

39 DAYS-OUR INCORPORATION SALE 39 DAYS

We Mean Business; Reliable Business, such as the people of Hood River can well be proud of. OUR FUTURE IS IN YOUR HANDS and we propose to use you in such a faithful and painstaking manner as to insure a steady increase of our already immense and prosperous business with you.

FOR THE NEXT 39 DAYS UNUSUAL EFFORTS will be made to SELL all READY MADE GARMENTS for LADIES, CHILDREN, MEN and BOYS.

We will incorporate Feb. 1st, 1906, and shall henceforth pursue a very aggressive business policy. WE WANT TRADE, MORE TRADE, ALL THE TRADE if possible. Always ready to offer greater Greater Inducements than any competitor in the field can offer. NO trash of any description in our stock. We don't like to sell trash, and we know the American people well enough to know they don't want to buy trash. Hence we don't keep trash. Nothing is too good for our customers. We buy critically and nothing imperfect goes on our shelves at any price.

We are here to stay and defend our honor and future. We will serve you honestly and with intelligence. We want your business and will only offer reliable goods for it.

Benediction.
Was Fortunate.

A man named Kelly who is foreman of a track laying crew which has been working through this city recently failed to notice the approach of train 1 one day last week and had a narrow escape from being badly injured. He was busily engaged at his work and just happened to step off the track as the train reached him. The cylinder of the engine struck him and knocked him down with such force as to tear his clothing badly and shake him up considerably. He got up and walked away however apparently none the worse for his mishap.

Chas. T. Early went to Portland Wednesday morning and spent the day.

A. A. Jayne went to Portland Thursday.

C. J. Brown was a passenger on train 1, Thursday.

E. H. Hartwig made a business trip to The Dalles, Friday.

S. E. Bortness made a business trip to Portland Thursday.

Elmer Rand went to Portland Friday afternoon on train 2.

J. S. Booth went to Portland on the early morning train Monday.

H. J. Davis went to Portland Thursday morning on a business trip.

E. H. Shepard spent Friday in Portland, returning home on the evening train.

Thomas Chapman, who has been visiting in Eastern Oregon, returned Thursday.

Miss Adele Goff, a student at the state normal is at home for the holidays.

Richard Shepard, of Portland, was the guest of R. E. Laraway for several days last week.

Thomas Butler went to Mosier on Thursday morning and returned on the evening train.

A sister of Mrs. Meola Surface, Miss Lydia Burlingame, of North Yakima, is visiting in this city.

Chas. Cosgrove of Chicago was here last Friday making arrangements for the K. of P. entertainment.

Miss Helen Teal will leave her ranch for the winter and go to Portland, where she will reside until spring.

F. R. Jacobs, a brother of Mrs. H. J. Fredericks, has been spending several days in town visiting with his sister.

The green and red colored window decorations at Bragg & Co's. store, are unique and artistic and are the subject of many nice compliments.

Percy Harrell, a son of Mrs. Estrum, who has been a patient at the Dalles hospital for some time was recently recovered to return home for the winter.

George Slocom, went to Portland Friday to get what is the very latest in his line in the way of novelties and replenish his stock for the holiday trade.

The Bean Brumel of Indiana was in town the other day. We don't know what his name was or where he came from, but he was a handsome fellow and good to look upon.

L. M. Greenleaf will enter at his old home Vermillion, O., and left here recently for that point. Mr. Greenleaf will return in the spring and take up work on his ranch.

"A Girl From Sweden" will be the next attraction at the Opera House. This play will be seen here January 4th, and is to be a first class show. Tickets will be on sale as usual at Clark's drug store.

Manager Stubling of The Dalles foot ball team, dropped off the train Thursday afternoon and had a moment's chat with friends here. He was on his way to Portland to make arrangements for the visit of the team to that place.

Rev. R. H. Barnes, who has been sick for several days, but who was thought to be better, took a turn for the worse last Thursday and his illness has developed into pneumonia. While he is not critically ill, he is very seriously so, and it is hoped that he will soon recover.

We are in receipt of a communication from Capt. Edna Anderson of the Salvation Army Corps, located at The Dalles, asking for contributions of food, clothing or money to help the corps in assisting the poor and destitute during the holidays. Anything you wish to give may be left at the Hotel Waucoma.

Mamas on a shopping expedition have considerable trouble in towing their ever observant youngsters past Cran's store. One of the windows is profusely decorated with dolls and their belongings and to children, of course it appears like a doll's paradise.

Workmen are engaged in roofing the new water tank for the O. R. & N. The tank is proving a great convenience to the road and the railroad company evidently intends to make it secure from the sly stones and bricks in the hands of the mischievous small boy.

Riverside Congregational church will hold their annual dinner at the K. of P. hall, Thursday, December 28. A general invitation is extended to all members of the church and attendants upon the services. A number of visiting friends from out of town are expected to be present and respond to toasts. Report to Mrs. V. C. Brock, articles you may wish to contribute toward the fine dinner at 12:30 sharp.

At the executors' sale held at The Dalles court house Tuesday, Mrs. Roswell Shelley bought in a 15 acre tract of the late Divers estate for $21,000. Neff Brothers are the executors of the estate.

All will be welcome to the Xmas tree and entertainment at the Unitarian church Monday evening. There will be candy and nuts for the children and cake and coffee for adults. A good social time for all who will come is assured.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Carahan of Dukes Valley returned from Salem Tuesday, bringing with them their son, who has been confined in a sanitarium there for some time. Mr. Carahan is still very weak and requires assistance in getting off the train.

The ladies of the Unitarian church held a very successful sale of fancy work at the school house in the Smith building last Saturday. Their dinner and supper was also well patronized and the ladies wish to thank the business men of the city and others who made this affair a success.

The Ladies' Aid and Christian Endeavor of the First Christian church will serve a dinner and also hold a sale of aprons and fancy work, Saturday, December 23, in the brick building formerly occupied by K. B. Bragg & Co. Chicken dinner 25 cents, from 11 to 2. Everybody welcome. All come and bring your friends.

D. N. Byrlee, the local weather man has had a signal pole erected on the corner of Second and State streets and signals for forecasting the weather can be seen fluttering from its peak. The news of the forecasts are received each morning and we hope Byrlee will see to it that we are served with a little better weather than we have been having lately.

Waucoma Lodge, K. of P. will give an entertainment on January 16, under the management of Chas. Cosgrove, of Cosgrove's Orchestra, Chicago. Several years ago Mr. Cosgrove gave an entertainment here under similar conditions that is still very favorably remembered. The plan and scope of the entertainment will be announced later.

Dr. Chamberliss, physician and surgeon for the Great Northern, with headquarters at Collins was in town Friday. Dr. Chamberliss says that the Great Northern, realizing that there will be more or less accidents during the construction of the north bank railroad has equipped a hospital at Collins where those who are unfortunate enough to be hurt may receive medical attention.

Miss Stella Richardson who is known by every one who goes to the post-office, where she is a trusted employee, and a good many besides, is in the contest for the Oregon Journal's trip to the Hawaiian Islands. If you take the Journal save your coupons for Miss Richardson; if you do not take it subscribe for it and give Miss Richardson a lift. Remember that every coupon counts and save them for this deserving young lady.

If you want to buy or sell anything, rent a house, call attention to straying cattle, or have a proposition of any kind to put before the public, advertise it in the Glacier. It brings results. A recent ad. of a team of horses for sale brought ten inquiries to this office and sold the team in 24 hours after the paper was published. Another advertiser telephoned to us to take "My ad. out of the paper. I rented that farm the same day the paper came out, and am getting answers from it yet."

GRANGE ORGANIZED IN PINE GROVE DIST.

Tuesday evening a lodge of Grangers was instituted at the Pine Grove school house and is one of the largest ever organized in this state. The lodge starts out under the most auspicious circumstances, having a charter membership of 77. State Organizer Jacob Voorbes says that this is the strongest grange that he has instituted since he has been doing the work of organizing. The officers of the new lodge are as follows:

A. I. Mason, W. M.; Ed Lago, W. O.; Mrs. Mara Lago, W. L.; Joe Jarvis, W. S.; Joe Vannier, W. A. S.; Miss Arlene Winchell, W. C.; P. A. Cox, W. Treas.; Miss Mildred Mark, W. Sec.; Martin Dragseth, G. K.; Miss Lulu Hunt, Ceres; Miss Marie Pasch, Pomona; Miss Lizzie Mohr, Flora; Miss Allie Mark, L. A. S.

The new lodge will secure the vacant room at the school house and will fit it up as a lodge room. Here it will hold meetings which it will endeavor to make so interesting that all the members will make special efforts to be present. Subjects that will be timely and up-to-date in interest, interspersed with songs, recitations and a literary program, will be discussed and commented upon.

The first of these meetings will be held on Jan. 6th and the subjects for discussion will be "Rural Delivery and the Postoffice Deficit" and "What Can Each Member of a Family Do to Make a Happy Home." There will also be a literary and musical program and roll call and each member is requested to be present and answer to his name at 7:30.

Several committee meetings will be held before the time of the next regular meeting. The committee on by-laws will meet at Lee Winchell's on Dec. 27, and the committee on program at Mrs. Ben Lago's Dec. 29. On Dec. 30 an officers' drill will be held at the school house.

So much interest has been manifested in the Grange movement that Mr. Voorbes expects to return here soon and perfect the organization of one or more lodges on the west side of the valley and possibly one at Mount Hood. There are a number of residents in the valley who hold cards of membership in out of town Granges and who would like to have an organization of this kind on the west side. Mr. Voorbes made many friends while here and won the esteem of all with whom he came in contact with.

We are requested to state that "there is a meeting doing at Pine Grove."

Better Return It.
The person who carried a 14-inch pipe wrench away from the Water Company's work shop in basement of the Davidson block between noon time last Saturday and Monday at 10 o'clock, is requested to return it immediately. It was lubricated with Magic oil and will turn their fingers black to their elbows when they come into the presence of Peter, if they do not return it.

HYMENEAL.

Peugh-Blagg.

Miss Rula Blagg and Chas. Peugh were married Sunday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, near this city. The wedding was a very quiet affair, only the near relatives of the contracting parties being present.

Rev. W. A. Elkins performed the ceremony, the bride being attired in a dark navy blue traveling suit with a white silk shirt waist. After the bride and groom had received the congratulations of their friends and relatives a wedding supper was served.

They were then driven to the railroad station in this city where they were met by a party of young friends who made merry until train 4 arrived, by showering them with rice and playing pranks that only newly married people are subjected to.

Mr. and Mrs. Peugh then boarded the train for London, near which they will make their future home on a wheat ranch owned by the groom.

The bride is a daughter of F. H. Blagg and is but recently graduated from the High School, and the groom is a son of Wm. Peugh, both well known gentlemen in this city.

Beside the father of the groom and the immediate family of Miss Blagg, those present were: Miss Cora Peugh, Miss Nettie Peugh, Miss Ella Rood, and Garland Holloway.

ERHEK-HULL.

W. G. Erhek, son of Wm. Erhek, of near this city, and Miss Mae Hull, teacher at the Odell school, were married last Sunday by the Rev. Troy Shelley. The wedding was a very quiet one, only the relatives of the groom and a few friends of the bride being present. Mrs. Erhek's home is in Kansas, and after the ceremony and supper which followed, they came to this city and took train 6 for the land of the sunflower, where they will visit for a time.

The many friends of the newly wedded pair were not to be denied a peep at them, and assembled at the railroad station and pelted them with rice and wished them good-bys and good luck.

Ira Alcorn, proprietor of the City Market, made a business trip to Portland Monday.

George Harren, representing the Armour Refrigerator car lines, was a visitor at Hood River Tuesday.

Dr. M. A. Jones will spend Christmas week in Seattle. During his absence Dr. W. S. Murray will look after theaching molars of his patients.

A. R. Upreight, right of way man for the Northern Pacific, was a caller at this office Tuesday. Mr. Upreight reports that nearly all the right of way for the new road has been secured, and he expects the deals still on will soon be closed up.

The masquerade dance to be given by Prof. and Mrs. Holst in the opera house to-morrow night is attracting a good deal of attention and many have signified their intention of taking it in. The professor has just pulled off a very successful dance at The Dalles and expects the one to be given here will please those who attend.
