

CORRESPONDENCE.

BARRETT.

E. A. Watts returned to Portland on Wednesday last after spending several weeks with his uncle, Brayford at the Rockford store.

The writer paid a visit to the home of F. W. Angus and found Frank flat on his back in bed, but bright and cheerful and expects to be up and around again pretty soon.

We made a trip to the Green Point mill and logging camp last week and found men very busy building more flume, as it is the intention of the company to extend the log flume a few miles.

Of course the lumber would not be very dry. Mark Davenport is quite an expert at building flumes and getting logs to the mill at a very small cost per thousand.

Ralph Jarvis was a caller at the Rockford last Friday.

"Say, Brayford, my mule is feeling pretty poor, I think he must have the heb. What have you got that will fix him up?"

It does not take a very small man to be little, for some are very small in their actions.

ODELL.

One of the prettiest of home weddings was that which occurred Sunday, June 24, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Lafferty, when their daughter, Edith, and Edwin Anders were united in marriage.

The bride was attired in a beautiful dress of white cloth, woven from pineapple fiber, made over white silk, a gift from the bride's brother, who resides in the Philippines.

The new church organ has been ordered and may arrive in time for the services Sunday. Miss Henderson has been down to Portland several days and purchased the instrument on the recommendation of the organist of the Taylor M. E. church.

F. W. Halsager has been very busy this week taking the census of the school children of this district, he being the school clerk.

made many friends while here and who congratulate him. The young couple expect to remain here a short time before going to Chicago.

Sunday, June 24, most of those who were at Sunday school took their baskets and went to the home of Troy Shelley, where a basket meeting was held.

Many of the people of Odell went to Mt. Hood Sunday to see the ball game and for a day's outing. The ball game resulted in a score of 6 to 3 in favor of Mt. Hood.

Margie Crockett has been very sick but is thought to be improving. We hope she may soon recover.

WHITE SALMON.

Miss Helie Wolfard departed Saturday for Vancouver where she will visit for a short time among friends.

R. Field has received the appointment to the office of justice of the peace of White Salmon precinct and yesterday duly qualified and entered upon the duties of the office.

Miss Grace M. Cook, of Honolulu, Hawaiian Islands, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Lewis.

The White Salmon Valley Bank will get into their new building in about another week. They will have an attractive and substantial home in the handsome concrete building they have erected.

George Purser is working up quite a business in the concrete chimney business, but he is handicapped, in common with all concrete industries on the coast, by a shortage of the supply of cement.

Fred Peck is putting up a neat residence on the south side of that part of Jewett avenue which extends into the Lauterbach place.

Two neat new cottages are being erected at the Jewett home. One is a seven room building of native stone with bath, fire place and all the modern improvements.

The new church organ has been ordered and may arrive in time for the services Sunday.

On Thursday of last week Mrs. Elmer Root escaped what might have resulted in a very serious accident.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Stewart and Master Will visited Hood River on Monday. They were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Will Rowland.

by people without children. But for this the face census would show a large increase.

People out at the saw mill have organized a Sunday school which is held every Sunday at 10 a. m. in the Grosbeak school house.

A. H. Jewett has been having a streak of bad luck with his horses lately, which, if it keeps up very long will leave him without a team.

MOSIER.

Rev. Kolb, of Hood River, who is of the Lutheran faith, delivered a well received sermon in the Baptist church on Sunday morning.

J. N. Denney has sold his land lying along Mosier Creek, one mile from town, for the tidy sum of $1,200.

Mr. Will Stenerson was a passenger on Wednesday's train for Hood River.

Mr. and Mrs. E. U. Phillips came up from Portland on Monday of last week. Mr. Phillips returned on Saturday, leaving Mrs. Phillips and children to spend the summer with her sister, Miss D. Mosier.

Mr. M. Craft disposed of a portion of his land lying about a mile east of town, for $125 per acre.

Mrs. Belle Booth and daughters, of Walla Walla, have moved to Mosier. Mrs. Booth has assumed the management of the Mosier Trading Co. mercantile business, of which she is proprietress.

There is little doubt but that Mosier will soon be supplied with a complete telephone system.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. McGregor left for Portland last week. Mrs. McGregor expects to be absent for a few weeks.

Misses Edna Root, Agnes and Irma Phillips were visitors in The Dalles last Wednesday.

The Methodist Sunday school picnic, which was given on Friday was a pleasant occasion to both old and young.

On Thursday of last week Mrs. Elmer Root escaped what might have resulted in a very serious accident.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Stewart and Master Will visited Hood River on Monday. They were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Will Rowland.

Ayer's

Do you like your thin, rough, short hair? Of course you don't. Do you like thick, heavy, smooth hair? Of course you do. Then why not be pleased? Ayer's Hair Vigor makes beautiful heads of hair, that's the whole story. Sold for 60 years.

Hair Vigor

I have used Ayer's Hair Vigor for a long time. It is, indeed, a wonderful hair tonic, restoring to the hair and scalp, and at the same time, proving a splendid dressing.

For Weak Hair

Mrs. Jas. Brown, of The Dalles, was in Mosier last week meeting a few of her many friends.

Will Graham, of Hood River, visited his mother, Mrs. Chas. Graham on Sunday.

Previous to his departure for Alaska, Mr. Ray Storgess, of Portland, made a flying trip to Mosier for the purpose of bidding farewell to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. P. Storgess.

Mr. Alex Stewart is having a neat and commodious annex fitted up into which he expresses his intention of moving the post and telephone offices.

No one fails to appreciate this valuable improvement and while Mosier is yet in her infancy she is not slow in catching up with the times.

Mrs. Dinick, of Vancouver, came up to spend the summer with her brother, Mr. George Chamberlain, at his mill on the mountains.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. McClure were passengers on Thursday's train for Hood River.

Miss Anna Phillips who has been making her home in The Dalles for several years, is home on a visit to her father, J. Phillips.

Miss Mary Middleweart was the guest of Miss Edna Root Thursday night. Miss Edna expects to go to The Dalles and remain for several months.

Mrs. Middleweart is slowly gaining in health under the treatment of a specialist in Portland.

Mrs. Elmer Root is nursing a very sore hand from a needle breaking off in the fleshy part of the hand.

The recent hard and continuous rains result in considerable hay unsalable for Wm. Johnson.

Amos Root is shipping cherries. The crop is very light, but cherries are fine.

TROUT LAKE.

The rain has ceased. Fine weather now and soon will begin the harvesting of a splendid hay crop, for which Trout Lake is famous.

Mr. Hardin, of Sherman county, Oregon, who belongs to the Willow brigade, caught one that weighed 2 pounds and 4 ounces.

One man and his son from The Dalles, caught nearly one hundred in the afternoon for three days in succession.

Contracting Alkali for 25 and 50 Cents Per Ton.

That the alkali beds of eastern Oregon are of commercial value is shown by the fact that agents are again in the field in this county for the purpose of contracting for the same.

Under the terms of the contracts entered into between Mr. Thomas and the land owners the former secures the right to the alkali beds at prices varying from 25 to 50 cents per ton.
