

CORRESPONDENCE

ODELL.

Everett Lafferty and B. G. Boardman were in the Willamette valley last week and Everett came home Saturday. It was expected the deal would be made Monday of this week where by these gentlemen would become owners of about 100 acres of land near Carlton, Ore.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Ebrek left Odell last Friday evening via the Mount Hood railroad. They expected to leave Hood River Saturday for their new home at Medford, Ore.

R. S. Albert and Ellen Shelby came in from Portland Saturday. R. S. returned to Portland Saturday. Albert visited his parents a few days before returning to Portland and Ellen remains here and will be in school again.

Mrs. J. L. Tousey took her position as primary teacher in our school Monday morning.

One can but poorly express the satisfaction felt when comparing the Davidson hill as it now is with the condition of the same hill before the good work done under the supervision of F. A. Masses. Well directed work and gravel have accomplished wonders and now if the good work could be extended so that the hill on this side might be so greatly improved, how thankful we should be.

L. U. Lafferty and family, of Mount Hood, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Lafferty, of Odell last week.

I. U. reports wire and other material on the ground for extensive work on the Mount Hood telephone line as soon as conditions are such that work can be done.

Miss Male Masiker has been engaged to teach a spring term of school at Dukes Valley beginning March 3.

L. D. Boyd made a business visit to Portland last week.

C. L. Rogers was buying apples around Odell last week. Mr. Rogers ships to customers in Portland.

Thos. Lacy is busy directing a gang of Japs at work on the Mount Hood railroad.

Eliza Billen sold her property in Hood River to Ben Stranahan. Consideration, $1,700. A good sale and good buy.

Mrs. J. M. Johnson was operated on for appendicitis Thursday of last week and at last reports she is doing nicely.

Rev. Troy Shelby preached one of his good sermons Sunday morning.

The C. E. was good Sunday evening. Topic, "An easy life versus a hard one." Albert Shelby sang a solo, "The Homeland." Mabel Kemp, leader.

BARRETT.

In the early hours of Saturday morning, February 16, at the Hood River hospital, Mrs. J. Pa. Barnett quietly passed away after a few days of sickness. She leaves a husband and six children to mourn her loss. Funeral services were held on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment was made in the Hood River cemetery. We extend our sympathy to the bereaved husband.

The little son of F. W. Angus, who has been under the care of Dr. Mills and wife at their home, has now sufficiently recovered from a serious sickness to be returned to the home of F. W. Angus and wife. Great praise is due Dr. Mills for his skill and careful watching over the little one.

J. H. Groff has been somewhat under the weather for the past week. Suppose the grip had a strong hold on J. H., but he is on the improving line again, having broken its grip.

Comrade Skinner has invested money in a very nice gray horse, saddle and bridle, also a fine buggy and harness. What may happen in the near future, who can tell?

Rev. J. W. Sprecher, pastor of the United Brethren church, made a pastoral call at the Rockford on Friday of last week. Brother Sprecher speaks very highly of the revival service being held in Hood River and feels encouraged with the assistance of the Rev. Merrill.

The new board of directors for the Hood River Irrigation district are considering the question of putting up a building in the Rockford neighborhood for the purpose of holding their meetings in a place where all books and documents can be kept so that the books can be inspected at any time without intruding upon any one's home. A step in the right direction.

The Rockford merchant has just put on the road one of the finest delivery wagons in the valley. It's a dandy, capable of delivering all kinds and quantities of goods. Just call him up—891—give him a small order, and take a look at the new wagon.

Some friends of W. A. Johnson have come up from California and will make their home on land purchased from F. W. Angus, adjoining W. A. Johnson. We will obtain their name and write them up later on.

We are informed that Charley Camp and wife have rented the house and land adjoining the Barrett school from Mr. Countryman, and will shortly move onto the premises.

DUKES VALLEY.

We have got some snow yet and it is still good sleighing here. Hansen & Thomsen are making good use of the snow. They are logging and intend to start their mill next month. They have got out about 100,000 feet of logs now.

We are having some trouble in getting out mail, as the carrier does not come any further than Odell, and in order to get the mail it is necessary that some one should meet him there and get it.

Our school was out February 4. Miss Laura Crandall taught five months on a permit and the directors did not see it fair to let her any longer. Miss May Masiker will teach three months, beginning the first Monday in March. It is hoped that we will have a good school as the children are in need of such. Miss May holds a first grade certificate and has had the experience. We pay her $50 per month and expect a good school.

The children are enjoying their vacation in the way of coasting, as the crust will hold them up. They are having lots of fun on the sleds.

Leonard Dodson and wife were visiting at John Dodson's last week.

Milton Bingerman was seen in the valley this week.

We understand that Chas. Murphy, who sold out and went to Missouri and returned, then went to the Willamette and bought property there, is not very well pleased. He said the chiggers and ticks nearly eat them up in Missouri and the fleas were finishing the job down there. We would advise them to come back to Dukes Valley where there is nothing to bother them.

James T. Weart, who has a home-stead on the hill west of here, is snowed in, as we have not seen him for some time. Mr. Weart has a receipt for living cheap here in the winter time and this receipt he does not give away, but if you want it he will sell it to you and let you work for him to pay for it. It is a good, cheap way to live in winter but more expensive in summer. He has been keeping his stock on this receipt this winter and you can look at them and judge for yourself as to how it works. A. T. Dodge, J. O. Cameron and Roy Simons have purchased this receipt and it might be you could get it from them cheap, as I don't think either of them have used it.

CRAPPER.

Mrs. McCurdy is at the present time suffering from an attack of rheumatism.

Mr. and Mrs. Wolhart moved to their home on Rockford street last week.

Mrs. P. H. Martin is on the sick list.

The Crapperites organized a Grange at the school house on Monday evening of this week with 61 charter members. Several others have signified their intention of becoming members of the organization in the near future.

Brother Barker filled Rev. H. C. Clark's appointment at the school house on last Sunday afternoon. Come again, Brother Barker.

The snow is gradually going off in this neighborhood. We hope to see the ground again by the first of March.

In a recent letter to us scribe Albert Anson Graham, a former Hood River newsboy, but now at Ocala, Florida, writes that he is determined to come back to Hood River. He has a continual banking for Hood River applies.

WHITE SALMON.

The election held Saturday to determine whether or not an irrigation district should be established, was carried almost unanimously, only three votes being cast against it, while 53 were for the project. A mass meeting will now be called, an engineer employed to prepare plans and submit an estimate, make surveys, etc., after which bonds will be voted on and bids invited for the construction of the ditch. There is a good deal of enthusiasm manifested in the new ditch, and practically no opposition is expected. Water is badly needed to irrigate the land and double the crop output.

The petition for the incorporation of White Salmon will be presented to the county court at its next meeting, which will be held next week, and it is expected that a vote will be ordered by the court on the question.

The new opera house is being plastered and the upper room will be ready for a masquerade ball that is advertised to be held February 23, and which is to mark the opening date of the new opera house. The store rooms below will not be finished for a month yet, the bad weather having delayed work on the building.

Mrs. Hyting was brought over from Gilmer and is now at the residence of J. Wyers, Jr., under the care of Dr. Gearhart. Mrs. Hyting is a sister of Mrs. Wyers.

There are a good many cases of the grip in the neighborhood. Mr. Wolf is just getting out after being laid up for two or three weeks. Judge Field has just recovered, and Mrs. Field and Mrs. Geo. Thomas are still confined to the house with the disease.

F. L. Thomas is expected back in White Salmon to make his home, although his plans are indefinite. He has a ranch near town and may conclude to move on to it.

The Women's club has purchased two lots on the main street and will erect a club house.

The chinook wind the first of the week has taken off about all the snow in the city, but on the higher elevations it is still in evidence. The roads are softening up and make hard traveling.

John Wyers returned from Portland Tuesday and reports his wife as getting along very nicely.

BELMONT.

General dissatisfaction is expressed on account of the exorbitant increase of taxes, due presumably to an increased valuation. At any rate, the move is making converts to the cause of county division.

I. C. Neeligh started for the upper country Saturday, to purchase a heavy draft team.

State Organizer Jacob Vorhees was present at the Frankton Grange on last Friday evening. A large number of candidates were made acquainted with the mysteries of the order, of which a sumptuous feast was enjoyed by all.

J. P. Barnett departed last Monday for his home near Eugene, Ore., where he will leave his children. Mr. Barnett also received a message stating that his mother is critically ill.

Rev. Ashley B. Cash, a former teacher in the Barrett school, and now pastor of the Christian church at Richland, Ore., supplied the pulpit of the Valley Christian church on last Sunday evening. Rev. Mr. Cash is a man of pleasing personality and pleasant address.

Mrs. C. L. Morse has been confined to her bed with a spell of the grip, but is now convalescent.

Rev. H. C. Clark made a business trip to Portland during the week.

The funeral service of the late Mrs. Cora B. Barnett, was held at the M. E. church on last Sunday at 2 o'clock

Is It Your Own Hair?

Do you pin your hat to your own hair? Can't do it? Haven't enough hair? It must be you do not know Ayer's Hair Vigor! Here's an introduction! May the acquaintance result in a heavy growth of rich, thick, glossy hair! Use this splendid hair-food, stop your falling hair, and get rid of your dandruff.

Made by J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Sole manufacturers of AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, PILLS, AND CHERRY PECTORAL.

r. m., Rev. H. C. Clark officiating. The church was filled with sympathizing friends. Cora B. Hayes was born in Texas September 11, 1876, married to Jessie P. Barnett March 31, 1897, and died at Hood River, Oregon, February 16, 1907. Six small children are mourning the loss of a faithful wife and mother. Interment was in the Idlewild cemetery a charge of S. E. Bartmes, undertaker.

Fires was discovered in the residence of Rolla Phelps in Barrett last Monday at noon. The store pipe came unjointed near the roof and the flames soon ignited the dry shingles. Mrs. Phelps was at home alone with her two small children. As they were sitting at the dinner table, J. R. Phelps detected the smoke and at once carried her children to a place of safety and then began to empty the house of its contents. The pupils of the Barrett school discovered the red tongue of fire and at once responded en masse, and fighting the fire with snow and water, succeeded in saving the property.

BINGEN.

J. E. Reynolds is doing a fine business in his new store. He carries a line of general merchandise, as well as a stock of hardware, wagons and tanning implements.

S. C. Hadley has increased the size of his store building and doing an increased business.

Seven new buildings are now under construction in Bingen.

The Swan-Hammond Lumber Co. are erecting a double store building, the lower part of which will be used by the general store of the company, with the offices of the company upstairs. Bingen will be the headquarters of this concern. They recently bought three acres across the track, on which they will erect a planing mill and box factory. The company recently bought 25 claims on the mountain back of Bingen, and will erect one of the largest sawmills in this section of the country. They have increased the output of the McCoy mill which they purchased, and are getting ready to do a big business.

They started in Monday with a crew of 40 men, which will be increased as the work progresses.

C. D. Moore has commenced the building of two new cottages.

Mr. Stadle is constructing a building which will be used for a drug store, and will also have a room for a grocery shop. It is nearly ready for occupancy.

Mr. Chapman, a Portland capitalist, bought four lots last week and will erect four cottages on them as soon as material can be put on the ground.

J. E. Reynolds put up thirty tons of ice during the cold snap, which will be a boon to the bustling city of Bingen in hot weather.

Judge Byrket is finishing the construction of a very large barn.

Portland parties were getting options of ground last week for the purpose of erecting a large canning factory.

This is an industry that is much needed, and would be a paying institution.

L. M. Fisher is clearing off his lot preparatory to erecting a roomy store building. Mr. Fisher will put in a stock of hardware and furniture.

The depot grounds are soon to be leveled off and graveled the side track at Bingen is over four miles long, and the depot grounds will be fixed up in good shape. They will be neatly graded and covered to a good depth with gravel, well rolled down, and a fine passenger and freight depot erected during the summer.

How to Get It in the Paper.

For the benefit of the public, particularly our subscribers and persons who persist in sending anonymous communications to The Citizen, the following is recommended for their guidance: "How can I get an article in your paper?" asks a correspondent. It all depends on the article you want to get in the paper. If the article is small in bulk, like a hair brush or tea caddy, spread paper out upon the floor, and, placing the article in the center, wrap it up by carefully folding the edges over it and tie it with a string. This will keep the article from slipping out of the paper. If, on the other hand, the article is a three-snip machine or a gang plow, you better not try it at all.—Centerville Citizen.

HIGH CLASS CLOTHING

Ready to Wear and Made to Order

Evolution brings economy to the consumer. The individual shoemaker and watchmaker are practically a thing of the past

But people continue to use watches and wear shoes, but the watchmakers and shoemakers by doing their work in large shops have reduced the cost to the consumer 50 per cent.

The little tailor with his antiquated ideas and methods is passing. Master minds with great organizations in large labor centers are bringing the price of tailor-made clothes, made to individual measure, within the reach of every man.

We are the sole representatives of Ed. V. Price & Co., the Chicago Merchant Tailors, the best in their class.

Their work is beyond criticism and their fabrics reliable.

$20 to $35 for suits made expressly for you.

Samples of their cloths lie on our front counter—drop in and look them over, all new, nobby patterns, no old chestnuts.

Cupid Flour

In the recent Baking Contest in Portland the lady receiving the prize, in describing how she made the bread, said: "I first bought a sack of Cupid flour, made by the Hood River Milling Co." If you want that nice white, flaky bread, buy Cupid flour. If your merchant is a knocker, and don't want to furnish it, we will tell you where to get it. Why use Trust-made flour when you can get the best there is at home and not made by the Trust. Neither is our flour artificially bleached.
