Salvador Shaken by Earthquake. San Francisco, July 18.—Advises have been received by steamer from San Juan, Salvador, to the effect that early in June that place was visited by three severe earthquake shocks which tumbled down a number of buildings. Few persons were hurt; none seriously.

Nebraska On Trial Trip. Seattle, July 18.—The battleship Nebraska is on her official contractor's trial trip on a straightaway course today. On her standardization trip yesterday the engineer lost control of the machinery for lowering the anchor and the immense weight with its chain plunged to the bottom where it still is. It tore away the structure around the port-hole, the friction causing a fire in the tonnage woodwork. This was extinguished before great damage was done.

Grand Duke's Train Wrecked. Berlin, July 18.—Grand Duke Vladimir, while en route to Paris, was aboard a train which was wrecked, with the evident intention of killing him. He is uninjured.

Vaccination for Cholera. Manila, July 18.—Twelve new cases and nine deaths from cholera during the last 24 hours are reported. The doctors are offering vaccination free. It is found to be a sure preventative.

Services at the Unitarian church every Sunday at 11 a. m. J. A. Baldrige, minister. Topic for next Sunday: "The Sole Law of Humanity." One god, one service, one man, is the religion for today. Everybody welcome.

Reduction in Flour and Feed. Special cash price on Flour and Feed at warehouse. Bran $1.10 per ton; shorts, $1.10 per ton; flour, $4 per barrel. D. McDonald.

A Hard Lot of troubles to contend with, spring from a torpid liver and blocked bowels, unless you awaken them to their proper action with Dr. King's New Life Pills; the pleasantest and most effective cure for constipation. They prevent appendicitis and tone up the system. 25c at Chas. N. Clark's drug store.

A sweet breath adds to the joys of a kiss. You wouldn't want to kiss your wife, mother or sweetheart with a bad breath. You can't have a sweet breath without a healthy stomach. You can't have a healthy stomach without a perfect digestion. There is only one remedy that digests what you eat and makes the breath as sweet as a rose—and that remedy is KODOL FOR DYSPEPSIA. It is a relief for sour stomach, palpitation of the heart, and other ailments arising from disorder of the stomach and digestion. Take a little Kodol after your meals and see what it will do for you. Sold by Williams Pharmacy.

If you want something good get Benson's fancy new tablets. They look good, taste good and if you eat them they will make you feel good.

Does evil still, your whole life fill? Does your bed feel? Your thoughts abide on suicide? You need a pill. Now for prose and facts—De Witt's Little Early Riser are the most pleasant and reliable pills of today. They never gripe. Sold by Williams Pharmacy.

Jack Rand is now getting a supply of fine peaches and summer apples from his ranch east of town, and is now supplying passengers on the trains and boats with the choice Hood River article. Mr. Rand says that his peach crop is light on account of the March freeze, but that he will have a fair supply, and the quality is good.

The merchants have signed an agreement to close their places of business at seven o'clock in the evening, Saturday nights excepted. It was at first endeavored to fix the closing time at 6:15, but all would not agree to the earlier hour, and 7 o'clock was fixed upon as a compromise. The move is a good one, and gives the merchants and their employes part of the evening, at least, to themselves. After September 1 the hour of closing has been fixed at 6:15.

Herbert Williams, wife and daughter, of Minneapolis, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Wolpert, at White Salmon, for a couple of weeks, returned home Monday morning. Mr. Wolpert has 500 acres of land a couple of miles north of the village, which he will develop, cut into small tracts, and put on the market, keeping a good ranch for himself. His Minneapolis relatives were delighted with the country, and will probably be the means of locating other people out here from their section.

Mrs. Martin Emstrom, of Oregon City, is visiting in Hood River this week.

Mrs. Byrne and daughter, of Grand Forks, N. D., spent a day with their old friends, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Steink, Miss, Saturday, leaving for home in the evening. They go from here to Salt Lake, and will visit several Eastern cities on their way home.

The plumbers are about the busiest people in town these days. On account of the order from the council to connect with the sewer, the plumbers who have not already done so have their orders to the plumbers. More help is wanted, but it is hard to get.

Several cars of bridge building machinery were dumped off at Hood River Monday, and a party of bridge men are at the bridge for the crew. Work is to be commenced at once on the new bridge across Hood River and the grading done to straighten the track.

C. D. Nickelson has moved back to Hood River with his family from Heald City, Minn., where he has filled the pulpit of the M. E. church in that place for a couple of years. He was not satisfied with the cold climate in that country and will go on his ranch near the Morse place, at Belmont.

Dr. H. D. W. Pines now has a building of three rooms in the Smith block across the hall from his old office room. He has then nicely fitted up, and is in better shape to take care of his patients. He got the best of the hot weather by fixing up a fan on his electric motor, which he will use from place to place, by connecting on the light wire.

Jack Rand is now getting a supply of fine peaches and summer apples from his ranch east of town, and is now supplying passengers on the trains and boats with the choice Hood River article. Mr. Rand says that his peach crop is light on account of the March freeze, but that he will have a fair supply, and the quality is good.

F. W. Mulkey, the choice of the people for United States senator for the short term, was in Hood River Saturday attending a meeting of the shareholders of the First National Bank.

Dr. C. H. Jenkins leaves with his family Saturday on his annual vacation, and will go into camp on the Little White Salmon. He expects to spend a few weeks getting well from a cold, and recuperating for another year's work. Dr. J. B. Wilson will have charge of his office during his absence.

Jan. T. Weart arrived this week from Los Angeles, where he has been laid up in the hospital for several months. He was suffering from an abscess of the ear, requiring an operation which nearly cost him his life. He will remain during the summer on his claim in Dukes Valley, and return to Los Angeles in the fall.

C. L. Copley went to Portland Monday afternoon on a delegate to the White Salmon A. O. U. W. from Riverside Lodge, No. 68. While in Portland he will also be treated again for his eyes, having been having a serious time with his eyes, having several operations performed in removing tumors and granules that torn on the lids.

F. C. Sherrill lost twelve to fifteen tons of hay Friday evening by fire. The hay had been stacked in the meadow opposite the Shoemaker place, and about nine o'clock it was discovered that the hay was on fire and could not be saved. The cause of the fire is a mystery, and was probably started by a tramp crawling in there to sleep, and having a lighted pipe.

Mrs. P. S. Davidson, Sr., started Tuesday morning for Portland, where she will join a party of friends for a trip to Alaska. They will go to Seattle and sail from there on board the City of Seattle for Skagway. They will visit the important cities and places of interest, making the trip over the Yukon and White Pass railroads. The trip will occupy several weeks.

L. H. Huggins and John Van Drielen have purchased the lumber yard and hardware business of Jos. Peters & Co., at The Dalles, and the business will be managed by Mr. Van Drielen. Mr. Huggins will continue to operate his general store here and continue to live in Hood River. They were intending to start a lumber yard here, but the present opening presented itself. They made that deal in secret. It is an old established lumber yard and hardware business in connection.

Hermann Prigge, John Zerlauer and Frank Philpe last Wednesday made the first ascension of Mt. Hood this year, aside from the guide, and they made it alone. Some of them had ever made the trip before, and two of the party turned back several times, as they would come across a crevasse, nearly hidden by the snow, but young Prigge kept on, and the other boys followed him until they arrived at the top. They were nearly six hours getting to the top after they struck the snow line, and their faces are well blistered from the reflection of the sun on the snow.
