A Card.

To my friends and the people of Hood River: I wish to take this opportunity to state to my friends and the public in general that on March 31, 1907, I severed my connections with the Hood River Apple and Fruit Growers unions and that on April 1 I purchased an interest in Mr. W. M. Stewart's hardware and furniture business.

It is with pleasure I look back to the pleasant relations that existed at all times between the hundreds of growers of our valley and myself and sincerely hope that the good will shown me and sincere fellowship existing will be shown now and carried out in my new occupation. Yours truly, E. A. Franz.

LeRoy Gesner Coming.

Through the energy of Mr. Silas H. Soule Hood River will have the opportunity of hearing LeRoy Gesner, the distinguished violinist who had so much success while in Europe.

Gesner received his training from Sveik, the famous teacher of Kubelik, and has been declared a master violinist by musicians, critics and the press.

While in Prague, Bohemia, Gesner's musical growth was rapid and he soon became the idol of that "select set" of music connoisseurs whose endorsement makes one's success permanent.

In "The Last Rose of Summer" and "Annie Laurie" LeRoy Gesner is said to play with that same magical touch which made Ole Bull famous.

Mr. Gesner will play at the opera house Friday evening, April 5th. Tickets are now on sale at Clarke's drug store.

His Fifth Offense.

"I refuse to plead before this court any more," said J. Lewis, a colored man, who was brought before Judge Nickelson Monday for the fifth time this year for being drunk.

This new question of law was a puzzle for the judge, but he overruled the defendant and fined him $50, or 25 days work on the city streets. He told him that sentence would begin at noon, provided he was found in town at that time, but he has not been seen since.

Lewis has been working on the section, but his fondness for drink directly after pay day always lands him in the city jail. The last time he was fined for hitting the trail towards the setting sun.

Wanted—Girl to do general house work. Good wages. Inquire of Mrs. F. A. Cram.

They were found to be infected with scale, and the whole lot were condemned. The loss will probably fall on the shippers, but even if Mr. Weber had to stand part of the loss, he will not put out any infected trees, and the action in thus safeguarding his patrons is commendable. There were eight boxes of trees in the lot.

The Stewart Hardware & Furniture Co.

Inasmuch as on April 1, 1907, I have purchased of Mr. W. M. Stewart an interest in his Hardware and Furniture business, a business that has proven its standing and worth to this community, so thoroughly that any comment from my side would be out of place. Through the thorough knowledge of the business, its just and honest dealings with its customers, its well assorted and complete stock, its low prices consistent with good quality, it has built up a business which necessitates additional floor space in order to house and display its complete line of everything that goes to build and furnish a town complete. As soon as details can be worked out an additional up-to-date brick store building will be added, with a floor space of 15,000 square feet, for which purpose we have purchased the lot 50x100 west of the present location. That and the floor space in use at the present time, will make this the largest and best stocked establishment of this kind in this part of the state, and we sincerely hope that the great consideration shown this house by the people in the past, will be continued and increased in the same measure, as we intend to merit it by our methods of honest dealings and courteous treatment.

The business of the firm will be conducted under the name of

The Stewart Hardware & Furniture Co.

Thanking you for your business in the past and hoping that we may merit a continuance of the same,

I am respectfully yours,
E. A. FRANZ.
