Thomas, teacher in the Frankton school, is quite sick and has been compelled to resign her position. Her classes had to be dismissed for a few days until another teacher could be secured. Miss Thomas has gone to her home at Corvallis. Agent Fredrick took a long breath Monday after sending away his voluminous monthly reports strictly on time, and was particularly gratified to make the showing that the ticket receipts for Hood River show an increase over the same month a year ago of $937.40 and the freight receipts an increase of $3,271. The station is one of the best on the line and under Mr. Fredrick's able management the track is running along as smooth as clock work. Ned Blythe, a former Glaiser man, is getting into society in the Rose city it seems. In a private letter he writes: "Had the unique experience of attending a Chinese banquet at 3 a. m. Sunday. Learned to use the chop sticks and to dip soup from the same bowl with the other chinks. Went with one of the boys in the office who belongs to the order of Chinese Free Masons and has a long list of friends among the celestials. The grub was good, mostly fish and ducks in various forms. James Cook had the misfortune to break his leg in several places last week while working for H. Bloncher rolling logs. In attempting to move a heavy log with the peavy, with another man at the other end, a sudden inch rolled the log over on him before he could get out of the way with the above result. Mr. Cook was taken to his home in the O'Neil district and a physician summoned. He is being looked after by the neighbors during the absence of his wife, who is visiting her brother in New Mexico. She has been sent for and is expected home this week.

County Sunday School Convention

At a meeting of the teachers and officers of the Hood River Sunday schools held at the M. E. church Sunday at 3 p. m., to plan for the county convention to be held here in May, Dr. Nichols was elected chairman, F. G. Coe, secretary and Ida Wright, treasurer. These three constitute the program committee. The entertainment committee was one from each Sunday school, as follows: Mrs. Fred Howe, Mrs. J. W. Rigby, Mrs. Luise Johnson and Mrs. S. E. Fairness. The chorister of each school was elected as a music committee. A good interest was manifested and a glowing convention is anticipated.
