

HOOD RIVER GLACIER

A Word For the Silent Worker. In an article headed "The Master Mind" the Corvallis Times devotes three-quarters of a column to Hood River and the great success it has had as an apple raising community.

Mr. Messer reports a most profitable and enjoyable trip and he expresses appreciation for the many courtesies extended to him by President E. L. Smith and Secretary C. D. Thompson, of the Hood River Fruit Fair association.

THE FAIR AS SEEN FROM GRANTS PASS

Charles Messer, secretary and manager of the Grants Pass Fruit Growers union, returned Sunday from a week's trip north, three days of which he spent at Hood River seeing the fruit fair at that place and in taking notes of the methods of growing and marketing fruit in that valley that holds the honor of getting the highest prices paid for apples this year by any growers in the United States.
