

New Sheer Wash Goods
JUST OPENED

RELIABLE CRAMS RELIABLE

LACE CURTAINS
SALE NOW ON

DONT GET
COLD FEET

RESOLVED!
THAT IN THE SPRING THE
YOUNG MAN'S FANCY LIGHTLY
TURNS TO THOUGHTS OF LOVE,
BUT HE CANT WIN A GIRL IF HE WEARS BUM SHOES.
BESIDES HE SHOULD WEAR
NICE SHOES OUT OF RESPECT
FOR HIS FEET
BUSTER.

Mckibbon Hats, Standard of Hat Values, $3.00

Our Ladies' Shoes

have all the proper elements which go to satisfy careful choosers of footwear. Every pair is made especially for our up-to-date store by the best ladies' shoe manufacturers in the world.

We Fit Every Foot with the most Particular Care

We carry every width from AA to EE. Our prices are modest. The shoes are comfort-giving, the style is the newest, the material is the most reliable. We stand ready to FIT YOU

We are perfectly at ease with the most exacting customer, because

We Give You a Dollar's Worth of Shoes for a Dollar

We sell more good shoes by far than we did a year ago and our trade is constantly increasing. We will offer you none but the best, for the least possible money.

Our Men's & Boys' Shoes

always give good satisfaction. Every kind of leather known to modern shoemaking is included in our immense assortment. From the common brogan to the finest dress shoes.

The Up-to-Date Store

Men's New Spring and Summer Underwear

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

Mr. Bartness is on a cash basis.
Mrs. Rigby has pure skin food toilet powders and hand lotions.
Telephone Central Market your meat orders.
Fresh sausage made daily at Central Market.
Salt mackerel, eastern white fish and pickled salmon at Jackson's.
Our work guaranteed. Deitz Studio.
Orange, citron and lemon peel at Hanna's Star Grocery.
It is to your interest to refer to M. Bartness under the new system.
The Deitz Studio for photos.
If you want to buy or sell real estate go to Onthank & Otten. Money to loan on first mortgages. Abstracts and legal papers carefully prepared. Notarial work of all kinds.
Have you tried the Hygiene Flavoring extracts. Go to Mrs. Rigby.
Mrs. Jesse W. Rigby has in hand the Franco-American toilet articles.
New Orleans Molasses in bulk and cans at Jackson's.
The Fashion Stables have installed an electric power clipping machine and grooming brush, and are prepared to clip horses. Bring in your horses.
Raisins, currants, sweet apple cider, in fact anything you need to make good mince pies found at Hanna's Star Grocery.
Finishing for amateurs at Deitz Studio.
A few hundred cherry trees of standard varieties for sale.
Robbins & Thompson
Try the Franco-American pure perfumes. Phone 276.
"Good for everything a salve is used for and especially recommended for piles." That is what we say about DeWitt's Carbolyzed Witch Hazel Salve. That is what 20 years' of use has proven. Get the original. Sold by Keir & Cass.
Wedgehoppers supplies of all descriptions at Haynes, Wedges, saws, axes, etc. Call and see us.
Olives in bulk, bottles and cans at Jackson's.
The salve that acts like a poultice is Pine Salve Carbolyzed. No other salve is so good for cuts, burns, boils and chapped skin. Ask about it. Price 25c. Sold by Keir & Cass.
Maple Syrup and New York State Buck Wheat at Jackson's.
Stranahan & Clark have received a consignment of Roche Harbor lime.
Use Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup. Children like its pleasant taste, and mothers give it hearty endorsement. Contains no opiates, but drives out the cold through the bowels. Made in strict conformity to Pure Food and Drugs law. Recommended and sold by Keir & Cass.
Millinery now included in the bargains at the Bazaar on Hood River heights. Also dressmaking done.
Farmers Attention - Stranahan & Clark have just received that carload of fresh Roche Harbor lime that you ordered.
Wanted - Girl to do general house work. Good wages. Inquire of Mrs. F. A. Crum.

W. H. Eccles left for Salt Lake last Thursday morning on a business trip.
E. O. Blancher went to Portland on business last Friday on No. 3.
Martin Rand returned Thursday from a business trip to the metropolis.
Mrs. N. A. Monroe returned home Wednesday from an extended visit to Portland.
W. F. Laraway and wife departed for Portland for a few days visit on Thursday's local.
Geo. Stranahan, D. R. Norton and Jos. Frazier, jr., were passengers for Portland Thursday.
F. W. McKeown went to The Dalles last week to visit his daughter, Mrs. Clyde Gibson.
H. R. Albee, of Portland, arrived Thursday on No. 8 and went out to his farm in the Belmont district.
Mrs. J. R. Galligan, who has been spending the winter in the Willamette valley, is visiting in Hood River.
E. H. Shepard, C. A. Bell, Hon. E. L. Smith and Wm. Eccles were passengers from Portland last Wednesday.
Attorney A. J. Derby left Friday on No. 1 on a business trip to San Francisco, and will be absent several days.
Dr. B. F. Wright, of Portland, has been spending the week on his farm in Barrett, returning on the local Thursday.
Misses Abbie L. Weiser, Kate White and Edith Baughman, of Cascade, Wash., were in the city Friday visiting friends.
John Zells returned from the Cascade Locks, where he had been to file a bid for the construction of the Thompson residence.
Chas. Albright and wife, of Oregon City, arrived in Hood River last Thursday and are looking over the valley for a location.
J. K. Carson left for Portland Thursday to represent the Macabee lodge of Hood River at the state convention, returning Friday.
W. T. Daroh, prosecuting attorney for Klamath county, in company with Sheriff W. S. Warwick, were in Hood River Friday on official business.
Mrs. Wm. Jones and children, of Dow, departed on No. 5 for Santa Cruz, Cal., where she will join her husband, who is employed there.
Wm. Baker, who has been spending the Easter holidays at home, returned to Portland Thursday to resume his studies in the Hill Military Academy.
H. R. Albee, of Portland, while in Hood River last week made sale of the Peter Harsh place to U. S. District Attorney John Manning, of Portland.
The class initiation of the Modern Woodmen of America, which was to have been held on April 10, has been postponed until April 24. J. W. Simmons, state deputy is expected to be present to participate.
H. C. Coe came down from the upper river on last Wednesday. Mr. Coe, who is one of the most competent pilots on the Columbia river, has been running a steamer from Hells out. Mr. Coe said: "I got a week's absence and I am going to let this week run all summer."

Will Vogt spent last Sunday in The Dalles as usual.
E. W. Shay and family, of Wyeth, will move to Hood River about April 15 to make their permanent residence.
E. C. Rogers has disposed of all his holdings in Hood River and is contemplating a trip to the East in the near future. He assured the reporter that it was not with any matrimonial intentions however.
Mrs. W. G. Graham went to Portland Tuesday on the local to meet Mrs. Ed. Williams, of Winslow, Arizona. Mrs. Williams will remain in Hood River for several weeks visiting relatives and friends.
F. P. Cooper, who has been in the city for several days in the interest of the Commonwealth Trust Co., of Portland, left Friday for that city and will be in The Dalles this week looking after the interests of the company.
J. T. Parrott, a popular "knight of the grip," who has made this city for several years in the interest of a Portland spice house, will soon sever his connection with it and take a traveling position with a New York clothing house.
D. N. Eyerlee, sporting editor for our esteemed contemporary and champion "south paw" bowler on Railroad avenue, amused a host of friends among passengers at the depot the other day in a bowling contest. Score—0.
The lot where the new bank is to stand was once owned by Geo. T. Prather. On December 18, 1888, Mr. Prather sold a strip 94 feet wide for $250, and realized a profit of $75. Last week a strip 25 feet wide sold for $5,000. Keep your eyes on Hood River.
Mrs. Geo. P. Crowell visited several days in Portland recently, returning home on the Spencer. While in Portland she transferred her membership in the "Degree of Honor" from the lodge here to Fidelity Lodge, No. 14, in Portland.
Mrs. F. W. McKeown and daughter, Mrs. A. M. Spere, left Thursday on No. 2 for a few days visit at The Dalles with Mrs. McKeown's daughter, Mrs. Clyde Gibson. Mrs. Spere will continue her trip to Baker City, where she is employed as a stenographer.
W. Waldo and A. F. Campbell started for the East last Tuesday night. Mr. Waldo will visit friends in St. Paul, Milwaukee, Chicago and other points. He expects to take in the Jamestown exposition before his return. Mr. Campbell will visit in the "Twin Cities" and South Dakota.
Al Sheffield and Miss Gertrude Harmon, two popular young people of Hood River, passed through Hood River Thursday, enroute for Portland to have the matrimonial knot tied. Mr. and Mrs. Sheffield returned Saturday and left for their home in White Salmon, where Mr. Sheffield is engaged in business.
Steve Eloe and Cora Little, of Dee, started for The Dalles last week to get ready for the new mill. The county clerk could not be persuaded to issue a license from the data at hand. The young couple were doomed to despair, however, as the clouds of disappointment were withering thick and fast, friends in Hood River forwarded the necessary affidavit and the festal knot was tied.
If you have property to sell and want it sold at once, list it with J. H. Heilbronner & Co.

P. M. Hall-Lewis was a passenger Saturday for Portland.
Rev. A. C. Dix left Monday for Columbus, Wash., via Grants.
A. L. Stauffer was a passenger for Portland Saturday on No. 3.
A. L. Herman was a business caller at the county seat last Monday.
H. L. Parcell was a passenger for Portland last Monday's No. 5.
LeRoy Geener was a passenger for Portland last Saturday's local.
E. H. Lafferty went to The Dalles last Saturday on a business trip.
Mrs. W. Hansberry was a visitor to the Cascade Locks the fore part of the week.
J. J. Gibbons visited in Portland over Sunday, returning on Monday's local.
Dr. Ferguson came down from The Dalles on No. 5 Friday on professional business.
G. S. Miller, the new druggist on the Heights, left for Portland Monday on No. 5.
Rev. H. F. Brown, of Cascade Locks, preached at the Pine Grove church on last Sunday.
Rev. H. C. Clark held quarterly conference at Mosier on last Saturday and Sunday.
Al Henderson was over from Bingen last Monday transacting business in Hood River.
Rev. J. W. Jenkins left for Mosier Saturday to fill his regular appointment on Sunday.
Mrs. E. L. Smith returned from Portland last Saturday where she has been visiting friends.
Mr. and Mrs. Sims Soule were passengers for Portland last Saturday evening on No. 7.
E. W. Vreeland, who has been visiting at the Jensen home, was a passenger for Portland Monday.
H. F. Davidson and Willis Van Horn were in Portland the latter part of the week on a business trip.
Miss Grace Merrill, of Prineville, arrived Tuesday on No. 7, and will be employed in the Cottage hospital as a nurse.
Rev. J. W. Milligan, who preached in the Mt. Hood district last Sunday, was a passenger for Portland Monday on No. 5.
J. L. Henderson has been busy surveying during the past week. The rain had no perceptible effect upon his ambition.
John Sam, wife and children, who are members of the "First American family," were visitors from the Locks last Tuesday.
A. L. Phelps left for Roseburg, Or., Wednesday on No. 7. Mr. Phelps accompanied Mr. Slaats to the Soldiers Home of that place.
Mrs. L. W. Kruger, of Mosier, who has been visiting her daughters, Mrs. Chas. Powell and Mrs. Wm. Morgan, returned home Saturday on No. 8.
The Mt. Hood Railroad Co. is laying some new side track south of the round house, which will facilitate the handling of freights more economically.
E. G. Goldsmith, who has been laid up by a spell of the grip, is able to be out again, and is making the train regularly in the interests of the Ramblers.
T. H. Williams, who was arrested and arraigned before Recorder Nickelsen for violating ordinance No. 90, pleaded guilty and was fined $25 and costs.
Dr. F. C. Brosius left last Tuesday for Pendleton, and in the capacity of assistant surgeon of the First Infantry, will be in charge of the physical examination of those desiring to join the new militia company at that place.
A consignment of three thoroughbred Berkshire porkers were received on last Tuesday from B. F. Smith and billed to George W. Smith, Hood River, Oregon. The pigs are excellent specimens of the hog family.
A slide occurred on the O. R. & N. last Thursday one mile west of Wyeth, while it was not over 200 feet in length, it required about 40 hours to remove it, as the debris would constantly slide in upon the workmen.
Mrs. Charles Wells and family, accompanied by M. E. Thomas and family left on last Monday for Strathcona, Canada. They expect to make their future home under the English flag. These families are well and favorably known on the East side where they have resided for a number of years and will be missed from their respective communities.
O. C. Dean and wife left Tuesday evening for Portland. Mr. Dean went down to get his new gasoline launch which has been in care of construction for some months past. The new boat was built to order by the U. S. Launch Co., of Portland. It has a 20 horse power engine, drop seats, will seat 40 persons and is finished throughout with veneered oak. It is constructed for speed and when it is paced on the run, it will afford the best service ever accorded between Hood River and White Salmon.

S. J. Frank went on a business trip to Portland last Monday.
Mrs. Jos. Purser is visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Rolla Phelps.
Mrs. C. M. Larsen, of Menominee, is visiting relatives in Hood River.
J. E. Cameron, of Menominee, was a business caller in Hood River Monday.
Sheriff Chrisman came down from The Dalles Tuesday on official business.
G. J. Geselling made a trip to the metropolis on last Tuesday's over land.
Mrs. A. L. Parker, who has been on an extended visit to Portland, returned Wednesday.
W. L. Markie has been spending several days visiting with his brother, A. W. Markie, of St. John.
Mrs. George Horden arrived Monday on the west bound local for a visit with relatives in Hood River.
A. L. Carmichael, the enterprising merchant on the Heights, made a business trip to Portland Tuesday.
C. A. Bell, of this city, will be one of the grand jurors at this term of the United States district court.
C. King, who has been visiting his brother, A. W., left for The Dalles Wednesday.
The Ladies Aid society of the Congregational church will meet on Friday afternoon with Mrs. W. C. Gilmore.
Mrs. H. P. Hayden, who has been a resident on the Heights for the past two years, left Wednesday for Joplin Mo.
Ten organs at Soule's Piano house, New and second hand from $25 up to close them out at once. Call and see them.
Miss Mills, of Hood River, was a guest at the reception given to Mrs. Camille Donnell at The Dalles last week.
Rev. D. D. Dodge, who has been holding meetings in Boise City, Idaho, arrived in Hood River Tuesday on No. 5.
D. Donald and wife, of Baker City, arrived in Hood River Tuesday morning and will look over the valley for a desirable location.
Miss Prudence Patterson, of The Dalles, has been visiting with Mrs. Geo. Slocum, a part of last week, returning home Saturday.
R. B. Lamson was a passenger from Portland on Tuesday's local and went out to spend a few days on his farm in the Barrett district.
The usual services at the Unitarian church Sunday at 11 a. m., J. A. Haldrup, minister. Subject, "The Pathway of a Soul." All are cordially invited.
E. L. Thomas, formerly proprietor of the Knolly Kitchen at this place, will open a confectionery establishment in White Salmon about the 10th of the month.
C. L. Phillips, of The Dalles, will plant a 10 acre tract to English walnuts on his Mill Creek farm. He will also experiment with an acre of almonds.
Rev. McKee has come in contact with that philanthropic weed, commonly known as "poison oak." It has asserted its power on the left eye. Result: "The lid is on."
The plumbing firm of Norton & Smith has purchased the hardware business of McAdams & Lisle, at Echo, Ore. The firm name will be changed to the Smith Hardware Co.
The O. R. & N. Co., have placed a new drain across the track at the jumping place east of the depot. This will obviate the necessity of alighting in the mud, when you arrive from the east.
A report is current that No. 5 was derailed near Pendleton on Wednesday morning. The engineer and two hobos. The fireman has not been found. It is supposed that he is underneath the wreck.
Frank Hammond, inspector for the Portland Railway, Light and Power Co., was a passenger from Portland Thursday and is spending a few days in Hood River looking after his property interests.
Miss Anna Jackson, who is a student in the Willamette university, has been visiting friends in Hood River. Miss Anna speaks praise-worthily of the institution and returned to resume her studies last Friday.
L. T. Price, a prominent merchant of Condon, Ore., was in Hood River the first of the week and purchased the confectionery business of George T. Prather. Mr. Price left for Condon on Tuesday, but expects to return in a few days to assume control.
The Congregational ladies take this opportunity of thanking Messrs. Booth and Richmond for the use of their store on Saturday last, and for the many kindnesses extended. We also wish to thank Mr. Bartme's for the use of chairs and tables, and the public generally for their generous patronage on that day. The proceeds of the day amounted to $82. Mrs. F. H. Button, Sec.

Home Beautifiers

Is what our large assortment of Art Squares, Rugs, Carpets, and Matting might justly be called. NEVER before have such values and such an assortment in these lines been shown in this community. Compare our prices listed below with any house on the Pacific Coast and see for yourself how much money we can save you. : : : :

Wilton Brussels, 9 x 12 ..... $35.00
Smith Axminster, 9 x 12 ..... 27.50
" " " 8-3 x 10-6 ..... 25.00
Body Brussels, 8-3 x 10-6 ..... 27.00
Saxony Axminster, 9 x 12 ..... 25.00
Roxbury Tapestry, 9 x 12 ..... 25.00
Tapestry Brussels, 9 x 11 ..... 14.00
" " " 9 x 12 ..... 19.00
Art Squares, all sizes, $4.75 to 16.50
Smyrna Rugs, all sizes, 1.25 to 7.00
Crex Grass Rugs, all sizes, .50 to 4.00

Come today while Assortment is Complete

The Stewart Hardware & Furniture Co.

Hand Colored PICTURE FRAMES
NEW LOT OF
Postal Cards of Hood River Valley Handsome, New, Best Ever
Picture Mouldings Mats OF ALL COLORS
SEE OUR PICTURE SALE SLOCOM'S

Buy your garden hose now. You will need it soon. Norton & Smith. Drop in at Norton & Smith's closing out sale and save a dollar or two. Base ball at Columbia park Friday April 12, 2:30 p. m. Barrett vs. Hood River high school.
Mrs. W. L. Ellis, who has been at the point of death for several days, is much improved.
Mrs. Chas. T. Early and Mrs. T. J. Kinnaird were Portland visitors the first of the week.
J. H. Ackerman, state superintendent of schools, was visiting in Hood River during the week.
C. E. Gore, who has been spending some months in Hood River, left Monday for Cambridge, Idaho.
Mrs. D. W. Kinnaird and two children, of Oregon City, leaving her brother-in-law, T. J. Kinnaird and family.
Miss Lamb, who has been a student in St. Helens hall, of Portland, has been visiting in Hood River, left for eastern Oregon last Monday.
L. Skellinger, of Mt. Tabor, an old time friend of C. L. Morse, visited at the latter's home one day this week.
A special passed through Hood River Wednesday at 2:30 p. m., carrying those who were wounded in the railroad wreck near Pendleton, to the hospital in Portland.
S. L. Christ and family arrived last Monday from Alton, Oklahoma. Mr. Christ has a timber claim near this place. It is his purpose to locate in the valley if a suitable location can be found.
The high school debate on last Friday evening, was won by the affirmative. Two weeks previous it was won by the negative. Subject debated: "Resolved, That the Government Should Own the Railroads." Judges: A. W. Onthank, A. A. Jayne and Harold Hershner. Three contestants will be selected from each debate to meet: The Dalles in a joint debate on May 31.

E. H. Shepard went to Portland on a business trip last Wednesday.
Mrs. L. Prather left for Deer Creek on last Wednesday to visit her daughter.
Dr. M. A. Jones, emphatically denies the current rumor that there is diphtheria in his family.
Mrs. C. L. Gilbert and Mrs. E. O. Blancher were passengers for Portland on last Wednesday's local.
Mrs. Bert Boardman, who has been in ill health for some weeks, was taken to the Cottage hospital Monday.
I. C. Nealeigh received a consignment of Logansberry plants from the Valley and will give the industry a "try out."
The Hood River band has engaged the services of Prof. Hill for the coming season. Mr. Hill is easily the best musician that has ever struck the town.
County Fruit Inspector G. R. Castner stated to a Glacier reporter that he had been experimenting with the different kinds of spray. It was discovered in a test made in the orchard of Messrs. Van Horn and Paash, that the per cent of live scale was as great under the home made spray as it was under the Niagara. The test was made under spray that had been applied about two weeks.
Heilbronner, Labbe & Co., is the firm name of a new real estate emporium of Portland. The company consists of four well known business men, namely: W. H. Thomas, J. S. P. Copland and Edward Labbe, of Portland, and J. H. Heilbronner, of this city. The new company expects to open an office on the ground floor of the Labbe building in Portland. A permanent display of Hood River products will be one of the features for advertising. The new company expects to cover a wider territory than heretofore. J. H. Heilbronner & Co., of Hood River, will maintain a separate office at this place.

GET IN THE HABIT OF TRADING AT Booth's THE BIG STORE WITH LITTLE PRICES

By their Works ye shall know them. Our dollar watches are full of work and "ticks." They'll run a year or your money back.

Base Ball Goods A full line of 1907 goods for amateurs and Professionals. Little Prices.

Bicycle Supplies. We carry everything in the wheel line, Bells, Lamps, Inner Tubes, Pedals, Coaster Breaks, etc.

Going Fishing? Get your tackle here. Poles, Reels, Lines, Hooks, Baskets, Spoons, Leaders, Preserved Salmon Eggs, Flies, etc. Little prices.

Phonographs We carry a most complete stock of Columbia, Victor and Edison Machines and records. We sell them on easy payments if you wish. Let us show you.

On Saturday, April 13th the ladies of the First Christian church will be in charge of our store. These ladies are especially deserving in their efforts to establish their church. Let us show the help oneanother spirit toward them.

TOM MURRAY the famous Chicago booster, says the surest indication of future prosperity of a town is the "lelponanother" spirit. Hood River has the goods. The ladies of the Congregational Church were benedicted $82.00 from their sale last Saturday. They are grateful.

Don't Forget we carry the very best assortment of Bulk and Package Seeds.

Nickel and Silver Plate Knives and Forks, and Spoons, Tea and Coffee Pots, Tea Kettles, Trays, Table Sets, Etc. Beautiful ware. Little prices.

Table Oilcloth. Very pretty patterns in light and dark colors, good quality, 20 and 52c the yard.

Did You Ever see the new Ice Cream freezer that freezes two different kinds at once? We carry them in all sizes. Also Arctic and White Mountain freezers. Little prices.