Miss Laura Cleland, of Portland, visited Mrs. John Kroeger a few days last week.

The farewell party given at the home of the Neffs for Mrs. Crockett and family Thursday evening was a success in every way. About 65 friends of the family attended and the evening was passed in games, recitations and music. Lunch was served and all went to their homes glad to have been there. At this writing it is expected a car is to be left at Duques Valley station Monday, November 19, to be filled with personal property belonging to Mrs. Crockett. Fred Crockett will accompany this car to Rupert, Idaho, the remainder of the family leaving here on Thursday bound also for Rupert, where they will reside. Mrs. Crockett and Fred expect to secure homesteads near Rupert. Best wishes of a host of friends go with this family to their new home.

It is evident no signal service man need apply at Odell since Ultra Collins predicted that snow. He said two weeks before it would snow November 11th and the snow came right on time. A beautiful home wedding was solemnized Sunday, November 18, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. H. M. Poole, when Claire Crockett and Nettie Kemp were united in marriage. Rev. Troy Stedley officiating. The ceremony was very impressive, their vows being pledged upon the bible. The bride was attired in white and her usual happy self. These young people are well known here and their friends are many. The bride has been one of Odell's stars in entertainments as she is an elocutionist of high rank. The groom is a son of Mrs. Hatlie Crockett and is liked for his many good qualities. The young couple attended Endeavor Sunday evening and received congratulations of a large number of friends. They will be at home near Rupert, Idaho, where Claire has a homestead, as they intend leaving Hood River Thursday for that place. May health, happiness and prosperity follow them through a long and useful life.

C. E. was very interesting Sunday night. Temperance meeting, B. I. Young leader. Next Sunday is missionary meeting and will begin as near 7 p. m. as possible.

Mr. and Mrs. Lefe Roberts returned to their home in The Dalles Monday. They attended the Crockett-Kemp wedding Sunday. Mrs. Roberts is a sister of the bride.

Monday evening about 40 of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Claire Crockett gathered at the home of Mrs. Crockett's mother, Mrs. H. M. Poole, and made their presence known by singing. They were invited in and Frank Neff entertained the company with many beautiful selections rendered by his graphophone. The bride and groom treated the guests with hot buns and cigars and after a most enjoyable evening the serenaders departed to their homes happy to have spent this time with these young people who have so pleasant a place in their thoughts.

BARRETT.

The liberal and philanthropic people of our town and valley who always so readily respond to all calls for aid, let us not forget that Thanksgiving day will soon be here and how can we better return thanks than by contributing to the Portland Boys and Girls Aid society, to help in the rescue and home placing of needy little ones ever dear to the heart of our Lord. It will be a wonderful appropriate expression of gratitude to Him who gave bountiful harvests and crowned the year with His goodness. The year just closing has been one of the best ever known. Bountiful crops have rejoiced the farmer. Fine business conditions have gratified the merchant. Plenty of work and good wages have made life happy for the laborer. Therefore there should be a universal and generous expression of deep gratitude for these abundant temporal blessings. Therefore let our Thanksgiving for 1906 be especially large and generous for the Boys and Girls Aid society, so that the Master will say "Inasmuch as ye did it unto one of the least of these little ones, ye did it unto me." Leave your thanks offering at the Rockford store; if you cannot possibly do that please Rockford and he will call on you, but do not wait until the last day, November 22.

A. O. Johnson, of Mount Hood, bought the Jersey cow and calf from the Rockford merchant. He says the cow will make a good one.

Joseph Groff, from Upper Mount Hood, was a caller at the Rockford, doing considerable business. Joseph says it is a little tough hatching it, but hope inspires him that it will not be always so lonely. Well, hurry up and get the matrimonial knot tied.

Mrs. Brayford has installed a Mann bone cutter on the chicken ranch and expects to get good returns for the investment. Manns will produce more eggs from being fed on bone scraps ground up.

Ed Watts put in one week plastering the Mosier school house and returned home on Saturday last.

Roy Ellis purchased a piece of land on the Potter estate and has moved his house from his old homestead.

We are informed that the late storms have caused considerable damage to the new ditch belonging to the bonded district. Rocks have slid into the ditch and a few places washed out pretty bad and men were sent up on the ditch to turn the water out so as to save the ditch.

W. F. Smith sold the hundred sacks of spuds to the Rockford man and we need more good spuds.

Fred Chandler was over in Washington one day last week and purchased

MOUNT HOOD.

A. M. Kelley has gone to spend some time with his family on his homestead in the Blue mountains.

There was a light snow fall Friday evening, really the first down in the valley, though the surrounding hills have worn a mantle of white already this fall.

Ten new books have been added to the school library. These are from one shipment purchased by school funds, the first to be sent under the new law.

The Johnson baby was getting much better, when Sunday night, it had a relapse and is quite ill again.

It is not pleasant to be a telephone line man at Mount Hood these days. The wind storm Tuesday night tore things up (or down) generally. In many places trees have fallen across and broken the lines. Mr. Lafferty and a force of men are at work and will get the lines in working condition as soon as possible.

The Literary society held an interesting meeting Thursday evening. There are 22 members now, with more coming. The members have decided to take up a course of reading for the winter and have sent for books which they expect to have by next meeting. The initiation of the new members proved quite interesting at the last meeting.

The football boys are making great plans for the social next Saturday night. They are going to have a lunch counter and sell candy also, so no one needs to go hungry if there are not baskets enough to go around. They expect to have a good program and will do their best to see that every one has a good time. Program begins at 7:30.

A surveying party consisting of H. H. Fomlinson, Owal Knox, Joe Peltier and John Cooper, started up to Mount Hood Monday to do some surveying from the Inn on up the mountain to a point above Cooper's Spur. The work is being done in the interests of the Mazamas. The party expect to be gone three or four days.

Our branch of Hood river, the East Fork, has been on the rampage the past week. It was higher than it has been for several years. It was quite exciting to see the turbid stream go rushing and dashing down at a furious rate and hear the rocks rumbling and tumbling over each other in the resistless current. Situated as it is, most of the course being between high banks, it did not do much damage. The bridge on the Inn road, however, was washed out Thursday. People from the upper settlements in order to reach the post office had to go around by the bridge at the school house.

Baptist Church Appoints Mr. Stark.

The Baptist church board held a meeting Saturday at 2 o'clock to regularly install Rev. W. A. Stark as resident pastor. Rev. Splight of Hood River having resigned the charge on account of ill health. This selection meets with universal satisfaction in Mosier as Mr. Stark's long residence and kindly demeanor has won for him the love and esteem of young and old as there is hardly one family here in which Rev. Stark has not figured, being the first to give the hand of congratulation at marriages, as well as the one to offer comfort in the hour of sorrow—Optimist.
