

DESERTS YOUNG GIRL AND IS ARRESTED

Sheriff Chrisman came to Hood River from The Dalles Tuesday and arrested Irving Duboise, who has been known here as Jack White. Duboise was wanted on a charge of seduction, having enticed a young girl away from her home, it is alleged under promise of marriage and then deserted her.

Probably the capture of Duboise was about as easy a job as the sheriff has tackled since he has been in office, as instead of having to go after his man the man came to him. Duboise has been working for the Oregon Lumber company at Des, but quit and went to Green Point across the valley on foot where he succeeded in raising some money on time checks which had been given him. He afterwards came to Hood River and went to the office of the Oregon Lumber company here for the purpose of getting the remainder of the cash. While he was negotiating for it the sheriff stepped into the office and heard the bookkeeper address Duboise as White. Knowing that the man he wanted was traveling under that name the sheriff accused him of being Duboise and he finally admitted that was his name and he was arrested. He was taken to The Dalles on the local and the Chronicle prints the following story about him:

Duboise is a brother of Fred Duboise, who ran away from Marcola with Mabel Conrad last week and was arrested by Sheriff Chrisman and Deputy Wood and taken back to Eugene. When the culprit was in the hands of the Lane county officers they discovered that his half brother had a hand in the dastardly piece of business and that a young woman accompanied him. They at once informed the officers up here, who found that the young woman, whose name is Savage, was employed on the hill. Through her they determined that Duboise, whose real name is Benson, but who takes the name of his step father, was at Green Point in Hood River valley. Sheriff Chrisman left this morning for Hood River, and phoning out to the Dalles was informed that a man who went by the name of White, but who formerly was called Duboise, had quit work the night before. Chrisman then confined his search to the town and soon found his man, who, when told what was wanted of him, said: "They can't do anything with me; the girl who came with me was over 20 years of age." But Chrisman took him just the same and brought him to The Dalles on the noon train.

The trial of Duboise takes place in Eugene tomorrow or Thursday, when Deputy Sheriff Wood, Irving Duboise and the Savage girl will be on hand. Wood having been subpoenaed as a witness.

Wenatchee and Toppenish Take P-rizes. In a meeting which was one of the most enthusiastic gatherings which has ever been held at Wenatchee, the Wenatchee Commercial club celebrated winning the $1,000 prize for the best fruit exhibited at the Interstate fair at Spokane. Business men predicted that Wenatchee would have 20,000 inhabitants. Speakers, local and from adjoining towns, addressed the meeting. Before adjourning the meeting (addressed to the committee in charge of the exhibits at Spokane, composed of George Farwell, William Turner and Charles F. Brown, a vote of thanks for their successful work.

The excellent quality of the fruit raised in the vicinity of Toppenish is receiving recognition. Kichey & Gilbert of that place, who are the largest shippers from Toppenish, having received the "Silver Grill," first prize of $100 offered by the Spokane hotel for the best display of apples at the Spokane fair.

There was considerable competition for this prize by growers from North Yakima, Wenatchee and Spokane; the second prize being awarded to Robert Johnson of North Yakima. The varieties exhibited by Kichey & Gilbert were: Spitzenberg, Yellow Newtown, Winesap, Arkansas Black, Wagner, Grimes' Golden, Baldwin, Northern Spy, Gano and Ben Davis.

Mule Thieves Captured. It will be remembered that a little over a month ago Ed Phelan had a span of mules stolen from his ranch seven miles from the city and that afterwards Officers Wood and Harper traced the mules to Portland, where they had been sold for $100. Two crooks by the names of H. Brown and Robert Wilson were the thieves and while the mules were returned to the owner, the criminals were never caught. They were not, however, for gotten and Sheriff Chrisman and Deputy Sheriff Wood have been on their trail, having informed officials in California to be on the lookout for them. A few days ago a message was received from the sheriff at San Roman, California, saying two men had been arrested there for stealing a horse and buggy, who had proven to be the ones Wasco county was after.

Must Have Been Here. The editor of The Dalles Chronicle has evidently been paying Hood River a visit. As in a recent number of that paper he describes the scenery in and about this city thus: To the north as far as the eye can see stretches a land dotted with pretty white farm houses. Hood River is a good town and a climb up along streets shaded with oak trees is well worth the effort. The panorama of river and valley together with hundreds of well kept fruit farms is a pleasing sight. Hood River valley stretches away to the south, with an average width of five miles. From this valley of 50,000 acres of well-tilled fruit land has just been shipped ten train loads of apples, that sold for $3 a box of forty pounds, which is the highest price ever received for apples in the West. It is from the town of Hood River that the trip to the mountains is made. For miles and miles, the mighty Columbia is seen winding its way through the great section, while in every direction, as far as eye can reach, stretch productive fields and fertile valleys. Far up on the mountain slopes the dense, dark forest stand out in pretty contrast to the crystal waters below. Where Angels Fear to Tread. The editor of the Optimist was called upon to act as judge at the baby show at the Poodleton fair, but we compromised the matter by acting as clerk for the judges. There were about 70 babies entered, and if Solomon had been the judge he could not have picked out a homely one from the whole lot, and the mothers were prouder than the kids. Now, what could a judge do under such circumstances. Just go it blind and sneak off and leave the clerk to pin the ribbons on! And we live to tell of it.—Optimist.

Woman For Cascade Looks In Distress. Mrs. Nora Cannon, the poor woman who was sent to St. Vincent's hospital Saturday night in an almost dying condition, is reported to be better today. Dr. W. V. Spencer, who is attending her, says that she will probably recover.

The woman arrived on the California train Saturday on her way to Cascade Locks, but owing to a mistake in her ticket, which was to Cascade Junction, she and her three small children were stranded at the station without friends or money. Before time for the 6:15 train to Cascade Locks the woman was too ill to travel and at 9 o'clock in the evening she was removed to St. Vincent's hospital and the three children, the youngest being only about a month old, were taken in charge by the Travelers' Aid.

The children were taken to the Boys and Girls' Aid society for the night, but the baby was afterwards taken to the Florence Crittenden home, where it will remain until relatives are heard from or the mother is fully recovered.

What Mystery Is This? That was only a mistake; Hood River is a great place but her laundry doesn't pretend to repair any kind of plumbing, tools, least of all blow lamps. Yes, that was only a mistake. Mr. Rennie no doubt took the heavy article for a much worn pair of hose. —Wasco News.

When a horse is overworked it lies down and in other ways declares its inability to go further, you would consider it criminal to use force. Many a man, because of his own unwillingness to harm a kitten, is guilty of cruelty where his own stomach is concerned. Overdriven, overworked, when what it needs is something that will digest the food eaten and help the stomach to recuperate. Something like Kodol for Dyspepsia that is sold by Williams' Pharmacy.

A LETTER

I wish to say to all our old friends and customers who for so many years came to our shop for their meats, that it is useless for me to introduce Wood Bros., our successors, as their 18 years in the butcher business in Wasco county has made them so widely known that an introduction is unnecessary. Being honest, capable business men, they have the means and ability to run a business as it should be run, and in a way that will be a credit to our city.

I expect to stay with the new firm for awhile, and will be glad to see you all at the old stand. I will guarantee that you will get just as much meat for your money, just as courteous treatment and just as prompt service as can be had in the city.

We will have a full line of everything good to eat for the Spring trade. Respectfully yours, E. S. MAYES.
