

New Line of Ladies' Long Gloves just arrived. Scarce to be sure, but we have them.

Fall of 1907 Styles of the McKibbin Hat Just Received

RELIABLE CRAM'S RELIABLE HOOD RIVER'S MOST PROGRESSIVE STORE

School Time is Here LISTEN TO THIS

A BALL AND BAT WITH EVERY SUIT A BAG OF MARBLES with every Pair SHOES

We have what you want, the swellest, toniest, line of Children's wearing apparel we have ever shown and we just dote on pleasing the little ones. If it came from Cram's it's right.

Monday, Sept. 2nd School Bags Free

Fall Merchandise coming in faster than we can tell you about it. Yesterday (7) dray loads comprised the days' invoices, viz: Suitings, New Waists, Hats, Gloves, Caps, Fancy Materials, etc.

Make Your Purchases While the Stock is the Freshest.

You should see the New Waists. They are beauties, not expensive

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

Phone Holman's Market, Main 1401, on the Heights for your meat orders. Free and prompt delivery.

Mr. Barmes is on a cash basis.

Mrs. Venable has opened dressmaking parlors in the Jacobson residence, where she is prepared to do fashionable dressmaking.

"The Gem" Ice Cream Bricks made in as many colors or any style. Give us your orders for your party or Sunday dinner. We do our own manufacturing. Hamilton & Adolph.

Fresh made sausage at McGuire Bros. every day.

Chickens for Sunday dinner at Holman's Market.

Get your spray hose from W. H. Haynes.

Fresh fish at Holman's Market.

Retal house numbers at Hunt's Wall Paper store.

Our work guaranteed. Deitz Studio.

Ph. C. Young is in the market for cattle, hogs, chickens, etc., and will pay the highest market price.

Salt mackerel, eastern white fish and pickled salmon at Jackson's.

Full line of garden hose, with couplings, at Haynes' store.

"The Gem" Hand Rolled Ice Cream Chocolate Creams, Taffies and Bon Buns. We make all our candies and ice cream. Hamilton & Adolph.

Maple Syrup and New York State Buck Wheat at Jackson's.

Olives in bulk, bottles and cans at Jackson's.

It is to your interest to refer to M. Barmes' ad under the new system.

To avoid the rush, those wishing to exchange school books should bring them in at once to Slocum's book store and get a credit slip.

The Diets Studio for photos.

Chinook salmon at McGuire Bros. every Friday.

Chickens for Sunday dinner at McGuire Bros. Order early.

Lawn mowers, the best make, at W. H. Haynes.

Finishing for amateurs at Deitz Studio.

Mt. Hood tooth powder, best in the world at Williams Pharmacy. Money back if not satisfactory.

The first delivery will be made at 8 o'clock in the morning. Do not fail to have your orders in for your books and books in time for this trip. The last trip will be made at 10:45 and the last trip in the evening at 4:30. Please observe these hours of delivery so as to receive your meats on time and assist us in the delivery.

McGuire Bros.

If you want to buy or sell real estate, go to Oatbank & Otten. Money to loan on first mortgages. Abstracts and legal papers carefully prepared. Notarial work of all kinds.

Slocum's book store has been designated as the place to get school books this year. Those wishing to exchange old books for new, should bring them in at once, and not wait until the opening of school.

The bites and stings of insects, sunburns, cuts, burns and bruises relieved at once with Pinosalve Carbolicid. Acts like a poultice. Draws out inflammation. Try it. Price 25c. Sold by Keir & Sons.

New Orleans Molasses in bulk and cans at Jackson's.

E. H. Hartwig has removed his law office to the Smith Block over the First National bank.

Rev. J. T. Merrill went to Portland Friday.

J. M. Culbertson went to Portland Thursday.

J. S. Van Blarcom went to Portland Thursday on business.

A. L. Emmons, of Brinal Veil, visited in Hood River Friday.

T. J. Kinnaird returned Thursday noon from a trip to Portland.

G. C. Ruff came in from his Mt. Hood ranch and went to Portland Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Van Horn returned Saturday from a trip to Portland and Goble.

Dr. Geisenhoffer, of The Dalles, had professional business in Hood River Thursday.

Mr. Dr. Sharpe went to Portland Friday to visit relatives. Dr. Sharpe joined bei Saturday.

L. H. Brown, of Chicago, spent a day or two last week looking over the valley with a view of locating.

W. G. Morgan went to Portland Saturday evening and returned Monday evening with his wife and child.

Miss Della and James Steele, of Mt. Hood, went to Portland Saturday to visit friends for a couple of weeks.

D. G. Jackson and family returned Thursday from Ocean Park, where they have enjoyed a two weeks' outing.

Judge Henderson spent three days last week in Bingen surveying for the new townsite company and preparing legal papers.

D. S. Yadjgouliou, the Siberian fruit buyer, spent several days in Hood River last week, returning to Portland Thursday.

W. M. Yates and Dr. Larkway and their families, also Mrs. W. F. Cooper, returned Wednesday evening from their camp at the seaside.

Misses Lambert and Vasey, of Portland, spent several days at Win ans last week, and went to Cloud Cap Inn by the auto route Tuesday.

Rev. Walton Skipworth, presiding elder of the M. E. church for this district, came down from The Dalles Friday to attend to official business.

Albert Gleason, of Grand Junction, Colo., came up from Portland Saturday and visited his uncle, P. F. Fouts, over Sunday, on his way home.

Mrs. J. Acheson and Mrs. Deledge, of Portland, who have been visiting the family of C. F. Rose for a week, returned to their homes in Portland Saturday. Mrs. Acheson is a sister of Mrs. Rosa.

Frank Stanton went to Portland Saturday to visit Burnett E. Duncan, who is sick in a hospital at that place with typhoid fever. At last reports Mr. Duncan was getting along as well as could be expected with the disease.

Ed Tate, meat cutter in Young's market, received a telegram Friday morning that his brother-in-law, Chas. Sage, had been killed while working on an elevator at Astoria, Wash., and left for that place on the evening train.

W. H. Moore has resigned as president of the Hood River Bank and Trust Co. and is no longer connected with the bank in any way. The fall of the Oregon Trust & Savings bank of Portland has had no effect whatever on the Hood River bank. Mr. Moore's interest in the bank having been but a slight one at any time.

Mrs. Gilbert is enjoying a vacation at the beach.

Geo. Smith returned Tuesday from a visit to Irrigon.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Fabrick are visiting friends in Seattle.

D. E. Rand and wife went to Portland Saturday on a visit.

Mrs. Knapp and Mrs. Billings returned from Portland Thursday.

W. W. Swan, of the Swan-Hamman Lumber Co., Bingen, had business in Hood River Saturday.

Mrs. Laura Baldwin was taken to the Cottage hospital last week suffering from a nervous strain.

Miss Leonard, Coulter, of Grand Forks, N. D., is visiting her brother, W. B. Coulter, and family.

J. W. Nunemaker went to eastern Oregon Thursday to look after his sheep interests in that country.

John Castner and Geo. Fox went to Portland Sunday and said they would take in the circus before their return.

Mrs. Fred S. Radcliff and children visited Mrs. W. H. Boyle last week. Mr. Radcliff is sheriff of Whitman county.

Miss Laura Rand, who has been visiting grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Smith, for a couple of weeks, returned to Portland Saturday.

Miss Lella Hershner came home on the "Flyer" Friday evening. She spent a three weeks' vacation visiting relatives in Polk county, and with friends at Oregon City.

The subject to be discussed by Pastor C. A. Nutley at the Baptist church next Sunday morning is "The Supremacy of Love." The evening topic is "Substitution." Everyone welcome.

Bertha Fuller, one of the telephone operators, received word Saturday evening of the sudden death of her sister, and departed for that place Sunday morning.

Miss Bernice C. Johnson has arrived from the west, where she has been studying music, and will make her home in Hood River with her father, G. B. Johnson. She will take up the teaching of music.

G. J. Kenney, of Pargo, N. D., arrived in Hood River Monday and is locating in the valley with a view of locating. Mrs. Kenney spent a couple of weeks here recently and liked the valley so well that she wrote her husband to come.

Geo. T. Prather dismantled the wooden buildings on the Brosius lot, which are to be removed to make room for the new saw and lumber mill. He has hauled his lumber to his saw mill, where he will have material enough to build a barn and a house.

Mrs. Robt. Thompson, of Walla Walla, arrived in Hood River Saturday evening to visit her old neighbors. C. E. Day and family, after a few days' visit she will proceed to Portland, where she will meet a sister, whom she has not seen for 40 years.

Dr. Ray Palmer and son came up from Portland Tuesday evening and visited his daughter, Mrs. B. A. Clarke until yesterday afternoon when he returned home. Rev. Palmer goes to Missouri soon to engage in missionary work connected with the church.

C. H. Howell, of Stottz City, Iowa, visited his daughter, Mrs. M. Osburne, of the Hood River Bank & Trust Co. Mr. Howell is well pleased with the country. He went to Portland Thursday with Mr. Osborne, and will probably return here for a first location.

J. B. Gott headed a surveying party Tuesday and Wednesday, forenoon, running lines around the Coe donation and claim. While he would not state the purpose of the work, it is understood that it is to settle some lines that are in dispute near the Hanna residence.

E. L. Kiemer on Monday received word of the death of his brother, Dr. A. C. Kiemer, who has been taking a post graduate course in Germany. No particulars were received, except that the body will be brought to southern Minnesota for burial and Mr. Kiemer left for Northfield, Minn., yesterday.

F. L. Massey on Monday sold 15 acres of unimproved land from his place in Dukes Valley, to A. L. McCaully, of Portland. The land adjoins the Bone and Van Horn land. Mr. Massey has taken the contract to clear the land, and the purchaser will build a new house and have the same set out to apples next spring. The consideration was $125 an acre.

The peg leg vag who has been selling pencils around town for several days, and was working on the symphony of the public on account of his misfortune, got drunk Monday and proceeded to smash out the window lights for the Walton lodging house. Marshal Ganger was called and locked him up. The restaurant has been feeding him free, and Walton giving him a free bed. As he was unable to work on the street, Marshal Ganger started him out of town.

E. E. Goff spent Monday in Portland.

Vern Gill returned the latter part of last week from Salem.

Mrs. F. R. Steinhauer, of Nehalem, Ore., is visiting friends in the valley.

C. F. Kennedy and wife went to Portland Saturday for a visit with friends.

C. E. Markham made a business trip to The Dalles Monday, going to Portland Tuesday.

Fred Howe has been transferred from the freight office to the baggage department on the O. R. & N.

Call and examine the greatest invention in the world on exhibition at McKeay's feed store. Free.

Miss Grace Bills, of Aberdeen, Wash., is visiting her cousin, Miss Isabel Chapman, of the Ramona hotel.

Miss Lois McBain went to Cascade Locks Tuesday to visit friends for a few days. The Locks is her birth place.

P. A. Worthington, of Portland, formerly U. S. marshal, visited with Mayor Blossers Monday, returning home on the local.

Rev. J. L. Hershner went to Arlington on Saturday and from there went to Rosevelt and Cliffs, new towns on the north bank railroad.

W. H. Carter returned from Valdez, Alaska, and will remain here for a couple of weeks visiting friends and settling up business matters.

Lou Morse and wife arrived Tuesday morning from Tekoa, Wash., where Mr. Morse has been engaged in railroad contract work for several months.

The Misses Allen, of Prineville, school mates of Miss Goff, stopped off here the first of the week and paid her a visit on their way back to the university.

Mrs. Ehrek drove in Friday from Odell to meet her daughter, Mary, from Portland, who will keep house for her parents while they are away on their visit to Germany.

Joe Hall, who has been working at Dea for some time, left for his former home in Grant City, Mo., Monday noon. He is undecided whether he will return to Hood River or not.

Rev. R. L. Morton, of Staten, Ore., will preach at the Valley Christian church Sunday morning at 11 and in the evening at 8 o'clock. Rev. Morton comes with a view of securing the pastorate.

W. G. Snow and family returned Saturday from Newport, where they have been spending several weeks at that pleasant seaside resort. Mr. Snow is proud of the fact that his party of cook food that weighed nearly 12 pounds.

W. C. Cameron came up from Menominee Tuesday on business. The Cameron Bros. are busy closing up their affairs, and expect to leave in a short time. They are undecided just when they will locate, and will take some time to look around.

W. Frank Hill and wife, of Glenwood, Iowa, came up from Portland the first of the week and are spending a few days visiting their old townsmen, Dr. W. F. Laraway, Mr. and Mrs. Hill spent several weeks during the Pacific coast tour.

Mrs. Will Graham came up from Portland the latter part of the week and visited Hood River friends for a few days. Mrs. Graham is uncertain as to when she will go to Calgary to join her husband, as there is a possibility of his coming back to Hood River soon.

J. S. Van Blarcom has tendered his resignation as night watchman. He claims that the night work does not agree with him, and he is also inclined to move to the Willamette valley. A successor will probably be appointed at the first meeting of the council in September.

The publicity committee in charge of boosting Hood River have done exceedingly well in raising an advertising fund, and have succeeded in getting some good sized subscriptions. The farmers are contributing more liberally than heretofore, as they begin to realize the value of advertising, and that it helps them as well as the business people to bring in new and desirable people in the valley. The fund promises to reach $1500.

S. A. Nye and W. N. Campbell, of Valley City, N. D., spent Friday and Saturday in Hood River looking over the country. They are making a prospecting tour of the Pacific coast, and will locate where they find a place that suits them. They are also investigating the country for a number of well-to-do families in their section who have become tired of the cold winters and are looking for new homes in the west. They will visit the Willamette valley, Regno River valley and California before they decide on a location. They were very favorably impressed with Hood River.

E. E. Goff spent Monday in Portland.

Vern Gill returned the latter part of last week from Salem.

Mrs. F. R. Steinhauer, of Nehalem, Ore., is visiting friends in the valley.

C. F. Kennedy and wife went to Portland Saturday for a visit with friends.

C. E. Markham made a business trip to The Dalles Monday, going to Portland Tuesday.

Fred Howe has been transferred from the freight office to the baggage department on the O. R. & N.

Call and examine the greatest invention in the world on exhibition at McKeay's feed store. Free.

Miss Grace Bills, of Aberdeen, Wash., is visiting her cousin, Miss Isabel Chapman, of the Ramona hotel.

Miss Lois McBain went to Cascade Locks Tuesday to visit friends for a few days. The Locks is her birth place.

P. A. Worthington, of Portland, formerly U. S. marshal, visited with Mayor Blossers Monday, returning home on the local.

Rev. J. L. Hershner went to Arlington on Saturday and from there went to Rosevelt and Cliffs, new towns on the north bank railroad.

W. H. Carter returned from Valdez, Alaska, and will remain here for a couple of weeks visiting friends and settling up business matters.

Lou Morse and wife arrived Tuesday morning from Tekoa, Wash., where Mr. Morse has been engaged in railroad contract work for several months.

The Misses Allen, of Prineville, school mates of Miss Goff, stopped off here the first of the week and paid her a visit on their way back to the university.

Mrs. Ehrek drove in Friday from Odell to meet her daughter, Mary, from Portland, who will keep house for her parents while they are away on their visit to Germany.

Joe Hall, who has been working at Dea for some time, left for his former home in Grant City, Mo., Monday noon. He is undecided whether he will return to Hood River or not.

Rev. R. L. Morton, of Staten, Ore., will preach at the Valley Christian church Sunday morning at 11 and in the evening at 8 o'clock. Rev. Morton comes with a view of securing the pastorate.

W. G. Snow and family returned Saturday from Newport, where they have been spending several weeks at that pleasant seaside resort. Mr. Snow is proud of the fact that his party of cook food that weighed nearly 12 pounds.

W. C. Cameron came up from Menominee Tuesday on business. The Cameron Bros. are busy closing up their affairs, and expect to leave in a short time. They are undecided just when they will locate, and will take some time to look around.

W. Frank Hill and wife, of Glenwood, Iowa, came up from Portland the first of the week and are spending a few days visiting their old townsmen, Dr. W. F. Laraway, Mr. and Mrs. Hill spent several weeks during the Pacific coast tour.

Mrs. Will Graham came up from Portland the latter part of the week and visited Hood River friends for a few days. Mrs. Graham is uncertain as to when she will go to Calgary to join her husband, as there is a possibility of his coming back to Hood River soon.

J. S. Van Blarcom has tendered his resignation as night watchman. He claims that the night work does not agree with him, and he is also inclined to move to the Willamette valley. A successor will probably be appointed at the first meeting of the council in September.

The publicity committee in charge of boosting Hood River have done exceedingly well in raising an advertising fund, and have succeeded in getting some good sized subscriptions. The farmers are contributing more liberally than heretofore, as they begin to realize the value of advertising, and that it helps them as well as the business people to bring in new and desirable people in the valley. The fund promises to reach $1500.

S. A. Nye and W. N. Campbell, of Valley City, N. D., spent Friday and Saturday in Hood River looking over the country. They are making a prospecting tour of the Pacific coast, and will locate where they find a place that suits them. They are also investigating the country for a number of well-to-do families in their section who have become tired of the cold winters and are looking for new homes in the west. They will visit the Willamette valley, Regno River valley and California before they decide on a location. They were very favorably impressed with Hood River.

Profitable Buys of Summer Goods In making room for earload arrivals of Furniture and Hardware we are offering EXTRAORDINARY BARGAINS

Chilkoot Refrigerators Well made cabinet style, built on scientific principals, packed with charcoal. A great ice economizer. Price $12.50 and $16.50

Ice Cream Freezers The best on the market 6-quart size 2-quart size $4.00 $2.25

Lawn Mowers Easy running and selfsharpening 14-inch cutters $3.75

Wire Fly Killers Kill's but does not crush the fly 10 cents each

Hammocks Our stock must go in the next twenty days, and are willing to cut prices so that you can afford to buy. 20 per cent Reduction on every hammock in this store.

Adjustable Window Screens Will fit any window from 20 to 33 inches wide. 20-inch high 30 cents 24-inch high 40 cents

Camp Stools Just the thing for hoppingkicking 35 cents each

Tanglefoot Fly Paper Is sure to catch them 40c per box

The New Perfection Oil Stove No smoke, no smell, no danger of explosion. Absolutely the best on the market. One Burner $4.75 Two Burners $7.25 Three Burners $10.50 With legs 50 cents extra.

Stewart Hardware & Furniture Co.

Bob Wright went to Casendo Locks Tuesday.

Mrs. P. T. Shalley has returned from the Willamette valley.

J. E. Reynolds, the Bingen merchant, was in Hood River yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Stranahan returned Tuesday from Portland.

Lee Morse and Jack Luckey went to The Dalles yesterday on business.

Miss Magill announces that she will reopen her dressmaking parlors in Hood River Tuesday, September 3.

Don't fail to see Josephine Deffy in "Shall We Forgive Her?" at the opera house next Monday. Seats on sale at Clarke's drug store.

Josephine Deffy and her excellent company at the opera house three nights commencing Monday, September 2. Reserved seats on sale at Clarke's drug store.

Do you want one of the best 15-acre farms in the valley, cheap? If so read "My Jericho farm ad" in another column. It means business.

Miss McLaren and her mother left yesterday morning for the Sooni country and Victoria, B. C., where they will spend a month visiting friends.

Mrs. Geo left for Menominee yesterday afternoon to visit her daughter, and will go on to Portland today. Her sister, Mrs. Ross, also leaves for her home in Portland today.

Rev. E. L. House, of Spokane, who spent part of his vacation here early in the month, returned from Portland yesterday and will occupy the pulpit at the Congregational church next Sunday.

The young people of the Baptist church expect to complete their organization by Friday night of next week, and take up some definite line of work for mutual improvement within a short time.

The ladies of the United Brethren church will sell ice cream next Saturday afternoon and evening. If the weather is fair the sale will be on the lawn at the Hartley home, otherwise, in the reading room at the gymnasium. Ice cream or sherbet 10 cents, with cake 15 cents.

Prof. Lyman, of Whitman college, Walla Walla, spent several days in Hood River visiting old friends and acquaintances. He was the guest of E. L. Smith and Rev. W. C. Gilmore while here. Yesterday he went to White Salmon. Prof. Lyman visited Hood River over 35 years ago and at intervals since, and takes a great interest in the development of the valley. He is acquainted with nearly all the old settlers, and takes great pleasure in renewing social relations with them.

M. L. Emry was pleased to receive a visit from his cousin Tuesday, H. M. Wiggins, of Carthage, Mo., whom he has not seen for 16 years. Mr. Wiggins is an apple buyer, and just bought a large consignment of apples in the Grand Ronde valley. He was quite surprised at the prices received in Hood River for apples, and did not attempt to buy any here, as they are a little too high priced for his Missouri trade. He said that the Missouri crop is a failure, and apples very scarce in that section. He left on the local for Portland, and will go from there to San Francisco.

Harry Woods is back from a two weeks' vacation at Long Beach. John Wiers, of White Salmon, was a passenger from Portland on No. 2 yesterday.

Geo. Chamberlain, the Mosier real estate man, had business in Hood River yesterday.

Mrs. C. P. Ross and daughter went to Portland yesterday afternoon to visit her sister, Mrs. Acheson.

Wiley G. Pillow, who has a home- stead near Green Point, went to The Dalles on business Monday.

Dr. M. E. Welch returned Tuesday from Vancouver, Wash., where he was called to do veterinary work.

Miss May Davidson returned Saturday from her vacation to Seattle, where she spent two weeks very pleasantly visiting friends.

Rev. W. C. Gilmore will exchange pulpits with Dr. E. L. House, of Westminster church of Spokane, next Sunday morning at 11 a. m.

Joe Wright has moved his family back from Cascade Locks so that the children can attend school. Joe has a couple of months work yet on the Thompson mansion.

Marshall Ganger had a visit this week with Pope Catlin, now working at White Salmon, who was with a threshing crew with Ganger in 1893, and who he had not seen since.

The Menominee Lumber Co., having sold out to the Wind River Lumber Co., the Menominee Lumber Co. re- quires all parties having accounts against or in their favor to send them in at once.

W. H. Eccles and C. T. Early and families went to Cloud Cap Inn the latter part of the week and made a partial ascent up Mt. Hood. Coming home in the auto the machine broke a spring near the Booth hill, and it was necessary to make several stops while the car was trussed up with a timber so they could get home, where they reached late in the evening.

E. N. Benson brought in a few of his fine cantaloupes yesterday, and they are certainly better than those that have been shipped in from other places. Mr. Benson is one of our progressive farmers who believes in diversified farming. He not only raises apples and strawberries, but clover, potatoes and cantaloupes. He says that his crop this year of the latter will run over 200 crates to the acre, and he is receiving from $1.25 to $2 a crate for them. He has disposed of a good many here, but is shipping mostly to Portland.

The show which gave an exhibition at the opera house Monday evening had a couple of "undesirable citizens" in its repertoire. The ticket seller, who was a recent acquisition to the company, slid out of the house just before No. 6 pulled in, boarded the train and disappeared for parts unknown, with $3.30 of the box receipts. It appears that the man had a partner or close friend, and the manager put it up to the partner to make good the loss. The man at first refused, claiming that he had nothing to do with it, but the manager said he would have him arrested for some prior offense. He saw the point and made up the shortage.

Advertisement for Booth's THE BIG STORE WITH LITTLE PRICES. Includes 'Bargain Hunters', 'The Old School Bell', and 'Phonographs and Records' sections.