PROGRAM FOR FRUIT GROWERS MEETING

1. In another column we publish an article headed, "Horticulturists Will Meet Here" and as we were never known to handle the truth economically so they will. When this article was written however, no definite arrangements or program had been prepared. Since then a meeting of the local fruit growers has been held and the matters provided for and the meeting will be held in the K. of P. hall, Saturday, February 10, at 10 a. m. to 12 m., and in the afternoon from 1 to 3 p. m. The Hon. E. L. Smith will preside and create action and enthusiasm. All the local growers who attended the recent fruit growers' convention at La Grande and Portland will be in attendance.
The following growers are expected to give talks of five minutes on the subjects assigned and a general discussion will follow each subject:
1. Strawberry Culture Versus Apple Culture—T. A. McCurdy.
2. Raspberry and Blackberry Culture—F. G. Chuch.
3. Our Future for Cherries—G. D. Woodworth.
4. Cold Storage—H. F. Davidson.
5. Our Exhibit at the Lewis and Clark Exposition and the Benefits of Hood River Exhibits in General—G. R. Castner.
6. Does it Pay to Topgraft Trees Over Four Years Old, and the Best Method of Topgrafting and Budding Com'ard—A. L. Mason.
7. How Should an Orchard be Planted, on Hexagonal or Square, and How Far Apart?—Peter Mohr.
8. Pruning—D. H. Sears.
9. Cultivation—Frank Stanton.
10. Care Necessary in Buying in Nursery Stock—H. T. Galligan.
11. What Varieties are Necessary to Plant in Addition to Spitzenbergs and Newtowns from a Commercial Point of View—E. A. Franz.
12. Picking, Packing, Handling, Sorting and Grading Apples—Sam Campbell.
13. Observations on Our Pack and Suggestions—F. W. Angus.
14. The Benefit and Need of Co-operation of Fruit Growers—C. H. Sprout.
15. Power for Spraying—C. K. Marshall.
16. Observations on Apollination—J. T. Porter.
17. Cider Making by Pure Culture and What to Do With Our By Product—Ray Brock.
18. The Care Necessary and Best Methods of Setting Trees and Plants—E. N. Benson.
19. What I Learned About Spraying for Codlin Moth at the Convention—G. R. Castner.
20. Anthracnose, How to Recognize and Treat the Disease—G. R. Castner.
21. San Jose Scale, How to Recognize and Treat the Disease—Tom Calkins.
22. Fungus, How to Recognize and Treat the Disease—J. L. Carter.
23. Thinning—B. R. Tucker.
24. The Benefits of Fertilizing, What and How to Apply—Chris Dethman.
The meeting is called at the earnest request of a great many fruit growers and others in the valley and we quote the words of one of the enthusiastic growers who say:

"Let us all get together, help each other, tell each other all we know and learn as much as possible. Go home and profit by what we have learned and strive in every way to improve. We are on the top of the heap; let us do all we can not only to stay there, but try and climb the ladder to greater fame, higher prices and better results. Come one, come all!"

OBITUARY.

Mrs. A. E. Wells.
Mrs. A. E. Wells, of Pine Grove, died early yesterday morning of stomach trouble, from which she had been ailing for about two weeks. Mrs. Wells is very well known in this city and is survived by her husband and two children.
The funeral will be held today from the late residence of the deceased at 11 o'clock and the arrangements are in the hands of E. T. Hartman. Rev. Mr. Rigby will conduct the services.

A New Shakespeare Club.

A meeting called at the Congressional church for the purpose of forming a Shakespeare club resulted in the appointment of a committee to draw up by-laws and a constitution. At a second meeting held at the home of Rev. W. C. Gilmore later, the by-laws and constitution were accepted. The name chosen by the committee for the club is the Cascade Literary Circle, and the following are its officers:
President—Prof. Wiley.
Secretary—Miss Hoadley.
Treasurer—Miss Herzner.
First Literary Director—Mr. Hall-Lewis.
Second Literary Director—Mrs. Jenks.
Third Literary Director—Mrs. Chipping.
After the business meeting was over a pleasant hour was passed reading "The Merchant of Venice," which will be continued at the next meeting. While the study of Shakespeare will be the main purpose of the club it was decided to have a varied program often enough to avoid monotony. The membership of the club will be limited to thirty, about 20 names having already been handed in. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. J. E. Nichols Friday evening, February 2.

Fine Showing for Gold Run Mine.

S. H. Cox, Manager of the Gold Run Mine came in from the mine last Friday and reports that the water wheel, hoisting machine and pumping outfit is in place and in operation and that apparatus is working in good shape. Since Mr. Cox's arrival here he has received word that the mine has been shot and that the results have exceeded all expectations. One not dialogued about eight feet of ore that is said to be of the finest quality and another one was equally as good. Manager Cox naturally feels very much elated.

Exhibiting Apples.

A. D. Moe of Hood River is exhibiting a box of apples grown in Hood River, which are pronounced to be the best ever. Mr. Moe is one of the boosters of Hood River and on every occasion that presents itself, Mr. Moe is for Hood River and Hood River valley.—Grand Forks (N. D.) Press.

Born.

At Frankton, January 19, 1906, to Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Stokes, a son.
