A few winesses of the affair say that he fell against the wheels, then struck the ground on his head and the car-riage passed over him. He was help-ed to the sidewalk and a physician summoned, and was shortly removed to the Cottage Hospital, where it was found that he had several bad cuts on the scalp and the left ear was nearly torn from his head. Aside from the painful bruises and a lame back he is rapidly recovering from the fall and received no permanent injuries.

Oscar Vanderbilt has received the following letter from H. W. Child, president of the Yellowstone Park Association, which operates hotels and transfer lines in the national park. The other parties spoken of in the letter are pominent officials of the Northern Pacific road. The wrapper spoken of was the label of the Apple Growers' Union of Hood River. The high praise given the apples by these distinguished parties is but another evidence of the superiority of Hood River apples and the notice taken of them will result in widely extending the advertising of this valley: Oscar Vanderbilt, Hood River, Ore.

My dear Oscar:—

I have just returned from a three months' trip abroad with my family and in Naples, Italy, and on the Gun and in Naples, Italy, and on the Gun and itne steamers plying between New York and Liverpool, and Naples and New York, which steamers I patronized, we were all very much struck with the quality and locks of the apples furnished the passengers. Said apples were dished out to us freely five times a day, three times at meals and on the decks mornings and after none. You were also at liberty to lave your room steward furnish you My dear Oscar:none You were also at liberty to nave your room steward furnish you with a ples at all times. There was such a delight taken in our apples that I got the dining room steward to go down in the storage room and get me a wrapper off one of the apples, which he did, and I enclose it to you. Mr. Hannaford and wife and Mrs. Child and myself attended the wedding of Mrs. Huntley to General Young in Chicago the other day and on our return to St. Paul from Chion our return to St. Paul from Chi-cago I took this wrapper out and showed it to Mr. Haunsford. He said at once: "Wby, that is Oscar Vander-bilt's apple," and told me that you were raising them in the Hood River nomination is assured and he will poll a strong vote.

D. J. Cooper has withdrawn from the contest for the state senate on the Republican ticket and will enter the race for representative instead.

This action on the part of Mr.

Were raising them in the Hood River country in your own orchards and that you were also at the head of the apple growers' union in that section. I therefore made a pencil memorandum ou the back of the wrapper, intending to send it to you and let you know what success you are meeting with, both in this cultury and abroad. i b ve also taken occasion to tell Mr. Lindsay of the firm of Lindsay &
