Moore, vice-president of the Trout Lake Electric Railroad company, passed through Hood River Thursday on his way from Portland. Mrs. H. C. Wortman and daughter, of Portland, who have been spending several weeks at Cloud Cap Inn, returned to their home in Portland Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Eggert, of Portland, who have a fruit ranch in the valley and who have been spending some time here this summer, went to Portland Saturday on the local. Rev. Mr. Baldrige, pastor of the Unitarian church in this city, went to Portland Saturday and Sunday conducted services in the Unitarian church in that city. He returned to Hood River Monday evening. Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Smith, who have been at Bellingham visiting their daughter, Mrs. Nelson, returned to their home last week. Mrs. Nelson returned with her parents and is making them a return visit. M. R. Noble went to Portland Saturday to visit his wife, who has been in that city for several months in delicate health. Mrs. Noble is said to be much better and it is expected that she will soon be able to return to Hood River. R. M. Imbler, formerly of Hood River, but now at White Salmon, where he is engaged in business, visited us last Friday. Mr. Imbler was for some time in the clothing department of Frank A. Cram's store and has many friends here. A. L. Phelps and family will leave next Monday for the Yakima valley where they will spend some time in the hop fields. The Phelps are going to Tampoico and expect to be absent some time. Mr. Phelps has secured quite a colony from here for the hop fields. There will be an ice cream social in the reading room of the gymnasium Friday evening, under the auspices of the U. B. Ladies Aid society. A good program is being prepared. Among other numbers will be readings by Mrs. Sprecher. All are invited. During her visit in Hood River valley, Miss Gertrude Kinney, who has been a sufferer from lung trouble, which compelled her to give up her profession of nursing, found that the climate agreed with her so well that after spending a short time at her home in Waukegan, she will return to that place.—Chronicle. The cool nights we have been having lately has cleared the water in the Hood River and salmon trout have commenced to run. Several good catches have been reported. W. M. Stewart recently caught eight nice ones, two of which weighed four pounds and Murray Kay succeeded in landing 15 in a few hours last week. A. W. King went to The Dalles last Thursday to visit his brother, L. I. King, who is confined in the hospital there. The latter is flagman at the John Day bridge and while riding out to his post of duty on a train which was to stop in order to allow him to alight, fell and broke his arm in getting off. He is reported as doing nicely, however. Flint Bradford is at present suffering from a very painful affection of his right hand. It was found necessary last week to perform quite an elaborate operation on the diseased member in order to afford him relief, and it is now thought that the hand can be saved if no serious complications set in. The trouble was caused by his having run a splinter into it which is thought to have been poisonous. Chas. Castner, who has been away for two months on a business trip, arrived home Sunday evening. Mr. Castner was accompanied by his wife until they reached Kansas on the return trip, where she decided to remain on a visit. While away they took in Chicago, Detroit, Cleveland, Grand Rapids, Niagara Falls and several other cities and had a royal good time visiting friends and relatives in Michigan, which is Mr. Castner's native state. Gene Bush, a former resident of Hood River, in the days when it consisted of two cow paths and one store, has been paying his old home a visit. He has been staying at the residence of Frank Button for the past two weeks and putting in the time hunting up his relatives and renewing old acquaintances. It is 13 years since Mr. Bush last saw Hood River and he was very much surprised at its rapid growth. Tuesday he left for Wasco, where he is at present living and will engage in harvesting.

H. H. Mattson, vice president of the Chapman Advertising company, stopped over Saturday at Hood River on business. Geo. Chamberlain, of Mosier, proprietor of the saw mill there, came to Hood River on a business trip Wednesday. J. H. Heilbronner took a vacation of several days last week which he spent at various watering places on the coast, returning home Thursday. Mrs. Gilbert and Mrs. Fred Shoemaker, who have been spending a week or ten days at the seashore, returned to Hood River last Thursday very much benefitted in health. Mrs. E. N. Rhythe, who has been making quite an extended visit at the home of her father-in-law, S. F. Blythe, went to Portland Saturday where she will remain awhile before returning to Lewiston. Rev. Dr. E. L. House, of Portland, completed the purchase Monday of the twenty-five acre ranch of Joseph Batson near Pine Grove. Part of the land is already under cultivation and it is the intention of the new owner to improve the rest of it in the near future. C. H. Stranahan, who left here August 9 for an extended trip to the Middle West, arrived at his home here Sunday evening. Mr. Stranahan came home by way of the northern route and while away visited friends and relatives in Wisconsin, Minnesota and other states and had a most enjoyable trip. L. N. Bowers Tuesday let the contract to J. M. Wright for the construction of a residence to be located on Sherman avenue next to the new home of Will Gnam. Mr. Bowers has a fine lot there and it is expected that the new house will cost in the neighborhood of $2,700. D. McDonald and family, who have been camping in the upper Mount Hood country for a couple of weeks, came home Saturday after having enjoyed a most pleasant outing. The largest trout that was captured there this season was caught by young Angus McDonald and measured 15 inches. C. W. Murphy, of Mount Hood, has disposed of his ranch in that neighborhood and in company with his wife, left Tuesday for the southern part of Missouri where it is possible he will locate. Mrs. Murphy was formerly from Missouri and she and her husband will visit with her father, who is still living there. John Hackel, of the Crapper district, presented the editor of the Glacier with some peaches Tuesday which are as fine as any he has seen this year. They were large, of fine color and as uniform in size as if made in a mould. It is evident that other things than apples can be grown in the Crapper district. Dr. Hall, an uncle of Chas. Hall the druggist, recently purchased the Jordan ranch at Crapper, in which district the latter and brother also own ranches. Dr. Hall and his son, A. E. Hall, of Pennsylvania, who have been visiting in Hood River for several days, returned to Portland Saturday. The Jordan ranch, for which Dr. Hall paid $14,000, comprises 120 acres, is one of the best in the valley. W. G. Snow, of Saow & Upson, returned to this city Friday evening from a business trip to Portland and the White Salmon river. The camp was situated about ten miles this side of Trout Lake. Mr. Snow says that while he had a good time and enjoyed himself in his outdoor retreat the fishing in that vicinity was very poor, the stream being too muddy.

Chas. Kitchell, of Chehalis Wash., visited friends in Hood River Thursday. N. C. Evans, C. R. Bone and G. D. Woodworth took a trip up the road on the local Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Laraway left town on the No. 1 Tuesday for a short visit in the Willamette valley. Frank Daveport and family, who have been on a trip of several days down the road, returned home Tuesday. Dr. H. D. W. Pineo, who has been visiting at Seaside for a week or ten days, returned to Hood River Monday evening. Mrs. O. B. Gray and children returned from Vancouver and Portland Saturday evening where they have been visiting friends and relatives. A social and dance will be given at the Odd Fellows hall at Odell Friday evening. Music will be furnished by the Tillamook orchestra and Junius Cook will act as floor manager. County Judge Lake and Assistant District Attorney Fred Wilson, of The Dalles, were guests at the Mount Hood hotel last Friday. They were here to visit the Judge's ranch in the valley. J. O. Carter, of Portland, is the new section boss and as soon as his family arrives will go to house keeping in the house near the Mount Hood depot furnished by the company. Miss Vera Stewart, one of Hood River's well known school teachers, who has been away on a vacation for several weeks, returned to this city Monday and is prepared to resume her duties for the new school term. Riverside Congregational church.—Regular services will be resumed next Sunday, September 2. Sunday school at 10 a. m.; worship and preaching, 11 a. m.; fellowship service; Christian endeavor, 6:45; Evening worship, 7:30. W. C. Gilmore, pastor. Mrs. Howard Ienbergh, who has been making Hood River her home during the summer, went to Cascade Locks Tuesday, where her husband has charge of the school at that place. She is engaged in making preparations for the coming school term. F. G. Fellows, of Portland, who is interested in the Elipa orchard and who makes frequent trips to Hood River, has been here for several days accompanied by his wife. They returned to their home in the former city Tuesday. L. Bragg, of Pullman, Wash., one of the partners in the firm of Bragg & Co., the well known merchants of this city, made Hood River a visit of a few days last week. Monday he started on his return to Pullman, accompanied by Miss Frances Bragg, who will visit at that place. News was received here yesterday of the death of the 6 months old child of Mr. and Mrs. Will Morgan, which occurred at a hospital in Portland. The cause of death is said to be heart failure and the body was brought to this city last evening. Funeral services will be held here today where the interment will take place. Miss Linda Earl, of Indiana, sister of Miss Kate Earl, who is well known here, will arrive at Hood River Saturday, and Monday will take a position as teacher at the Pine Grove school. She will be accompanied by her uncle, S. E. Hartness, who went east with the body of his father a short time ago. Cecil Holman and Chas. Foster have opened a new chop house next to Reed's cigar store and are prepared to feed the hungry and tempt the fastidious to gastronomic efforts. Dainties of all kinds are on tap from bear steaks to watermelon, and they are receiving a good deal of encouragement in their new venture. R. D. Gould, accompanied by his wife and family, started Tuesday evening on a week's trip to Wallawa, Lostine and Enterprise. Mr. Gould has secured contracts at these places and while away will attend to some details in connection with them. Mrs. Gould and the little ones have but recently returned from St. Martin's Springs. Greene Wilson, a well known resident of Pine Grove, died there Tuesday evening aged 57 years. Mr. Wilson has been living with his son John A. Wilson, who is proprietor of the Pine Grove store and from whose residence the funeral was held Wednesday afternoon. The funeral arrangements were in charge of Earl Hartness and Rev. Troy Shelley conducted the services. Mrs. Ida Thomas, a sister of Mrs. Richard Lovig, who has been visiting at the home of the latter in this city, was taken seriously ill a few days ago and it was decided to remove her to the hospital at The Dalles for treatment. Mrs. Thomas was taken to that place Tuesday of a cot which was arranged for her in the baggage car of the local, being too weak to stand the journey in a sitting position.

If you want peaches for canning come to Wood & Smith Bros' Spot Cash Grocery who have a fine lot of Yellow Crawford. At the services of the Christian church at K. of P. hall next Sunday morning there will be special music by Miss Gladys Hartley. Special invitation to the public. N. W. Jackson, who lives about seven miles from Hood River on the way to Mosier, killed four rattlesnakes on his place recently, one of which measured four feet in length. At this office can be found part of a stove that was lost on the Hood River bridge. As it is of more use to its owner than it is to us we would be very much pleased to have it removed. G. H. Wilson, of Odell, has taken the local agency for the Russellville Nursery stock, of Portland and is prepared to furnish all kinds of nursery stock. As will be seen by its advertisement it guarantees satisfaction. Clarence Gilbert left town Friday for a short vacation which he will spend at Seaside. Saturday he remained in Portland to witness the swimming race between Judge Henderson and Byrnes. W. J. Baker & Co. report the following sales for the past week: H. C. Coe to Miss Wilcox, house and lot; H. C. Coe to D. McDonald, 15 lots; H. C. Coe to W. A. Burns, house and lot; D. E. Church to W. H. Bishop, 40 acres. Juvenile Court Boys to Pick Hops. Twenty boys who want an opportunity to work in the hop yards and earn money will be given a chance by the Juvenile Improvement association under the direction of the juvenile court. These boys will be taken next Monday to the hop yards of Colonel Haines, near Forest Grove, where a camp will be established. They will remain during the hop picking season. Cooking utensils and a building to camp in will be furnished by Colonel Haines. The Juvenile Improvement association will see that the boys get to the hop yard and that a competent cook is provided for them. Each boy will take his own blankets. They will be under the direct charge of one of the officers of the juvenile court, probably Frank Officer S. D. White. The expenses of maintaining the camp will be determined at the end of the season and each boy will pay his share. The officers of the juvenile court believe that the expense of such boys will not exceed 25 cents a day for the entire trip. The average earnings of boys in hop yards is said to be about $1.50 per day, thus leaving them a nice little profit.—Journal. As Noted by the Optimist. Mrs. Wm. Shackelford spent the past week at Hood River the guest of friends. George Wiegol came up from the Hood River district Monday, where he has been camping with his family. He expects to return and spend several weeks more in camp. City Recorder John Fillion, after spending two weeks at Trout Lake, returned Monday and will again take his position which has been held by Colonel J. B. Cossen during his absence. John reports the fishing the best at the lake in several years. The Dalles men stand the highest at several weeks more. New Studio. Miss Hartley has opened up a neat studio in the Smith building and is now prepared to give instruction in both vocal and instrumental music. For particulars call phone 1424 or call at room 8, Smith building. "Wasco County" Melons. Watermelons are becoming quite plentiful and carloads are being shipped daily to other towns. The Dalles melon stand the highest of any in the markets of the Northwest.—Chronicle.

Chas. Castner, who has been away for two months on a business trip, arrived home Sunday evening. Mr. Castner was accompanied by his wife until they reached Kansas on the return trip, where she decided to remain on a visit. While away they took in Chicago, Detroit, Cleveland, Grand Rapids, Niagara Falls and several other cities and had a royal good time visiting friends and relatives in Michigan, which is Mr. Castner's native state. Gene Bush, a former resident of Hood River, in the days when it consisted of two cow paths and one store, has been paying his old home a visit. He has been staying at the residence of Frank Button for the past two weeks and putting in the time hunting up his relatives and renewing old acquaintances. It is 13 years since Mr. Bush last saw Hood River and he was very much surprised at its rapid growth. Tuesday he left for Wasco, where he is at present living and will engage in harvesting.
