

CORRESPONDENCE.

WHITE SALMON.

From the Enterprise. Mrs. James Cox, of Cook's addition, has returned from Portland, where she underwent a most difficult and dangerous operation at the St. Vincent's hospital. She is now much improved in health and well along on the road to complete recovery.

The turkey shoot held at Bingen Tuesday was not so much of a success as it would have been had the day been better for that kind of sport. The pig and several turkeys were won by a Hood River man. The bear was not shot off as there were not enough present who wanted that kind of a pet. Everybody who attended had a good time.

Several members of the Odd Fellows lodge went to the Dallas Wednesday evening of last week to see the team at that place put on some work in the degrees. They report a jolly good time and a grand entertainment by the boys of that city. They also say that the Dallas boys have a splendid team and do the work in fine shape.

Thanksgiving day has passed and a large number of our people did not eat Turkey either. Only a few turkeys were in the market and they sold for 50 cents per pound. Rather too steep for ordinary mortals. But it was a pleasant day and everybody had all they wanted to eat and plenty to be thankful for in spite of the price of gobblers.

The Thanksgiving dinner given by the Ladies Aid society in the banquet room of the Odd Fellows hall was well attended yesterday, about a hundred taking dinner there.

Miss Fay Gearhart returned from Portland Wednesday to spend Thanksgiving with the old folks at home. Miss Fay is much taken up with her school work, but then it's nice to get back home to visit once in a while.

The new trellis on the Trout Lake road near camp 15, of the Menominee Lumber company, is finished and is said to be the best piece of road work done in the county. It was put in by A. L. Richardson.

The local camp of Modern Woodmen have decided to continue meeting in Lanterman's hall but have changed their meeting night to Monday instead of Saturday. On Monday evening, December 4, the Woodmen and Royal Neighbors will hold their first family social of the winter and socials will be given every two weeks until spring.

The Artisan's hall which was given in the Odd Fellows hall Wednesday night was a most pleasant and successful affair.

MOSIER.

The trees are out of the streets. Wonder why it came to be so?

Road District No. 9 voted a five mill tax on the 21st to improve our roads and we are in hopes this money will be used on the roads to some advantage, as it will amount to over $100, as some of our roads now are said to be impassable for lack of work.

Land buyers are of daily occurrence nowadays, and sales are being made by our real estate dealer, C. D. Morgan, who has the bargains, or it seems so from the sales and the prices being paid for our land. The old timers can hardly realize where they are at times and think they must surely be in Hood River.

W. J. Thompson, of Portland, has finished putting in the furnace in our new school house and returned to his home on Thanksgiving day.

Joseph Frazier, of Hood River, was up Sunday to visit with friends and also to figure on some contract work.

One of the most enjoyable masquerade balls ever given in this valley took place Thanksgiving night in Lamb's hall. It was an invitation affair and was conducted in the most gentlemanly manner. Some of the costumes were very fine and well represented.

C. D. Morgan reports the sale of 80 acres of land of Mrs. Alice Lenninger to P. L. Huffman, of Spokane. This land is located three miles south-east of Mosier and is the making of a lovely home. Mr. Huffman will move on to it at once. The price Mr. Huffman says was right although he did not state what he paid.

J. Wellberg is building on to his Cottage hotel which when completed will add greatly to the appearance as well as comfort to the increasing business.

C. D. Morgan has sold his cozy little Green Spring farm to Mrs. W. K. Coughlin, of Viento. This is one of the loveliest homes to be had in this country and Mrs. Coughlin was very fortunate to get it.

BARRETT.

On Wednesday of last week at the Valley church parsonage, by Rev. Elkins, a marriage ceremony was performed. The contracting parties were Mr. Harry Bennett and Miss Vera Murphy. Both parties are well known in the valley.

J. J. Gibbons must be having a pretty hard time getting his teeth fixed as he runs down to Portland every Saturday, returning on Monday morning. We wonder sometimes if it is all tooth business or is there some other attraction at Portland? But time will tell. Well, yes, I do not know.

Charley Camp and Miss Bertha Smith were quietly married on Wednesday last and have started house keeping having rented a house at the Davenport upper planer, where Charley is teaming.

We report donations of goods for the Boys' and Girls' Aid which were too late for last week's issue: L. Dart, sack spuds; John Wilson, sack spuds; P. H. Martin, sack spuds; F. G. Church, sack spuds.

Henry Hackett sold 15 sacks of spuds to the Rockford man and they are just fine.

B. F. Shoemaker sold a fine barrel of turkeys to Davenport's logging camp and the same were delivered in good shape alive by P. Davenport & Son.

Emil Fritz is down from the Green Point lumber camp, spending a few days with his family.

Andy Beatty has put on an addition to his house. Andy will be making improvements.

ODELL.

Thanksgiving day was observed in a quiet way about Odell. Several small dinner parties gathered for a pleasant day.

There was no school Thursday and Friday.

Maister Bros. have bought H. M. Poole's lease on a portion of the Kemp place and have moved into the house vacated by Mr. Poole.

It Quiets the Cough

This is one reason why Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is so valuable in consumption. It stops the wear and tear of useless coughing. But it does more—it quiets the inflammation, quiets the fever, soothes, heals. Ask your doctor about this.

The best kind of a testimonial—"Sold for over sixty years."

Makes by J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.

The Odell Improvement Co. gave a dance in the I. O. O. F. hall at Odell last Friday night.

L. D. Boyd and daughter, Naomi, spent Thanksgiving day with relatives in Portland. They went down Wednesday and returned to their home in Odell Monday.

Everett Ghormley, of Portland, spent last week with his sister, Mrs. S. J. Ennes.

This place is to have an up to date poultry yard owned by A. D. Moe, of the Glacier. Douglas Lockman, who has made a study of the case, and management of poultry, is to be manager and will use the knowledge gained by reading and experience to get best results.

Frank Masee and a force of men have been at work clearing the land along the line between Win Hibbard's land and that owned by Cooper & Walters, also along Wm. Ehrick's west line, in order that people may use the road which is only a straightening of some curves in the old road.

The four months old baby of Mr. and Mrs. Johnson died in a Portland hospital Tuesday night and the funeral was held Thursday. Truly it was a sad Thanksgiving day for the bereaved ones.

Roswell Shelley left Hood River Friday as a delegate to a national convention in Des Moines, Iowa. Said convention being for the purpose of formulating a plan whereby United States senators shall be elected by direct vote of the people.

Rev. Troy Shelley preached in the church at Odell Sunday morning. Rev. Shelley always has a message and tells it in a way at the same time pleasing and convincing. We are ever glad to hear his sermons.

The C. K. of Odell expects to unite with Odell school in a Christmas program to be given Christmas evening.

Don Crosby is home from Portland, Seattle and Tacoma.

The Ladies Aid will meet at the home of Mrs. S. J. Ennes Thursday afternoon.

Mr. Charles Thomas has gone to Hood River.

Mrs. Carrie Comstock, who has been visiting her brother, Mr. S. A. Helmer, leaves Thursday for Chicago.

Mr. T. M. Larwood went to the Dallas last week on business connected with the division of the school property between the old and new districts.

Thanksgiving was a quiet day at Mount Hood. Most of the lonely "bachelors" were remembered by thoughtful friends and thus made to feel the comforts of a real home.

There were several reunions "going to grandma," etc. The most noteworthy being the reunion of the Gribble family. They held the dinner in the Artisan hall and report such a good dinner and a good time all around.

The schools had appropriate Thanksgiving exercises.

The Literary society held another interesting meeting Thursday evening. Election of officers was held and the following were elected: President, Walter Gribble; Vice President, Miss Josephine Biddinger; Secretary, Hattie Cooper; Treasurer, John Cooper.

A short Thanksgiving program was rendered, after which they took up the first lesson with Irving's sketch book. It proved a very interesting lesson with Mrs. Walter Gribble as leader, of a very much interested class. Several new members came in and were duly initiated. The membership is now 30.

There was a very pleasant gathering Saturday evening at the residence of Mr. S. A. Helmer, in honor of his birthday. In answer to invitations quite a number of friends and neighbors gathered in. The evening was spent in conversation and games. After the games a bounteous supper was served then all departed wishing the host many happy returns of the day.

The directors have added some new blackboards and wall maps to the school rooms, and they are much appreciated by teachers and pupils.

CASCADE LOCKS.

Postmaster Sanford visited Hood River Tuesday. We are pleased to have another spell of weather.

W. Taylor is about finishing his roomy house. Mr. McClary is loading a car of wood, with the assistance of Chas. Gray.

Our mill is again running in full blast. Mrs. L. Farrington came up from Butler, Wash., last Saturday and spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Sanford.

Mike Ostergard and family, of Viento, spent Thanksgiving with Mrs. Ostergard's mother, Mrs. Baker. Mrs. Hatch is running the hotel. She is very popular and has a big trade.

T. Mitchell, our section foreman, has just moved to the Sound country. Exposition Notes. The Alaska-Yukon exposition to be held at Seattle will cover 250 acres and will cost approximately $10,000,000 when the gates are opened in 1909.

Eleven large exhibit palaces will form the main picture of the exposition. Many national conventions will be held at the exposition in 1909.

The management has appropriated $100,000 for a live stock show. One of the objects of the Alaska-Yukon Pacific exposition is to make known and foster the vast trade of the Pacific ocean.

An inter-mural railway will be provided for the comfort and convenience of visitors. It will be two miles long.

Henry E. Reed, director of exploitation, is now carrying on a campaign to secure state participation. Advice already received from governors assure the representation of many states.

It is estimated that 7,500,000 persons live in the section of country in the United States and Canada within a radius of 1,000 miles of Seattle, who are directly interested in making the exposition the true exponent of their material wealth and development.

Major I. S. Clarkson, special commissioner for the Alaska Yukon exposition, who is visiting the different states in the interest of the fair, is an experienced exposition man. He was director general of the Omaha fair and was prominently identified with the expositions held at Buffalo, St. Louis and Portland.

The Association of Traveling Passenger Agents will hold its 1908 meeting at Seattle. This will give the agents an excellent idea of the exposition, so that they can work intelligently for business to the coast in 1909.
