A Liberal Donation. It isn't often you hear of a more liberal donation than the Ellers Linn house is offering to the people of this community this week. They have a stock of six beautiful pianos including the famous Kimball, Hubert M. Cable, J. B. Cook and others, in fancy mahogany, walnut and golden oak cases they are going to let go at regular wholesale list prices, giving the public or the lucky purchasers nearly $1,000 saved in price. Now is the time to buy your daughter that piano and money saved will more than pay for her musical education.

Your credit is good. You can practically make your terms. Used instruments taken in exchange. Remember the place, Booth's store, Hood River. Come in before Monday. W. A. Hoffmeyer, Wholesale Rep. Ellers Linn House, Portland, Ore.

Exploded 70 Sticks of Dynamite. Andrew Potich, of camp 3, on the North Bank road attempted to remove a mine which had failed to explode with a sixteen foot iron rod and in doing so exploded 70 sticks of dynamite. Although not killed, his face and body were so filled with lava that it required the services of a physician from Hood River to fix him up. Fortunately Potich did not receive the full force of the charge owing to the great depth at which it was placed.

The public school of Wamic was fortunate enough to secure Miss Edith Moore, of Hood River, a former teacher, to teach the fall term. She will have charge of both rooms, and the interment management rapid progress is anticipated. Her many friends extend a hearty welcome to her.—Optimist.

Frank S. Toews, representing the Hazelwood Creamery Co., of Portland, was at Hood River Thursday of last week. He also visited White Salmon in the interest of his firm and was much impressed with country in this neighborhood. Mr. Toews is an old newspaper man and for several years was city editor of the Albany (Ore.) Herald.

J. P. London, who lives at Yakima, where he is interested in fruit growing, stopped off at Hood River Sunday, on his way to Ann Arbor, Mich., to visit with his former schoolmate, Mr. Van Dusen, accompanied by Mr. Hall in a drive over the valley and on his return said that Yakima was not in it with Hood River as a fruit country. Mr. London is attending the university at Ann Arbor and Monday left that place to take up his studies for the winter term.

H. G. Van Dusen, master fish warden, of Astoria, on a tour of inspection visited Hood River Sunday and Monday and inspected the new dam of the Hood River Electric Light and Power company. Mr. Van Dusen expressed the pleasure of getting a supply for distribution in the river of Oregon.

J. H. Estes and J. A. Bourgoize, of Tappanish, Wash., arrived at Hood River Sunday. Both these gentlemen are owners of fruit ranches at Tappanish and came to Hood River to look the country over. They will have between 15,000 and 20,000 boxes each of apples of their ranches this year of mixed varieties, some of which are Spitzenbergs. While here they purchased ten of the mailing presses invented by Newton Clark and manufactured at the Davidson box factory, claiming that it is the best machine for the purpose that they have ever seen. Messrs. Estes and Bourgoize came here from Tappanish by season and started on their long drive home Tuesday.

J. P. O'Brien accompanied by his wife and Mrs. F. Flynn arrived at Hood River in a private car Friday morning on the local for a visit to the orchards of the valley. They were met at the station by J. A. Wilson and E. O. Blanchard and in company with E. L. Smith drove out through the valley stopping at the Avers and Sears & Porter ranches, where they were presented with baskets of fruit. The party expressed themselves as much astonished at the wonderful yield of fine fruit they saw and were very much pleased with the trip. While here Mr. O'Brien said that Hood River just all other points on the O. & N. P. had been City in the amount of business transacted. The party went back to Portland Friday evening on train 1 which was several hours late.

Our city had much the appearance of a railroad center Tuesday morning when both trains, 3 and 6, pulled in here at the same time and allowed several hundred passengers to alight for breakfast. Many of them were from far eastern points and made inquiries as about the country and climate.

Dr. Laraway has been busy photographing here this week and as usual has obtained some fine pictures. Bears, however, are not the only things the doctor has found time to photograph. If you get on the right side of him ask him to show you several hundred pictures he has of Hood River valley and its apple trees.

W. P. Anders, who left here with the intention of spending two weeks on a fishing trip on the Yaquina river, was so badly affected with asthma when he reached Newport, that he was laid up for a day or two and finally returned to Portland, after having abandoned a deep-sea fishing trip which he had also anticipated. Before he was taken sick he captured some very fine salmon trout however.

H. E. Avery has received a letter from J. P. O'Brien, general manager of the O. & N. railroad, who in thanking him for the blue basket of apples which was given him on his visit to the Avery ranch recently and expressing his pleasure in having visited the Hood River apple ranches, says that the apples given him by Mr. Avery were too nice to eat and had them placed on exhibition in Portland where they attracted much attention. Both Mr. Avery and Mr. O'Brien are natives of the state of Connecticut and the latter declared that although a good many apples are raised in the wooden nation state that it is no more of them during his visit to Hood River than are raised in the whole state of Connecticut.

Pleasant Church Affair. The ladies of the Unatilla church gave a very enjoyable dinner to a group of town members of the church and others who attended services there Sunday. The affair was given to promote sociability and to foster church going among the members to those who live at a distance and are compelled to take long drives before being able to partake of the noon meal before returning for the evening services. The service was a special one with special music and a special church going song. The dinner was attended by J. A. Baldrige, who was much appreciated, as was also the music.

Millinery Display OF THE Latest Designs in Pattern Hats At Mme. Abbott's IRRIGATED FRUIT LANDS

Buy Irrigated Fruit Lands at our new town of Attalia, Washington, located in the Columbia River Valley in the western part of Walla Walla County, Washington, opposite the Knapwick Irrigation canal, and at the junction of the Northern Pacific, the Washington & Columbia River and the Oregon Railway & Navigation Co. Railways, and also at the head of navigation on the Columbia River. This is one of the richest agricultural districts in the United States, and the soil is perfectly adapted to the raising of berries, fruits and vegetables, which ripen earlier than in any other part of the state. Owing to the superior railroad advantages it is possible to market produce as late as 7 o'clock p. m. and have shipments arrive in Seattle, Tacoma, Portland, Spokane and intermediate points in the morning, traveling in the cool of the night, which means the largest income in the Northwest is received from these lands; it being possible to CLEAR FROM $500 TO $700 PER ACRE PER ANNUM. Fortunes are being made every year from Irrigated Lands. There are no crop failures, and prices are always high. These lands, with perpetual water right, can be secured by making a small payment in cash, and the balance on favorable terms. An Investment of this Kind Beats Life Insurance. The amount of money paid as premiums invested in irrigated lands will soon furnish a splendid income for the purchaser while he lives, and support for his family after him. You do not have to Die to Win For further particulars, maps and circulars address: U. K. Loose, President and General Manager THE COLUMBIA CANAL CO. 609, 610 Marion Building, Seattle, Wash., or Attalia, Walla Walla Co., Wash.
