

We do not have to Sell Goods on Sunday

SAFE

CRAMS

RELIABLE

We Close at 6:30 p. m. EXCEPT SATURDAY

McKIBBIN FURS

Just arrived. See our lovely line. Its Education Itself.

OUR NEW FALL GOODS are arriving daily

RESOLVED THAT WHEN ANYONE REACHES THE TOP OF THE LADDER IT MEANS HE IS A SUCCESS. SOME PEOPLE ARE FOOLISH ENOUGH TO THINK THAT SUCCESS IS AN ACCIDENT. OF COURSE IT IS NOT. SUCCESS IS THE RESULT OF HARD WORK AND GIVING PEOPLE SOMETHING FOR THEIR MONEY. WHICH PROVES THAT HONESTY IS THE BEST POLICY. IF YOU WANT TO DRESS GO WHERE THEY HAVE MADE A SUCCESS AT DRESSING PEOPLE - AND DRESSING THEM WELL AND CHEAPLY. BUSTER BROWN.

YOU HAVE BEEN SEEING US CLIMB. WE OURSELVES HAVE MADE THE ROUNDS TO THE LADDER OF OUR SUCCESS. OF WHAT? BUYING GOOD GOODS; SELLING GOOD GOODS AT ONLY REASONABLE PROFITS; DEALING SQUARELY - GIVING ALL CUSTOMERS THE SAME PRICE, STANDING BEHIND EVERYTHING WE SELL; TREATING OUR PATRONS WITH COURTESY; AND, AS YOU KNOW, BY ATTENDING TO OUR BUSINESS AND CARRYING THE STOCK. GOOD INTENTIONS COME ONLY OUT OF THE HEAD; GOOD GOODS MUST COME OUT OF A GOOD STORE THAT IS ABLE TO GET GOOD GOODS. WE ENJOY OUR BUSINESS. ACTIVITY, PROGRESS, IS ENJOYABLE. WE ARE BUSINESS MEN, PROUD OF OUR PROFESSION, AND WE MAKE A PROFESSION OF OUR BUSINESS. A PROFESSIONAL MAN IS A MAN ESPECIALLY SKILLED IN WHAT HE DOES. WE HAVE MADE A STUDY DRESSING PEOPLE; THIS IS OUR PROFESSION. AND THIS IS OUR CONFESSION. RESPECTFULLY, FRANK A. CRAM

McKIBBIN HATS

New Fall styles on display in our case. The goods are the best in the world for $3.00. Every Good shape is represented. When everyone has a McKibbin Hat there will be no more quarrels. NONE BETTER MADE.

THE UP-TO-DATE STORE

WE OFFER YOU NO TRASH at any price. We are Reliable

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

Mr. Bartness is on a cash basis. Finishing for amateurs at Deitz Studio. One or two good bidders can find employment at the nursery of Ross & Stanton. Olives in bulk, bottles and cans at Jackson's. Finest line of lap dusters ever shown in the city at S. J. Frank's harness shop. New Orleans Molasses in bulk and cans at Jackson's. Salt mackerel, eastern white fish and pickled salmon at Jackson's. Maple Syrup and New York State Buck Wheat at Jackson's. Axel grease, all brands on the market, can be found at S. J. Frank's. Peaches - A fine lot of Yellow Crawford peaches for canning, at Wood & Smith Bros.' Spot Cash Grocery. C. R. Greison, who assumed his position at Cram's store September 1, is glad to get back to his old line of work. Mr. Greison is an old experienced dry goods clerk, having served at the business in the old country, and is now in the above and clothing department of the Up-to-date store. Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Ash returned Friday from their trip overland through Eastern Oregon, Klamath Falls and the Willamette valley. They report having had one of the pleasantest outings of their lives. They found the roads and weather good most of the way, the worst part of the journey being in the vicinity of Eugene, where the dust was very bad and the weather hot. They enjoyed some fine fishing on their trip, and moved from place to place as inclination suggested. L. E. Morse and wife were left at Portland, but are expected home this week.

The Dietz Studio for photos. Our work guaranteed. Deitz Studio. A. S. Bent had business at Viento Friday. Peter Henrich had business at The Dalles Friday. S. C. Zeigler, of White Salmon, went to Portland Friday afternoon. It is to your interest to refer to M. Bartness' ad under the new system. E. B. Clark, of Portland, was a Hood River visitor the first of the week. Mrs. J. A. Dunbar, of Portland, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Orr, last week. Misses Orr and Eleanor Jones visited friends at Cascade Locks the last of the week. Robert Smith, of the Stanley-Smith Lumber company, came up from Portland Tuesday. L. T. Bragg, of Colfax, Wash., is spending a few days in Hood River with his brother, R. B. Bragg. J. A. English, of the Shaver Transportation Co., on the lower river, spent a few days in Hood River last week. J. Meara, who has been away several days in Eastern Oregon on a business trip, returned to Hood River Tuesday. If you want peaches for canning come to Wood & Smith Bros.' Spot Cash Grocery who have a fine lot of Yellow Crawford. Mrs. Mason, who is well known in this city, where she has relatives and has been staying for a time, left for Portland Tuesday. Mrs. C. J. Bight, L. L. Van Gilder and Miss Inez Van Gilder, of Wasco, visited Hood River friends in Hood River last week. H. M. Huxley has resigned his position with the David on Fruit company, and accepted a position with the Apple Growers Union. Rev. Dix returned Tuesday from Nooksack, Wash., where he spent two weeks at the conference of the Christian Advent church. Jas. Matheson, in charge of a bridge gang on the O. R. & N., arrived here Tuesday for the purpose of doing some work in connection with the new bridge. J. H. Thomas and wife, of Hood River, left Tuesday for Corvallis, where they will spend the winter, and school the youngest children. The eldest son, Charles, will run the ranch at Mount Hood. Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Bailey and M. Suteland returned from Canon Beach, where they spent a month enjoying an outing on the sea coast. The place is located about 11 miles below Seaside, and Mr. Bailey thinks it one of the best camping places on the coast. They had a very fine time, enjoying the surf bathing, catching crabs and come back rested and in good health. W. H. Absher has closed up his rooming house and cafe and goes to Roseville, Ore. He will spend some time in the hop fields before settling down to some line of work. Flint Bradford, who has been suffering from a badly diseased head for some time, is much better. His instructor member has responded to treatment and it is expected it will soon become of use to him again.

Miss Ella Evans returned from a visit to Vancouver last week. Chris Geisen returned from a trip to Portland Friday evening. Leo Root and C. D. Morgan were down from Mosier Friday on business. Mrs. F. S. Perry, who had been the guest of Mrs. S. W. Arnold for some time, returned to her home Saturday. Teddy Button came home last week from near Eugene, where he has been employed in the logging camp with his father. Lutheran services Sunday, September 9: Sunday school, 2 p. m.; English preaching, 3 p. m.; special meeting, 4 p. m. James Anley, of the Anley Printing Co., of Portland, came up Saturday on a visit to H. C. Coe, returning Monday. H. J. Miller, traveling agent of the Chicago & Northwestern railway, was in Hood River Monday looking for business. Mrs. Guy A. Poland, of Wasco, spent a few days in Hood River last week visiting at the home of Mrs. A. L. Carmichael. Miss Beryl Litherland, of Portland, who has been visiting Miss Irma Coe the past week, left for her home Monday accompanied by Miss Coe and Capt. Coe. Memorial services will be held next Sunday evening in honor of Oliver C. Bartness. Special music has been arranged for and a good attendance is looked for. J. F. Batchelor has returned from Chicago, where he spent several months on business, and Saturday evening came up to Hood River to spend a few days. P. S. Davidson returned from a trip to Collins Monday where he has been since Saturday. Mrs. Davidson accompanied him but will remain a few days longer. There will be a meeting of Hood River Lodge, O. E. S., Tuesday evening, September 11, at Masonic hall. There will be initiation work, and all members are requested to be present. Harrison Miller arrived yesterday from Portland on a visit to his father-in-law, D. I. Stone, and will go from there to Walla Walla, Wash., and from there will look for a location in the drier climate of Eastern Washington or Idaho. A social will be given by the ladies of the Woman's Relief Corps Wednesday September 12, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Crowell both in the afternoon and evening. Ice cream and coffee and cake will be served at 10 cents for the former and 5 cents for the latter. The Apollo Concert Grand Interior piano which the Old Fellows ordered from Soole's Piano company, arrived from the factory last week and is now installed in their new hall. This is the most costly and complete piano which ever came across the "Rockies" and the boys and their friends are very proud of it. Services in the Unitarian church next Sunday at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Topic for the morning service, "Faith's true attitude"; for evening, "Making the most of one's life." The S. S. will also be resumed next Sunday at 10 a. m. Let the parents, teachers and pupils heed this call to duty and service. Wm. Yates has purchased forty acres of fine fruit land from Axel N. Bahr, near the Kordien place, and will have it cleared and set out to apples. Mr. Bahr has another forty for sale, and will retain 80 acres of the quarter section for himself. He intends to improve that much of his place as soon as he can let a contract for clearing, and will set the land largely to Spitzbergers. The soil and locality is especially adapted to Spitzbergers, and will become a very valuable property. C. W. Field was a passenger on No. 1 for Portland Tuesday. Mr. Field says that the town of White Salmon was in great danger from forest fires Monday. The fire caught in the brush from slashings Saturday, and Sunday the fire ran up the side of the bluff from the railroad grade. All the men in town turned out and fought the fire all day. Flycatchers caught in rubbish near Lauterbach's barn at one time, but was discovered and put out, otherwise the town might have been swept away, as there was a brisk wind blowing from the west. Herbert Humphrey Morgan, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Morgan, died Tuesday night, August 22, at the residence of Fred Stewart, at Portland, and was buried in Idlegilde cemetery at Hood River Thursday. The funeral services were conducted at the residence of H. M. Abbott, Revs. Gilmore and Baldwin officiating. The bereaved parents and relatives have the sympathy of the community in the loss of their child. Those attending the funeral from Portland were Mr. and Mrs. H. Pugh, L. G. Morgan, Mrs. Nettie Clark and Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Abbott.

O. L. Stranahan went up the road on a visit Monday. H. W. Joplin, of Portland, spent several days at Hood River this week. Emil Schiller, of White Salmon, who has been confined to the Cottage hospital here for some time with typhoid fever, is making a satisfactory recovery. Nick Caseiro, who has charge of the construction gang on the Hood River Irrigation District's ditch went to Portland Saturday to spend Sunday with his family. Miss Ben Wilkes, of Condon, Oregon, arrived at Hood River on train Monday and will visit at the home of Mr. McCune and also with Miss Mills of the Cottage hospital. Thos. Tipton and C. C. Conkle, connected with the purchasing department of the Denver & Rio Grande railroad, were here two days last week in connection with business for that road. J. Adrian Epping, the well known singer, who has taken up his residence at Hood River, where he recently bought a ranch, was a passenger for Portland on the Spokane Flyer Monday. Miss Josephine Jenkins, of Portland, a sister of Dr. Jenkins of this city, spent two days visiting at the home of her brother this week. Miss Jenkins is employed at the United States National bank in Portland and returned there Monday. Ira Alcorn, who has been in the butcher business here for some time, left Monday for Portland, where he will make his home for the present. Mr. Alcorn is disposed of the business to A. S. Bent who will conduct it in the future. Ed Williams, who has been here for some time visiting friends and relatives, returned to Nebraska Monday on the Overland. Mr. Williams came here to attend the funeral of his niece and decided to stay for a time at his old home before returning to the Middle West. George T. Prather left yesterday for Portland, where he will join his wife and daughter, who have been visiting there for a week, and they will visit relatives in the Willamette valley for a couple of weeks. George says he has not had a vacation in 35 years, and thinks he is entitled to one. His son, George, Jr., returned Monday from Portland to go to school. George W. Simons, owner of the steamer that name plying between the Locks and The Dalles and connected with the Pacific Bridge company, arrived in Hood River Monday. Mr. Simons is a firm believer in a proposition to establish a permanent landing for river boats at the foot of the road leading from First street and says that such a landing would be worth many thousands of dollars to the city. Mrs. Elvira Johnston, mother of the Register boys, and formerly of this city, died at Kert, Oregon, last Saturday. The body was brought here for burial Monday accompanied by members of the family and the funeral took place Tuesday morning at the Christian church. Rev. J. W. Jenkins conducted the services and the funeral arrangements were in charge of S. F. Bartness. Interment was at Idlegilde cemetery. Wm. Yates has purchased forty acres of fine fruit land from Axel N. Bahr, near the Kordien place, and will have it cleared and set out to apples. Mr. Bahr has another forty for sale, and will retain 80 acres of the quarter section for himself. He intends to improve that much of his place as soon as he can let a contract for clearing, and will set the land largely to Spitzbergers. The soil and locality is especially adapted to Spitzbergers, and will become a very valuable property. C. W. Field was a passenger on No. 1 for Portland Tuesday. Mr. Field says that the town of White Salmon was in great danger from forest fires Monday. The fire caught in the brush from slashings Saturday, and Sunday the fire ran up the side of the bluff from the railroad grade. All the men in town turned out and fought the fire all day. Flycatchers caught in rubbish near Lauterbach's barn at one time, but was discovered and put out, otherwise the town might have been swept away, as there was a brisk wind blowing from the west. Herbert Humphrey Morgan, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Morgan, died Tuesday night, August 22, at the residence of Fred Stewart, at Portland, and was buried in Idlegilde cemetery at Hood River Thursday. The funeral services were conducted at the residence of H. M. Abbott, Revs. Gilmore and Baldwin officiating. The bereaved parents and relatives have the sympathy of the community in the loss of their child. Those attending the funeral from Portland were Mr. and Mrs. H. Pugh, L. G. Morgan, Mrs. Nettie Clark and Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Abbott.

NOW IS THE TIME TO BUY School Books AND School Supplies. For this year's demand I have received the best line of Tablets, Pencils, Inks, in fact everything for School Use, ever brought into the city. It costs no more to please the children with a Fancy Cover at SLOCOM'S The Depot for School Books.

To the Farmer Do you know our Feed, Fresh from the mill has Double the feeding value of stale feed? All the progressive Dairy men are buying feed from us. Beware of Bargain Feed. It is worth Less than they charge for it. We will sell you the right kind of feed for just what it is worth. No more, no less. Our prices are the Market prices. Patronize Home Industry. It's to your advantage and ours. Hood River Milling Co.

MILLINERY OPERATING Saturday, Sept. 15. You are cordially invited to inspect our stock which includes all that is NEW, ELEGANT and Exclusive. Our Black Pattern Hats are trimmed in in one grade of ostrich - THE BEST KNAPP'S

O. P. Dalney went to Portland yesterday for a few days. J. L. Davis was a passenger from Newburg yesterday morning. Otis Savage was a passenger yesterday on the local for Portland. W. J. Baker and T. W. DeBussey had business at Mosier yesterday. J. W. Nunnemaker left on the local for Wasco yesterday morning. Hon. Wm. Coates and Mr. Byrrett, of Trout Lake, took passage on the local for The Dalles yesterday. Miss Helen Gearin, principal of the White Salmon school, is the guest of Miss Alvira Headley at her ranch near Green Point. Mrs. Cram, of The Dalles, who has been visiting her son, Frank A. Cram and family for ten days, left for home yesterday forenoon. J. J. Jordan and family left for Portland yesterday on the local, and will go from there to the coast for a week, before returning to Hood River. L. W. Wood has traded his Gem Candy Kitchen to F. L. Thomas, of White Salmon, for White Salmon land. Mr. Thomas will continue the business for the present. Mr. Wood is undecided just where he will locate, but will not live on the White Salmon place at present. Mrs. E. W. Spencer and daughter-in-law, Mrs. Spencer, Jr., of Portland, are the guests of Mrs. P. S. Davidson, Sr. Miss Jessie Mohr accompanied the children of Mr. Gunnauter and also Margaret Coyle to Portland yesterday. The youngsters have enjoyed an outing of three weeks at Mr. Mohr's place in Pine Grove. Robt. McKibbin, electrician at the mill of the Oregon Lumber Co., at Dees, left for Portland yesterday afternoon. From there he will go to Buffalo, N. Y., to spend a month's vacation. George D. Collerton & Co. report the following sales: John H. Groll to Miss Lissie Farmer, of Portland, 50 acres at Mount Hood, for $3,000; Joe Hatson to Rev. House, of Portland, 25 acres in Pine Grove, for $2,000; N. J. Devold to E. R. London, of Portland, 60 acres at Mount Hood. Alex Reid has secured a fine logging contract in British Columbia and is moving up there with his family. N. H. Bartlett, C. W. Hessler and Chas. Wilkinson, who came here from Oregan, Wis., this spring to assist Mr. Reid at Green Point, have gone back to Wisconsin. They like this country very much, but thought best to go back on account of property interests and social connections.

GET IN THE HABIT OF TRADING AT Booths THE BIG STORE WITH LITTLE PRICES. Crystal Glass Vases, 18 inches tall, beautiful shape, fine for large bouquets, clear and colored. 50c each. Milk Crocks, all sizes, extra churn cover and dashers, butter bowls, butter moulds, butter paper, baskets, etc. Little prices. Galvanized Wear, Tubs, in all sizes, water pail, small and large, wash basins, dippers, camp kettles, chamber pails, etc. Little prices. Baskets, If you want a basket of any kind you'll find it here. Half bushel picking baskets 40c. School Supplies. Slates, Pencils, Tablets, Inks, Pens, Erasers, Crayons, School Bags, Pencil Cases, Books, Satchels, Pencil Holders, Note Books, Composition Books, Dictionarys, Etc., Little Prices.