BIG MEETING OF

There will be a meeting of the assemblages of the United Artisans comprising this district in this city Saturday and Sunday, Dec. 16th and 17th, at Artisans' Hell. The Grand Lodge of Portland will be present as will also the lodges from The Dalles, Mosier, Mount Hood, White Salmon and the local lodge.

The meeting will include a literary and musical program, which we are unable to print as it has not been fully determined upon as yet. One of the most important features will be the initiation of new members by the grand lodge, which will do the initiatory work without the ritual. There are over thirty candidates who will enter the order at this meeting and the commonwealth Club of California.

An amusing and entertaining part of the program was the impersonation of a son of the forest called "ladian John," by Captain Coe. Mr. Coe addressed the assemblage in the language of the Yakimas which was interpreted by Dr. Jenkins. The nature of his harangue was a story of the massacre of the whites at Cascade Locks during the Indian wars and the final rescue of the remainder of the An amusing and entertaining part final rescue of the remainder of the party by the Hood River Tribe.
