

HOOD RIVER GLACIER

Issued every Thursday by ARTHUR D. MOE, Publisher.

The McCumber pension law of February 6, 1907, providing an increase of pension for the meritorious cases, has now gone into effect.

This office acknowledges the receipt of the 37th anniversary number of the Catholic Sentinel, of Portland, Ore. The issue is a 28 page edition and highly illustrated.

W. F. Byars, who has been the efficient editor of the Goldendale Sentinel for over fourteen years, and which has been one of the best exchanges that has come to our table, has disposed of his interest in the plant to the Sentinel Publishing Co.

The last legislature ordered that the property of the state should be assessed at its actual cash value. In other words, if you hold your farm at a cash value of $10,000 it will be assessed at this value.

Tomorrow, Friday, June 14, is Flag day. The occasion commemorates the adoption of the stars and stripes as the national flag of our union.

The numerous dastardly and villainous crimes to which Harry Orchard has confessed stand without a parallel in the annals of ancient or modern history.

The murderous plots of ancient kings and queens are totally eclipsed by the record of the confessor and his associates. It can scarcely be imagined that the human heart can become so depraved as to contemplate and execute such horrible crimes.

Large Real Estate Deal. What is perhaps the largest real estate deal ever made in Hood River orchard property, was consummated this week in the transfer of 40 acres of the Wm. Ehrek place on the east side, to Ellis F. Lawrence, of Portland.

Omaha Visitors Arrive. The belated train, carrying the Omaha Commercial men, arrived over an hour behind the schedule this morning. The Hood River had made due preparations to receive the guests by carriage to the depot.

Keir & Cass Window. Messrs. Keir and Cass have a very unique proposition in the way of advertising a patent medicine in their store window. The scene is a repeat before and after taking.

Hershey Registers Protest. Our local commission man, A. O. Hershey has registered a protest with the state railroad commission concerning the manner in which the express company handle the strawberry crop at this point.
