

GRAM'S CARNIVAL TO BE CONTINUED THROUGH JUNE

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED THAT Cram's Strawberry Carnival Is so popular that we, the people, request that it be Continued Through June

So we can get action on our strawberry money while you are selling good, reliable wearing apparel so cheap. We got almost two dollars worth for one at your Carnival Sale, and your goods are not the cheap trashy racket store kind represented "Just as Good"

CARNIVAL PRICES ALL THROUGH JUNE Frank A. Cram

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

Mr. Bartmess is on a cash basis. Hunt carries a line of paints. Fresh Olympia and Eastern oysters at the Gem Candy Kitchen. See that dandy line of Folders at the Deitz Studio. All the latest styles Photos at the Deitz Studio. Place your order for a nice chicken for your Sunday dinner with McGuire Bros. Clarke will make it easy for you to buy a diamond. Consult him about it. Cranberries at McDonald's. Maple Syrup and New York State Buck Wheat at Jackson's. Be wise and get your Photos at the Deitz Studio. Watch Clarke's watches go. Fresh Columbia river salmon at McGuire Bros. Father time has left some good time pieces at Clarke's. Begin the new year with a clock that keeps perfect time. Just received at McDonald's, half ton clover seed. Something new—Puffed Rice Candy, at the Gem Candy Kitchen. Three pounds halibut 25c at McGuire Brothers. The Gem Candy Kitchen makes fresh candy every day. McGuire Bros. make their own leaf lard under their own brand. For sale by Emporium. Fifteen acres two miles south west of Hood River, 10 acres in cultivation, mostly orchard, fine land, $500 per acre. Come to the Deitz Studio for first class Photos. Don't put it off, but get your photos now at the Deitz Studio. Tent poles made to order. F. G. Coe. Lettuce, cabbage, rhubarb, asparagus at McGuire Bros. If you want cracked corn for chicken feed go to McDonald. How about screening that porch in F. G. Coe can do it to suit you. Fresh fish—halibut, salmon and smelts, at McGuire Bros. Do you need a carpenter to do that odd job? Call up F. G. Coe, phone 571. Newest, best fishing tackle at McDonald's. For rent by Emporium. Nice furnished room for gentleman. $10 per month. For sale by Emporium. Ten room cottage and lot, seven blocks from depot, Hood River. Newly repaired, new floor, wood fibre plaster, newly painted, patent bath and toilet connected with sewer, good location. $1000 cash. If you want to buy or sell real estate go to Outback & Otten. Money to loan on first mortgages. Abstracts and legal papers carefully prepared. Notarial work of all kinds. Fresh creamery butter and newly laid Hood River eggs at McGuire's. "Aren't they fine," the popular verdict of the Deitz Photos. It is to your interest to refer to Mr. Bartmess' ad under the new system. Fresh White Salmon asparagus at McGuire Bros. People are coming from Hood River's suburban towns to purchase pianos at Charlie's Piano House in this city. Charles Hayward of The Dalles came down Monday and selected a beautiful Strohber for his new home.

Reduction in Flour and Feed. Special cash price on Flour and Feed at warehouse. Bran $14 per ton; shorts, $18 per ton; flour, $4 per barrel. D. McDonald.

If you want always to look on the bright side of life, come and let Clarke fit your eyes to a pair of glasses. His apparatus for testing eyes is of the best and most complete.

Salt mackerel, eastern white fish and pickled salmon at Jackson's.

If you are looking for a nice little home cheap, call on Onthank & Otten. They have just the thing.

Fresh fish at McGuire Bros. Tuesdays, Thursdays and Fridays.

Just received from the east, a half ton of pure maple sugar and syrup at Jackson's.

Fresh rhubarb, lettuce, green onions and cabbage, at McGuire Bros.

McGuire Bros. are making country deliveries of meat on the east side of Hood river, Tuesdays and Thursdays. Country customers desiring orders filled should telephone their orders Mondays and Wednesdays.

For sale by Emporium. Five farms in one body, 320 acres, 5 improvements cleared land with each, 7 miles from White Salmon on Goldendale road, plenty of water, $30 per acre. Can be sold in separate tracts for 30 days only. Terms easy.

A reduction of 15 to 25 per cent in wall paper for 30 days, at Hunt's.

Olives in bulk, bottles and cans at Jackson's.

Special sale of 1000 rolls of wall paper at Hunt's.

New Orleans Molasses in bulk and cans at Jackson's.

Money saved by buying your flour and feed from McDonald.

All kinds of timepieces at Clarke's. Come and look at some of them.

If your house office or furniture needs repair, call up Dodge Bros. & Reid, phone 651.

A torpid, inactive liver can produce more bodily ills than almost anything else. It is good to clean the system out occasionally. The best results are derived from the use of DeWitt's Little Early Risers. Reliable, effective, pleasant pills with a reputation. Never gripe. Sold by Williams' Pharmacy.

Notice to Water Consumers. Water for irrigation, by sprinkling only, will be furnished to consumers living on the South sides of streets running East and West from 6:00 to 9:30 A. M. and to those living on the North sides of the streets from 5:00 to 8:00 P. M.

LIGHT AND WATER CO.

Senator C. W. Merritt, of San Francisco, is visiting F. T. Miner and family. Mr. Merritt was one of the earthquake sufferers at Berkeley, and is spending a few weeks in Oregon resting from the shock.

I. K. Levy, head of the dry goods department in Cram's store, left for Portland yesterday afternoon to visit over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. P. Crowell went to Portland on the boat Thursday afternoon, returning Saturday.

Complaint is made that some one is lamping with the rural mail left in the boxes in Dukes Valley. In one instance vulgar sentences were written on letters. It is a crime to meddle with mail boxes, and if caught, the offenders will be prosecuted.

W. S. Gribble moved his family back to Mt. Hood last week.

A grand fourth of July celebration is being arranged by the Artisans at Mt. Hood.

Miss Yale, of Boston, arrived yesterday from San Francisco to visit her aunt, Mrs. T. J. Cunningham. Miss Yale arrived in San Francisco the day of the earthquake and suffered some loss, but was uninjured.

Judge Henderson is so badly torn up with his house repairing that he doesn't know whether he is afoot or horseback. His family is out camping, and he spent several nights of the week holding the house up against the wind.

Mrs. Greenbury McElfresh, of Illinois visited her nephew, Wm. Yates, and family, for a few days. She had been visiting her son, Fred McElfresh, at Salem, and came from there, accompanied by her son's wife, who attended the commencement exercises at Wasco.

Mr. and Mrs. A. I. Mason returned from Salem the first of the week, where they attended the meeting of the state Grange as delegates from Pine Grove. Mr. Mason says that they secured the next convention for Hood River, and found but little opposition.

Memorial Day passed off quietly yesterday, there being no exercises except the march of Canby Post and the decoration of the graves, followed by an address by Rev. W. C. Gilmore. The strewing of flowers upon the waters was omitted this year.

The telephone poles on the new Mt. Hood line have been set from Gribble's to the Booth hill and are coming this way as fast as possible. Help has been scarce, and this has delayed the work they hope to complete the setting of poles at least before harvest time.

Mrs. P. S. Spang received a letter Monday from Mr. Spangler, who arrived at the soldiers' home in Oregon feeling better than when he started on the trip. He likes his new quarters and has donated Uncle Sam's uniform once more and feels at home in it.

Some one maliciously cut the hose on two spray pumps belonging to J. R. Nickelsen, Monday night, which he has standing outside his implement warehouse. The deed was a piece of vandalism that deserves to be punished to the full extent of the law, if the miscreant is caught.

C. A. Dano and wife came back from Bend, Ore., Saturday, after a month spent in that section of the state, going as far south as Klamath. Mr. Dano says that they experienced a snow storm of six inches on the level, and ice formed in places that would bear their weight. He says that he was glad to get back to Hood River.

R. H. Weber was down from the Dalles the latter part of the week, and says that some orchards are showing the effects of the March freeze, by some of the apples failing to set. The Dalles suffered more than Hood River, especially peaches and cherries. The trees seem to be affected in spots some orchards showing no effects whatever, and others reporting a partial setting of fruit. The Spitzbergers seem to have suffered little or not at all, the most damage being to Newtowns. In most cases the trees are simply thinned, and will do no harm.

Ira Alcorn spent Saturday in Portland.

Rev. W. A. Wood preached at Mosier Sunday.

Geo. P. Crowell went to Portland Thursday.

H. J. Hibbard had business in The Dalles Monday.

Truman Butler spent Sunday at Collins hot springs.

J. M. Howell had business in The Dalles Thursday.

Ralph Savage took in Portland the latter part of the week.

John Leland Henderson had business in Viento Thursday.

Miss Nettie Buck visited Mrs. Cole at Menominee the last of the week.

A. T. Dodge, of Dukes Valley, has gone to Bend, Ore., for the summer.

Newton Clark, of Portland, called on old Hood River friends Saturday.

H. M. Huxley is back with the Davidson Fruit Co. during the berry season.

Myron Smith, the Underwood merchant, spent Sunday at Cascade Locks.

P. S. Davidson, jr., returned from a trip to Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, Friday evening.

James A. Roberts, of Portland, visited his sister, Mrs. Glen Fabrick, last week.

Mrs. C. C. Clark, of Portland, arrived Thursday on a visit to her sister, Mrs. F. Slavens.

Thos. Calkins took in the "Made in Oregon" exhibition at Portland Friday and Saturday.

G. J. Gessling was in Portland Tuesday on business connected with the Hood River mill.

John Leland Henderson reports the sale of five acres from Frank Gregory to S. H. Coe for $1,550.

Mrs. J. C. Sutton, of Salem, arrived on train Tuesday to visit her daughter, Mrs. W. D. Rogers.

Mrs. W. B. Price, who has been visiting relatives here for weeks, returned to Portland Saturday.

Mrs. P. S. Jangler, who has been in poor health for some time is rapidly improving and will make the trip Friday and Saturday.

Hon. A. A. Jayne went to Collins Monday on the Spencer for a few days' recuperation at the hot springs.

Mrs. H. L. Dumble left for Portland Friday afternoon for a few days' visit with friends and relatives.

Leaton N. Kelsay, editor of the Shanks Republican, passed through Hood River Monday on No. 7 on his way to Portland.

A special excursion of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen passed through here Sunday on the way to The Dalles.

Ira Alcorn has opened his meat market again, this time as manager for A. S. Bent an engineer on the Mt. Hood Railroad.

E. M. Rand, of Vancouver, Wash., was in town Friday. Mr. Rand is buying rights-of-way for the opposition north bank road.

B. F. Taylor, of Pomona, Cal., who is spending a few weeks in Hood River, bought some White Salmon townsite property last week.

Mrs. Gilmore and family returned from Portland Monday, returned from Portland Monday, where she has been visiting friends.

H. M. Abbott visited his Mosier ranch the first of the week, and says that his fruit trees are all looking well, and not apparently hurt by the March freeze.

Mrs. Gamble, who has been spending a couple of weeks with her father, D. L. Stone, on his ranch near Lost Lake, left for Boise, Idaho, Monday.

S. F. Blythe and C. L. Copple went to The Dalles Tuesday on political business. Mr. Blythe also spent a few days in the southern end of the county.

John Rumford, manager of the Compressed Yeast, at Portland, was in Hood River last week, where he finished proving upon his claim in the upper valley.

Prof. and Mrs. W. L. Wiley attended the commencement exercises in The Dalles Friday. Mr. Wiley also made a flying trip to Portland Thursday afternoon.

Geo. I. Prather has had a new sign board painted, which will be placed at the forks of the road at Tucker's, giving the distances to Prather's ranch, Winans, Dee, and Lost Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Barnes arrived Thursday from France, Wash., where Mr. Barnes has been teaching school. They will visit friends in the city for a few weeks.

Mr. Coon and family have gone to Hood River from Lyle and T. E. Dean and family will go in a few days to work at strawberry picking and packing—Goldendale Sentinel.

Mrs. Katherine Hoyt came up Thursday to visit her father, H. C. Coe. Mr. Coe intends to move out to his ranch again, on Jericho Lane, his reuters having left the place.

Ralph Savage made a trip to Portland last week.

Mrs. Benjamin was a passenger on No. 2 for The Dalles Tuesday.

J. W. S. Owens, of Golden, Colo., is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Chas. F. Terry.

Miss Ethel Woodworth, of Nevada, is visiting relatives and friends in Hood River.

Guy Weeks, of Belding, Mich., visited friends in the valley last week, leaving for Portland Friday.

Pres. W. N. Ferrin, of the Pacific University at Forest Grove had business in Hood River Friday.

J. P. Applin has resigned his position in the Hood River Milling Co. and gone to Portland. Wm. Eidt is now head miller.

The rains have helped gardens, fruit trees and everything except strawberries that are ripening, and on the whole done much good.

Mrs. Pierce and Geary and Mr. and Mrs. Goldman, of Portland spent Sunday looking over the valley, also taking in Mosier and White Salmon.

Fred Shoemaker, of Pendleton, spent Sunday with his wife, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Gilbert, of the Mt. Hood hotel, for several weeks.

Miss N. B. Ahrens, of Portland, spent Sunday with her brother, Harry H. Ahrens, at Husum, where he has a ranch adjoining that of O. R. Ball, of the American Type Foundry.

The average price received by the growers last year was between $2.75 and $3 per crate. It is believed that the latter figure will be the average price paid to the growers of this year.

Ralph Reed and J. C. Cleary went to The Dalles Tuesday. Mr. Cleary reports that his wife, who was taken to a Portland hospital a couple of weeks ago, is much improved and is visiting at The Dalles.

F. Rosiger, of Portland, has entered into a partnership with A. Guillard and they will buy canning berries for the Holmes Canning Co. of Portland. H. C. Holmes, of that company, was in Hood River Saturday.

A. Bennett and J. S. Davenport, of The Dalles, were down Collins Friday and Saturday, taking a trip out in the valley while here. They will start their new paper, the Optimist, about the middle of next month.

Mrs. Warner had been offered $8000 by the railroad people in settlement of her claim, and this is the first consideration paid her since the verdict exceeded the amount previously offered in settlement.

Services at the Unitarian church every Sunday at 11 a. m., J. A. Balridge, minister. Topic for next Sunday, "Devotion to an Ideal." All who desire in freedom of thought and service are cordially invited. Strangers in the city will be made welcome.

Among those who left for Hood River for the berry season, were: Mrs. Louie Shafer, Mrs. Antone Sifer, Mrs. Kruse and family, Mrs. Grace Thompson, A. Jorgensen and family, Mrs. F. O. Conledge and family, and John Zoller's family, Miss Mulo and two brothers.—Genvalis Star.

O. R. Ball, manager of the American Type Founders Co., at Portland, dropped off at Hood River, Thursday on his way back from Boise, Idaho, and Eastern Oregon. Mr. Ball spent a few hours in town and then went up to Husum, where he has a new ranch which he is developing.

Rev. W. C. Gilmore went to Forest Grove last week, where he attended the Pacific University at Forest Grove, the visiting committee. He reports the departments of the university in a flourishing condition and doing good work. The secretary's books show an endowment fund of $201,000, which entitles them to the Carnegie fund.

Geo. T. Prather shipped the household goods of O. D. Rea to Eshon, Kansas, Monday. Mr. Rea writes that he has had to go back to the Kansas City specialists again for treatment. Mr. Rea was compelled to leave Hood River last summer on account of his health, being a sufferer from cancer.

The Deitz studio was burglarized Monday night. The upper sash of a window in the rear was broken, and then the thief reached through, loosened the catch fastening and gained entrance. Mr. Reitz missed 75 cents from the till, a camera lens and a key screen. The lens did not happen to be a very expensive one, and the total loss was not great. There is no clue to the robber.

A new cement walk in front of the Odd Fellows block has just been completed, and it is the best cement walk that has been built here. It is built in an arch shape, forms being made of corrugated iron, and two openings for light are made by embedding round glass in an iron support in the walk. The walk is built solid to the front wall and rests on a brick foundation, so that it will be water tight. A similar walk will be built on the fourth street side of the building.

GOOD STATIONERY

Goes a long way toward making a poorly written letter look well.

We are showing a line of the

VERY BEST STATIONERY

in boxes, tablets, and bulk. Envelopes in all shapes and colors.

SLOCOM'S

Are You Patriotic?

If so patronize Home Industry. Use Hood River Flour and Feed. Come right down to the mill and get your Feed fresh and see how much farther it will go

Hood River Milling Co.

O. L. Rich, of Wasco, spent a couple of days in Hood River the first of the week.

Mrs. Donald Skeene, of Portland, is visiting her father, Donald Mackay, in the valley.

L. H. Nichols, who has been rusticated in the mountains in the southern part of Wasco county for two months past, returned home Monday.

Rev. J. W. Mayes and family came in from Bickleton, Wash., Monday, to visit relatives and friends. Mr. Mayes will go back today, but Mrs. Mayes will stay for a few weeks.

The Rt. Rev. Lemuel H. Wells, Bishop of Spokane, will preach in St. Mark's Episcopal church next Sunday evening at 7:30 p. m. The public are cordially invited.

Riverside Congregational, W. C. Gilmore, pastor. Sunday school 10 a. m.; worship and preaching, 11; subject, "Approaching the ballot box." C. E. T.; evening worship, 7:45.

Miss Eva Nicklason, of Portland, is visiting her sister, Mrs. H. J. Fredrick. C. W. Mott, of St. Paul, Minn., general emigration agent of the Northern Pacific, arrived Thursday on a visit with Oscar Vanderbilt.

The handsomest baby in Oregon or Washington. Whose is it? That is the Sunday Journal—which continues to be the best Sunday paper on the coast—wants to find out; and it is offering valuable awards in its efforts to do so. This week's Sunday Journal has the details. Write to The Journal, Portland, Oregon, for a free copy.

A good complexion is impossible with the stomach out of order. If pasty sallow people would pay more attention to their stomachs and less to the skin on their faces, they would have better complexions. KODOL FOR DYSPEPSIA will digest what you eat and put your stomach back in right shape to do its own work. Kodol relieves palpitation of the heart, flatulence, sour stomach, heart burn, etc. Sold by Williams' Pharmacy.

Why take a dozen things to cure that cough? Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar allays the congestion, stops that tickling, drives the cold out through your bowels. Sold by Williams' Pharmacy.

Mrs. John Evans, of Ruthton, who has been seriously ill, is convalescent.

Louis Burkhardt, of Mt. Hood, was a passenger on the local to Portland yesterday.

J. H. Hellbrunner went to Portland on a business trip yesterday afternoon.

Ed Felts, of Winona, Kan., stopped off yesterday on his way to Portland to visit L. E. Morse.

County Judge Lake, Clerk Bolton and Treasurer Donnell were down from The Dalles Tuesday.

Michael T. Nolan, register of the land office at The Dalles, was a passenger on train 7 yesterday.

Bishop N. Castle will hold the fourth quarterly meeting of the U. B. church June 2 and 3. The bishop will preach morning and evening, June 3.

Mrs. Laura Houghkirk, of Ranier, Ore., was the guest of Rev. J. L. Hershner and family last week. Mrs. Houghkirk is Grand Chief of the Rathbone Sisters of the state grand lodge.

Mrs. Belle Hall, daughter of R. F. Bellin, who was dangerously ill in the Cottage Hospital here a month ago, but subsequently partially recovered from the attack of typhoid fever, and went to Portland, is again very sick. She gave birth to a daughter recently.

E. V. Schiller was quite badly hurt Thursday at Hammond & Swan's sawmill at White Salmon. While working thereabout on the carriage, it struck a clip block, knocking him off. He struck his head on a timber and received a very severe bruise. The skull was not fractured, and he is not dangerously hurt, but will be laid up for awhile. This is the fourth time he has been hurt in the same mill in the last two months. He is a brother of E. A. Schiller, of Hood River.

GET IN THE HABIT OF TRADING AT Booth's THE BIG STORE WITH LITTLE PRICES

Glassware. If you want something new and pretty for your table, we've got it. Pretty patterns. Little Prices.	Stoneware. Jars, crocks, churns, bean-pots, etc., here at Little Prices.	Infants' Wear. Everything your baby needs from stockings to bonnet at Little Prices.
Tinware. We sell seeds and dummies of tinware because we keep what you can't find elsewhere and ours are Little Prices.	Silverware. The good wearing kind that is pretty and yet not fancy priced. All sorts of articles at Little Prices.	Children's Wear. Aprons, washable suit, waists, summer caps, etc., at Little Prices.
Woodenware. If it's made of wood you can find it here. Almost everything imaginable in this line at Little Prices.	Hardware. You don't know the thousand and one things we keep in this line that you can buy here at Little Prices.	Ladies' Wear. Summer underwear and hosiery are two strong features with us at Little Prices.
Ironware. Useful articles for kitchen use, things that last almost a lifetime at Little Prices.	Queenware. Plain centered patterns in all sorts of table dishes here at Little Prices.	Men's Wear. For the warm days to come our light undershirts put them all in the shade with our Little Prices.

Our trade tickets have a distant value over any others for the simple reason that they are worth more. We give $2 worth of tickets that you have to give the other fellow $10 worth for. That's something, isn't it?

We're We Shine