

NEW GOODS

YES, BUSTER BROWN AND TIGER ARE GOING TO CAMP ON THIS PAGE, AND TELL YOU ALL ABOUT THE GOODS WE CARRY. EACH WEEK THEY WILL DO SOMETHING NEW. WE ARE PLEASED TO ANNOUNCE THAT MR. R. F. OUTCAULT, WHO NOW EARN'S WITH HIS PEN MORE THAN TWICE AS MUCH AS OUR NATION PAYS ITS PRESIDENT, WILL MAKE A FRESH DRAWING EACH WEEK EXCLUSIVELY FOR US IN OUR CITY. WE GOT THIS ATTRACTIVE FEATURE AT NO SMALL EXPENSE. BUT WE APPRECIATE OUR PATRONS, AND SHALL TRY TO SERVE THEM WELL IN EVERY WAY. THE MERCHANT WHO DOES NOT CONSIDER EVERY ONE WHO BUYS GOODS AT HIS STORE AS A PARTNER IN HIS BUSINESS—WHO DOES NOT GIVE HIS CUSTOMER A SQUARE, FAIR DEAL—WILL NOT LAST LONG. PROSPERITY FOLLOWS THE SQUARE DEAL. LITTLE BUSTER BROWN AND TIGER BELIEVE IN THE SQUARE DEAL. WE INVITE YOU TO READ EACH WEEK WHAT THEY SAY ABOUT OUR BUSINESS.

RESPECTFULLY,
FRANK A. CRAM.

E. C. Miller of Mount Hood has just finished inspecting 100,000 ties at Troutdale and vicinity for the Denver & Rio Grande. These were hauled from the mountains from eight to eleven miles. He will inspect 25,000 more for the same company at the Oregon Lumber Co. and Stanley-Smith Co. mills in Hood River as soon as they can get them out.

P. M. Hall-Lewis has purchased twenty acres of the Oregon Lumber Co. near their new mill at Dee, and will clear the same this summer, to be ready to set out to trees in the fall.

Mrs. John Cowley fell on the back porch of her residence opposite the post office, Sunday, and received a bad shaking up, but while confined to the bed for a few days, no serious results are anticipated.

Frank Stanton, who has been under the care of a specialist in Portland, being treated for an abscess which is thought to be forming in his head, came back to Hood River Friday evening to attend to business matters for a few days.

The building being moved off the Odd Fellows' corner, occupied by the Paris Fair, to make room for the new brick building, has been purchased by N. J. Devold, who will move it on to his property just south of the hotel and fit it up for hotel purposes.

Miss Eva Nickelson, who was operated upon for appendicitis at St. Vincent's Hospital about a month ago, was a few days ago moved from there to her grandparents' home on the east side where she will remain for some time under the doctor's care before returning home.

J. E. Keefe, editor of the Ortonville, Minn., Journal, was a caller at the Glacier office last week. Mr. Keefe was visiting O. L. Stranahan, a distinctive, and likes the country so well that he contemplated locating somewhere on the coast in the near future.

Farmers are getting ready for spring work and the merchants report larger sales of machinery and farm tools than ever before. Many new places are being cleared up, new machinery and new outfits, while many Easterners are coming into the valley and fitting out with new supplies of all kinds.

Surveyors were at work near the railroad bridge of the O. R. & N. the first of the week. It is said that the company will put in a new steel bridge sixty or eighty feet north of the old bridge, thus eliminating much of the curve now existing in both the bridge and the track. There are now three curves in the track within a mile east of the depot, which are quite a hindrance to the running of trains.

Chris Gulr of Guler, Wash., who runs the hotel at Trout Lake, was in town Monday, and said that the snow is going off very fast in the upper Mt. Adams country. There is about 18 inches on the level, but the roads are becoming bare, and spring is not far off. The new electric line has been surveyed up to the lake, and when built will be a great benefit to that country. It will be especially beneficial to summer travel, as well as to the farmers along the route. Mr. Gulr left for Portland on No. 1.

Build Reservoir and Filter Water.

The Hood River Electric Light, Water & Power Co., are making arrangements to build a reservoir at the spring which will hold 250,000 gallons, and will put in a filter that will thoroughly cleanse the water of any impurities before it goes into the pipes. They will also take in the small spring, increasing the supply. This will be a good improvement that will be appreciated by the water consumers.

Avoids the Chinese Boycott.

The Hood River Milling Co. have just shipped 4,000 sacks of flour to China. They have been making regular shipments both to China and Japan, and have sacks lettered and branded in the character peculiar to that country. On account of the boycott in China on American goods, they have had to get special sacks made to imitate the Australian sacks, with different brands, in order to avoid trouble and fool the heathen Chinese.

Will Improve His Ranch.

J. S. Pinney, formerly manager of the Portland branch of the American Type Founders Co., but now with the same company in New York City, is in Portland and will come up to Hood River the last of the week. Mr. Pinney bought twenty acres of fine orchard land of E. L. Smith two years ago near the Watt orchard, and he intends to clear the land this spring and set it out to orchard. Mr. Pinney expects to make Hood River his future home, and will build a fine residence on the property after the trees get two or three years start. Mr. Pinney says that he has not seen any country he likes as well as Hood River, and has no desire or intention of remaining very long in the East.

Probably Fatal Accident.

Yesterday afternoon little Blanche Woodman was frightened by an approaching train on a trestle near the Butten farm and was probably fatally injured.

Mrs. Faith Lott was walking along the trestle with a number of small children when No. 1 came along. She managed to get all the children down on the end of the piers off the track except Blanche Woodman, who ran from Mrs. Lott and jumped to the ground. She was seen by the carrier of the train, who got off and carried her to the depot, where medical aid was summoned and she was afterwards taken to her home. She had several bad cuts about the head and face, and seemed to be internally injured. At last reports she was in a very precarious condition.

Stranahan & Bagley have just unloaded a carload of Utah land plaster, and will have in a car a week during the season.
