laying the rails on the other side of the river. The scene in the vicinity of the new line is becoming very business like and as the engine with its cars puff up and down the small piece of road completed it brings with it the thought that when a railroad is once started no one can tell how far it may extend.

Nominated by Petition.
 The following petition was presented to Recorder Nickelsen Wednesday afternoon nominating the gentlemen named in it for the offices of councilman, city recorder and city treasurer:

To J. R. Nickelsen, city recorder of the city of Hood River.

We, the undersigned, legal voters in the city of Hood River, hereby petition and request that the names of the following named persons be placed on the citizens ticket, to be voted for at the city election to be held on Tuesday, December 5th, 1905, for the office of councilman of said city, namely, E. O. Blaecher, Dr. J. F. Watt, and L. E. Morse.

And we further petition and request that the name of J. R. Nickelsen be placed on the same ticket for the office of recorder of said city of Hood River to be voted for at the said election.

Dated at Hood River, Oregon, this 29th day of November, 1905.

A Pleasant Dinner Party.
 Mrs. O. B. Hartley entertained most delightfully at dinner on Wednesday of last week the following guests, Mrs. E. W. Bartness, Mrs. J. K. Orr, Mrs. W. H. Hayes, Mrs. J. R. Nickelsen, Mrs. Wm. Yates, Mrs. S. A. Knapp, Mrs. L. E. Morse, Mrs. P. Spangler, Mrs. J. E. Edgington, Mrs. W. Jones.

One of the many enjoyable incidents transpiring during the afternoon was the discovery that the occasion would commemorate the birthday of Mrs. Hartley and Mrs. Nickelsen. Of mutual pleasure to all present was the presence of Mrs. Spangler, who has been very ill for many months but is now able to mingle with her many friends.

The afternoon in the parlors of Mrs. Hartley, spent all too rapidly. Her guest had her needlework and conversation, interspersed with bright readings occupied the time, and the guests departed feeling that they had enjoyed the genuine hospitality of a gracious friend.

County Jail Depopulated.
 Circuit court and time, that hoarder of all wrongs and righter of all wrongs, have well nigh depopulated the county jail, but one unfortunate remaining, and that is an Indian who is serving time for stealing a watch. Dr. Tucker left this morning and called left this afternoon. He has a few more days to languish and then he, too, will leave the "skookum" house determined not to "respawlow" another year—until he is sure no one is watching.

CRAPPER.

Mrs. Hooker and children from North Dakota arrived in this neighborhood on last Sunday. They are at the present time the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Jakk. Mrs. Hooker is a sister of Mrs. Jakk and Mrs. Brosius. Mr. Hooker will be remembered as the gentleman who came here last spring and bought the Henge farm. He will remain at his old home for a few months in order to arrange his business affairs at that place. But like a sensible man, he sent his family to Hood River in time to escape the Dakota blizzards, knowing that this valley is singularly free from such atmospheric disturbances. Indeed, when it comes to "backing" against the mountain barriers, by which we are surrounded, the most frantic blizzard that old Boreas can "get up" is not equal to the occasion.
 We notice that in the last issue of the Glacier the astute pencil painter of West Crapper gave to his readers some very good pointers in regard to what he is writing about. Allow me to say in the language of the venerable Quaker, "hully for thee," Joe. But I think that he would better "let up" a little until we can have our school house enlarged, for if the influx of newcomers continues, and the enrollment of pupils in our school keeps up to the present ratio of increase the school maps will soon have to utilize the woodshed for a school room. They now have the blackboard room fitted up with desks and benches and are using it for a recitation room.
 P. H. Martin has a force of Japs at work clearing land on his ranch.
 We are glad to learn that Mrs. Gould, who was reported on the sick list last week, is improving.
