The patrons say that they will be satisfied with stops three times a week, but think they are entitled to that much, at least. The running time of the local is pretty fast, and so many stops are being made now between here and Cascade Locks, that there may be some question as to making an extra stop and arrive in Portland within their schedule time. However, the stop should be made if it is possible to do so.

Has a Good Word for Hood River. H. J. Miller, traveling freight agent for the Chicago & Northwestern rail-road, was in Pendeton a few days ago, and has this to sav of Hood River in the East Oregonian:
"They have had a splendid apple

A LETTER

I wish to say to all our old friends and customers who for so many years came to our shop for their meats, that it is useless for me to introduce Wood Bros., our successors, as their 18 years in the butcher business in Wasco county has made them so widely known that an introduction is unnecessary. Being honest, capable business men, they have the means and ability to rwn a business as it should be run, and in a way that will be a credit to our city.

I expect to stay with the new, firm for awhile, and will be glad to see you all at the old stand. I will guarantee that you will get just as much meat for your money, just as courteous treatment and just as prompt service as can be had in the city.

We will have a full line of everything good to eat for the Spring trade.

Respectfully yours, E. S. MAYES.
