

THE VERY NEWEST STYLES
SEEN IN THE

RELIABLE STORE

ARE NOW ON DISPLAY

RESOLVED!

ITS A PICNIC
TO BUY WHERE STYLE
AND QUALITY CAN BE RELIED UPON. WELL
WE ARE THE PEOPLE.
EVERY THING YOU NEED.
BUSTER BROWN.

Ladies' Wash Suits

Truly an Assortment
Everything Stylish Folks will wear this season, and which can only be appreciated when seen.

NEW

Polkadots, Lawns,
Checks, Piques and Montezema Linens at prices $1.82 to $4.90

SEE THE WINDOWS

PANAMA HATS ALREADY
Import Lines

CRAM'S

SEE OUR WINDOWS

MEN'S UNDERWEAR

A Great Variety. 25c to $2.50 a Garment

Men's Clothing

Not high priced but necessarily stylish and good, two points always considered in this store.

Our line of $10, $12 and $15 suits are wonderful sellers. Of course they are reliable and have all the ear marks of highly tailored garments.

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

Mr. Bartness is on a cash basis. We want your fat cattle, hogs and veal. Barnes & Churnard, The Heights.

Fresh made sausage at McGuire Bros. every day.

A good Emerson piano at Soule's Piano house for $1.75. Also some fine organ's $35 to $50.

Get your spray hose from W. H. Haynes.

Fresh sausage made daily at Central Market.

Salt mackerel, eastern white fish and pickled salmon at Jackson's.

Our work guaranteed. Deltz Studio.

Green onions, asparagus and radishes at McGuire Bros.

Full line of garden hose, with couplings, at Haynes' store.

It is to your interest to refer to M. Bartness' ad under the new system.

The Dietz Studio for photos.

Chinook salmon at McGuire Bros. every Friday.

Just received at Soule's Piano house a large shipment of phonographs and the celebrated Jonophone records. A special discount will be offered this week.

If you want to buy or sell real estate go to Onthant & Otten. Money to loan on first mortgages. Abstracts and legal papers carefully prepared. Notarial work of all kinds.

Chickens for Sunday dinner at McGuire Bros. Order early.

New Orleans Molasses in bulk and cans at Jackson's.

Lawn mowers, the best make, at W. H. Haynes.

Finishing for amateurs at Deltz Studio.

A few hundred cherry trees of standard varieties for sale.

Robbins & Thompson

Olives in bulk, bottles and cans at Jackson's.

To make room for my large stock of phonographs just received I will close out all the organs in stock at any price for cash or time. Also pianos at a low figure this week. Soule's Piano House, Main 1423.

The first delivery will be made at 8 o'clock in the morning. Do not fail to have your orders in for your bolts and roasts in time for this trip. The last trip will be made at 10:45 and the last trip in the evening at 4:30. Please observe these hours of delivery so as to receive your meats on time and assist us in the delivery. McGuire Bros.

The safe, certain, reliable little pills that do not gripe or sicken are Dade's Little Liver Pills. Best for sick headaches, biliousness and lazy livers. Sold by Keir and Cass.

Library Contest.

K. of P. Lodge, 19,407.
Barrett school, 15,298.
Barnett club, 13,285.
Pine Grove Grange, 10,011.
Hood River public school, 5,958
Crappier school, 917.
District 61, 150.
Frankton school, 295.
Odeh Grange, 266.
Frankton Grange, 70.
Crappier Grange, 158.
District 5, 32.
Baptist church, 38.
Cottage hospital 33.
U. B. S. S., 29.
Foresters, 20.
Mt. View Grange, 5.
M. E. S. S. 3.

H. C. Coe was a passenger for Portland Friday.

Hugh Eason left for a trip to Portland on Friday.

Jack Bagley was a passenger for Portland last Saturday.

W. L. Clark was at Cascade Locks the latter part of the week.

A. D. Moe was a business caller at the county seat on Tuesday.

G. J. Gessling was a passenger for Portland on Tuesday's No. 5.

Judge Henderson was a business caller at Vancouver on last Tuesday.

Rev. J. T. Merrill made a business trip to Portland the middle of the week.

The O. R. & N. wrecking crane was in Hood River Tuesday loading some salvage.

Elvin A. Knowles, of Portland, has been spending a part of the week visiting with his parents on the farm.

Rev. J. T. Merrill will be one of the speakers at a large camp meeting that is to begin at Kelley Grove on Juniper Flat Sunday, May 12.

Dr. E. T. Carnes was a passenger for Portland Friday. The doctor has been attending the session of the State Dental association which convened in that city.

President Dreyenforth, who has been in the city looking after the smelter experiment station west of town, was a passenger for Portland on last Friday's local.

Mrs. B. M. Neal and son, Alfred, of Pendleton, arrived in Hood River last Friday and will spend three weeks visiting with Mrs. Neal's brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Smith.

Wm. Folsom, of Pendleton, an old business associate of our townsman, F. W. McEynolds, is in Hood River and may conclude to stay with us if he can find a suitable location.

H. Champion and J. E. Bureh, traveling auditors for the O. R. & N., were in Hood River this week checking up the accounts of our local agent and found everything all O. K.

Mrs. A. M. Kelsay, who has been visiting with friends in The Dalles returned to Hood River on Friday's local, and is visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Geo. Slocum.

Prof. L. M. Christol, who contemplated organizing a gymnasium in the city, has gone up to the M. Dumas ranch to wrestle with the oak grub. The professor will return to Hood River in September and effect the organization.

Miss Idel Woodworth, who has been clerking in F. A. Cram's store, has resigned her position and will spend a part of the summer in camping out in the upper part of the valley. Miss Idel has proven herself a most competent and obliging clerk.

A jolly party started from Hood River last Friday on a fishing tour up the river. The are headed for the Parish place and consist of the following members: Will Graham and wife, Mesdames Ehrlich and Pawle, and W. Patton, of Portland.

W. P. Andrus was a passenger for Portland Friday. Mr. Andrus received word from the Portland officials to appear and serve as one of the judges on the city election board. There is a heavy penalty of a fine and imprisonment imposed for non-appearance on election boards when appointed to that position. Mr. Andrus, having no desire for such notoriety, became obedient to the "powers that be."

Mrs. Fred Newby was a caller in Hood River the first of the week.

A. O. Hershey made a business trip to eastern Oregon the first of the week.

W. F. Woodward and wife, of Portland, spent Sunday visiting in Hood River.

B. Stevens and wife left on last Monday's local for the Deschutes for a brief stay.

J. D. McCully, of Joseph, Ore., is in the city visiting at the Shaw home for a few days.

Mrs. Robt. Robertson left for Portland Monday to have her eyes treated by a specialist.

Mrs. K. S. Walton, of Portland, arrived the latter part of the week and is visiting with her son, W. H. Lyman Smith, of Portland, was in Hood River during the week shaking hands with his old time friends.

E. C. Mann and wife, who have been visiting with Mrs. Woodman for a few days, returned to The Dalles on Monday.

Rev. W. C. Evans left last Monday for Gilmer, Wash., where he will hold the quarterly conferences for the presiding elder.

Wm. Eccles, accompanied by his wife and daughter, were passengers for Portland on last Friday for a few days stay.

Will Vogt spent Sunday in The Dalles visiting with his folks, and returned to his post of duty Monday morning.

Miss Fowler, the obliging clerk at Booth's store, spent Sunday visiting with her parents at Rufus, Ore., returning Monday.

Frank Hammond was a passenger for Portland Tuesday, and will spend a few days looking after his property interests here.

Robert Smith, of Portland, was in Hood River the latter part of the week on business connected with the First National bank.

J. A. Byrne, cashier of the White Salmon Valley bank, was in Hood River Tuesday and made this office a pleasant call.

A special business meeting of the W. C. U. has been called to meet at the residence of Mrs. Orr this afternoon, Thursday, May 9.

Dr. Zaiser, who has been spending several days at the Carter home in the Mt. Hood district, returned to Portland last Wednesday.

W. J. Patton, who has been spending several days visiting with Wm. Graham, returned to Portland Tuesday.

Mrs. A. J. Adams, of Moro, arrived last Tuesday and will spend a month or six weeks visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. E. Nichols.

W. M. Stanger arrived from his place near Heppner last Sunday towing a fine span of young colts. He expects to break them for his own use.

Conductor Frank Weiden, of the O. R. & N., accompanied by his wife, came up from Portland Tuesday and went out in the Odell district.

Rev. Herscher returned on Monday from an extended trip in the Bickelton country where he has been in the interest of the Congregational church.

Wm. Sheets and Sam Blowers were in Portland the first of the week and purchased a large stock of clothing from an eastern firm. It is the purpose of these popular gents to replenish their present stock with the best on the market.

E. R. Bradley left on Monday's local headed for Portland.

Dr. Datro spent Sunday in Portland, returning Monday.

Robt. Robertson was a passenger for Portland last Wednesday.

Nelson Emery was a passenger for Portland the latter part of the week.

Mrs. Toal, of Portland, is visiting with her daughter in Hood River.

Mr. L. W. Marcellus, who has been spending several weeks' visiting with relatives and friends in the valley returned to the city on last Thursday.

H. H. Jantzen and wife returned from Portland last Monday. They will now return to the farm and go to housekeeping for themselves.

As we go to press we are glad to learn that Mrs. Hans Lage, who recently fell and broke her arm and sustained other injuries, is recovering as rapidly as could be expected.

Prof. P. C. Fulton and wife, of Madras, arrived in Hood River Friday and are spending the summer here. Prof. Fulton has been teaching school at Madras and now seeks recuperation of health for himself and wife.

Geo. B. Smith, of Verona, Ky., a brother-in-law of J. K. Carson and H. D. Smith, of our city, has accepted a position as clerk at the Paris Fair. Mr. Smith has been in the business for over 35 years.

In the series at the Unitarian church at 11 a. m. the subject for Sunday will be, "Is Religion Dying?" All persons who are interested in the present religious outlook are cordially invited. This subject will be presented in a plain and helpful way. Come and hear.

Three cheers for the street sprinkler. The Fashion stables have made a contract with Frank Davenport to operate the present religious outlook are cordially invited. This subject will be presented in a plain and helpful way. Come and hear.

Dr. Zaiser and wife, of Burlington, Iowa, arrived in Hood River on Monday and are being entertained at the home of J. L. Carter, as the guest of Miss Mabel Carter. Mr. and Mrs. Zaiser have been touring through Idaho, Washington and Oregon, and will now spend some weeks in Hood River.

The Washington Navigation company has filed an injunction prohibiting their line, Dean & Pearson, from landing their boats about 200 feet below their former landing on the Wind River company's boom land.

S. Copple and wife received a telegram Monday morning from Portland announcing the serious illness of Mrs. Copple's brother, F. J. Williamson. They left at once for his bedside, but before they reached there he had died. The funeral services were held Wednesday, May 8, at the home of Mrs. Maude Coburn. Interment in River-view cemetery.

Lou Morgan met with quite a painful accident last Sunday while out walking with some parties near the power house. They were sauntering along when the ladies stepped on a board which raised up high enough to catch Lou's foot and caused him to fall. The fall caused quite a severe injury which resulted in a few days lay-up, and several days on crutches.

Mrs. J. J. Kramm and child, accompanied by her father, Mr. Ritchie, arrived last Thursday from their home in Glenwood, Iowa. Severe snow storms were encountered en route. The trip through Colorado was especially disagreeable. Upon alighting from the train she remarked "What lovely weather, how nice and warm it is here." Mr. Kramm, who has been here for several weeks, is in hopes that the Mrs. will enjoy this country and climate as well as he does, in which case they will locate permanently with us.

E. B. Clark and family are up from Portland on a visit. Mr. Clark will visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Everhart, of Belmont. Mr. Clark will spend a few days to look after his property interests here, and then return to his position in the government engineering department. Mr. Clark has charge of the financial end of the work, and explained to a reporter that the government had a large sum of cash on hand with which to prosecute the work on the upper Columbia and other government enterprises in the state.

S. A. Skinner had a little tilt with his horse on last Tuesday. The horse was hitched to his buggy and was left standing in front of his gate, and while S. A. was interviewing a party near by the horse concluded to take a little spin. Mr. Skinner made a grab for the lines and succeeded in getting them, but the horse had gained considerable speed by that time and dragged him for several rods over stones and stumps. However, no limbs were broken and S. A. is out again as spry as ever.

Geo. Stranaban made a business trip to Portland Saturday.

Mrs. C. L. Morse has been down with a spell of the grip.

Mrs. E. H. Wallace was a passenger for Portland last Friday.

Mrs. Kate Roache visited in The Dalles Sunday, returning Monday.

Ed Miller is spending most of his time inspecting ties at Dee for the D. & R. G.

C. E. Markham returned from an extended visit to southern California Wednesday.

Mrs. Rigby will preach at Cook's addition and at the Bushong school house on Sunday, May 12.

Mrs. Jessa Moore was a passenger for The Dalles Monday for a few days visit with Mr. and Mrs. Ike Moore.

Mrs. C. A. Fraser, of Collins, Wash., while walking in front of Bartness' store, slipped and sprained her ankle.

McGuire Bros. are fixing up a neat office, opening from their market into the adjoining room south, and will have a book-keeper to answer telephone calls and attend to the business details.

Geo. T. Prather went to Portland Thursday and returned Sunday, and made a flying trip to The Dalles on Monday. George is a very busy man these days.

Mrs. Grace Chapman, of St. Paul, is visiting at the home of her father, Capt. Henry Crandall. Mrs. Chapman is greatly in love with this country. She will visit friends in Los Angeles before returning to her home.

N. L. Linell, proprietor of the Linden farm of Fruit, Mesa county, Colorado, is in Hood River looking for a location. Mr. Linell is experienced in the business of fruit culture, and thinks this is an ideal valley for the industry.

A large aggregation of young people came down on the boat last Saturday to witness the base ball game between The Dalles and Hood River high schools. They had a jolly good time while here and report excellent treatment from the local lads and lassies.

Geo. Humphrey, who was formerly in the employ of the Stewart Hardware Co., and who left recently for Brule, Neb., writes to friends here that he arrived safe and in due time, and will locate here and engage in stock raising. We are all glad to know that George is doing well.

The three sections of the Hood river bridge, which were destroyed by the recent fire, were replaced on the following day in time for traffic in the evening. This was a quick job. Chas. Eastley had the company's mill spring the timbers before the fire was out, and when they arrived they fit to a nicety.

Mrs. Dr. Stanton Allen, her son and two daughters, accompanied by Mrs. Allen's mother, Mrs. W. P. McLaren, and daughter, arrived from the east last Saturday and registered at the Waucoma. The party came to join Dr. Allen, who has purchased property in the valley, and will make his future home here.

Mrs. J. W. Rigby preached at Carson on last Sunday morning and evening in crowded houses. Mrs. Rigby an able speaker and her services are much appreciated by the people of Carson. While there she organized a bible class with 12 members. The people of Carson are contemplating the erection of a new church building. A lot has been secured and a subscription is now being circulated.

Don Allen, while riding after his cow in Waucoma's pasture, was thrown from his horse. Don was riding at a rapid pace when the horse ran under a large limb which struck the rider on the chest and threw him to the ground. As he fell one foot caught in the stirrup and the horse dragged him several hundred yards. Don is badly bruised up; his body is all black and blue, and his face badly disfigured. It was fortunate that no bones were broken.

Rev. Joseph Mayes and family arrived Monday from Tappanish, where Rev. Mayes is pastor of the M. E. church. Mrs. Mayes and children will spend several weeks in Hood River visiting with Mrs. Mayes' parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. Horner. Joseph will attend the session of The Dalles district conference which convenes in The Dalles this month. Mr. Mayes said that the country around Tappanish is on a boom. A short time ago an entire passenger coach filled with housekeepers from Kentucky settled near there.

Miss Mary A. Sprague, sister-in-law of Rev. W. Sprague, left for her home near Albany last Tuesday. Miss Young has been attending the high school during the winter. Her departure was marked by a most pleasant farewell given at the home of Rev. Sprague Monday evening. About 15 of her most intimate friends gathered at the home and spent several hours in a social way. Miss Young has made herself very popular among the young people who took this method of expressing their friendship for her.

Rev. W. A. Wood, pastor of the Christian church, will preach the memorial sermon Sunday, May 23, at the opera house. By order of committee.

F. J. Tracey and wife, who have been visiting with Sherman Young and family for the past two weeks, returned to their home in Sherman Mills, Maine, on last Friday.

A Glacier reporter was down to see Con Kepp's fine herd of thoroughbred hogs on last Friday. Con is perhaps the most careful breeder of thoroughbred O. A. C. and Berkshire in the valley. He has now a fine lot of registered stock.

J. Wickham will leave for The Dalles Friday to take possession of the assessors records for this section of the county. Mr. Wickham assessed the valley two years ago and gave good satisfaction. He will enter upon his work immediately, so prepare to go in hiving.

L. H. Huggins was called to The Dalles Monday to remain in the office for a few days, in which he holds an interest. His partner, Mr. Van Dellen, received word that his father, who resides at Sunnyside, Wash., had died. Mr. Van Dellen departed for that place to be present at the funeral services.

In last week's issue we stated that Ed Wright had secured the contract for the stone foundation of the Thompson mansion at the Cascade Locks. We should have said that the contract was let to McBain & Wright. Mr. McBain is one of the most skilled workmen that we have ever had in Hood River. His work is the work of an expert.

NEW SHADES

NEW SHAPES

YOUR NOTE PAPER

Should be correct in shape, shades and style if you would be thought up-to-date. We can point you to the very newest styles for all purposes and occasions from our new stock.

The Best is Always the Cheapest

Slocum's Book Store

P. & B. stands for the best made. We have just received a car load of

ROOFING

Malthoid Roofing, Building Paper and Roof Paint

Malthoid Roofing has stood the test of time, weather and competition. It does not cost any more than any other roofing. You are not trying an experiment by using it. If you are not familiar with it call at our office and give us an opportunity to acquaint you with its lasting merits. A coat of P. & B. Roofing Paint put on a roof of Malthoid Roofing that has been laid two or three years will be a great benefit to it.

We carry a full stock of DOORS, WINDOWS, MOULDINGS, BUILDERS' HARDWARE, PAINTS AND OILS

Stewart Hardware & Furniture Co.

GO TO OUR MARKET

For Fresh Meat, Poultry, Vegetables and Fruit

We also carry a full line of Lunch Goods, Cheese and Canned Meats

Orders receive our special attention and prompt delivery. We solicit your orders. Phone Main 1401

BARNES & CHIRNARD

HOOD RIVER HEIGHTS

Mrs. Enstrom was a passenger for Portland on last Tuesday.

Mrs. A. Luce, of The Dalles, was a visitor in Hood River Tuesday.

C. H. Miller and wife left last week for Mosier where they will spend some months on their homestead.

A. D. Dabney, who has been spending a few days visiting in our city, returned for home at Newport last Thursday.

P. S. Davidson and wife were passengers for Portland on last Thursday. Mr. Davidson returned Saturday.

Jesse Imbler left last week for a visit to his old home at La Grande. Mr. Imbler will be away about ten days.

J. J. Miller and wife arrived from Portland on Saturday's local and will spend the summer on their place in the Mt. Hood district.

Mrs. James Ingalls, who has been spending several days visiting in and about Portland, returned to Hood River on last Saturday.

Mrs. Geo. W. Luffkin, of Logan, Utah, accompanied by her grandson, Geo. Phippen, arrived in Hood River last Friday and is visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Frank Davenport, jr.

P. M. Hall-Lewis went over to Trout Lake to establish some obliterated corners of the old government survey. Mr. Lewis also made a survey for a dam in the White Salmon river for the Menominee Lumber Co. before his return.

GET IN THE HABIT OF TRADING AT

Booth's

THE BIG STORE WITH LITTLE PRICES

Tinware. It's made of tin. We've got it. Everything imaginable in tin things at little prices.	Granite Wear. All sorts of household utensils in white, gray, blue, and decorated.	Queensware. Plates, cups, saucers, bowls, vegetable dishes, platters, sauce dishes, etc.
Woodenware for every use. Tubs, churns, bowls, brushes, axe and hoe handles, etc.	Stoneware. Jars, churns, bean pots, jugs, flower pots, etc.	Hardware. Hundreds of articles that you use frequently at very much less than hardware store prices.
Willow Ware. Baskets of every shape and description.	Glassware. Everything to equip your table in plain and fancy pattern glass.	Nickel Plated Ware. Beautiful and durable utensils for table and kitchen use.
Ironware. Kettles, boilers, skillets, gem pans, griddles, Fry pans, and irons, waffle irons, etc.	Silver Ware. The good kind that is not high priced. Knives, forks, spoons, butter dishes, sugar bowls, cake dishes, fruit dishes, etc.	Camp Outfits. We are complete camp outfitters. Tents, furniture, bedding, cooking utensils, stoves, dishes, tools.

and hear the new Victor records. They have no equal for volume of tone and marvelous sweetness. The highest paid artists perform for the Victor Co. Their records do not wear out like others.