OREGON HORSES WIN PRIZES
VANCOUVER HORSE SHOW OPENS
Crescent City, Smith River and Checco, Coast Towns, in Need of Provisions.

Vancouver, B. C.—Vancouver's first horse show opened last week with a house overflowing with a fashionable audience. So great was the rush that all the reserved seats and boxes had been sold early in the week and 2,000 people were denied admittance. There were over 800 entries, many fine horses from Portland, Seattle and other cities being shown. James Murray, one of the judges and a veteran horseman with a continental reputation, declared that the show was one of the finest he had ever seen. The American horses, especially, he declared, could carry off the blue ribbons at New York and Kansas City. Oregon was honored with many blue ribbons on account of her superior horses.

COAST TOWNS FACE FAMINE.
Crescent City, Smith River and Checco in Need of Provisions.
Eureka, Cal.—Reports from Crescent City state that owing to the tie-up of steam schooners on the coast, a considerable portion of Del Norte is fearing a food famine. The Humboldt Commercial Company of Eureka has dispatched the gasoline schooner Lady Mine, carrying 15 tons of food and groceries, which will go to Smith river and Crescent City. Some of the food will also be sent to Chetco, in Oregon, which is also reported to be suffering a food shortage. Del Norte gets all its supplies by schooners, mostly by shipping to the Hobbs-Wall Company of San Francisco, and the tie-up brought about a serious situation.

How to Keep Eggs Fresh.
Washington, March 24.—Cover a fresh egg with a thin coating of lard and it will keep perfectly good for an indefinite period, according to the report of a new method of preserving eggs made to the State Department by Consul Murphy at Bordeaux. The discovery is of Italian origin.

LAND HORSETHIEF BAND.
Four in Walls Walla, One in Harney County Jail.
Walla Walla, Wash., March 24.—John Tycke and sons, John and Richard, residents of Walla Walla, were landed in the Walla Walla County Jail Sunday by Sheriff Haviland and deputies, charged with being members of an alleged band of horse-thieves that has been doing business in Walla Walla, Umatilla and Benton counties. This band of thieves is supposed to be composed of five members and all are in custody at the present time. Four are now in the Walla Walla County Jail and one is the Harney Ore. County Jail.
Paul Krueger, alias Paul France, alias Edward Hugler, was arrested in Burns some days ago. J. A. McIntyre is under arrest at Burns, and a deputy sheriff will bring him to Walla Walla. It is estimated that these five men have within the past several months made away with nearly 300 head of horses, valued at not less than $25,000.

OREGON STATE BRIEFS.
Two million salmon fry will be turned loose from the fish hatchery on the McKenzie river this season.
A crew has begun surveying a line for the extension of the Oregon Electric south from Salem to Albany and Eugene.
The Salem Carpenters' Union has adopted resolutions protesting against the employment of state convict labor on state buildings.
A. L. Mackintosh of Pauline, Cook county, has been appointed Sheep Commissioner to succeed Thomas Boylun, whose term has expired. His term is three years.
Four mild cases of smallpox are reported from Owyhee. All have been quarantined and Dr. Sarazin, of Nyssa, who is in charge, expects that there will be no spread of the disease.
The horticultural institute held in Roseburg Saturday by Douglas fruitgrowers was a decided success. The Salem school board has ordered fire escapes constructed on all the city school buildings.
The Pacific States Telephone and Telegraph Company has appropriated $20,000 for improvements to its system in Eugene this summer, and an engineer is now mapping out the work, which will begin within a few weeks.
W. W. Calkins of Eugene has filed his nominating petition for Representative from Lane County on the Republican ticket. He did not sign Statement No. 1, although he has been known as a Statement One man.
A warrant has been issued for

THE SMITH SITE IS SELECTED
OPERA HOUSE PACKED BY VOTERS
Largest School Election Ever Held in the City of Hood River.

The election Tuesday afternoon to select a site for the new school house developed in the warmest political meeting had in this city in a long time and the Smith site was selected on the first ballot.

The State street school was selected as the voting place and three o'clock as the hour. The small room was filled in less than five minutes and it was seen that a larger place must be secured, so the meeting was adjourned to the opera house and in fifteen minutes standing room was at a premium. Notwithstanding the rain the ladies were out in force, ready to vote for their choice, but the real contest was between the Smith block on the hill and the Batschelder site.

Chairman Stranahan called the meeting to order and appointed as tellers J. L. Harshner, A. D. Moe and C. D. Nikeleson.

John Leland Henderson was the first speaker and read a proposition from E. L. Smith to sell a block on the hill, consisting of 300 feet square, for $2,500 and an option for five years, for $2,500, provided the school district paid interest on that amount until purchased. Mr. Henderson spoke in favor of the site, saying that it was in a slightly location, but that the best argument in its favor was that it gave plenty of room for a play ground, which the other sites proposed did not. He also presented a petition signed by all the high school scholars in favor of that location. Mr. Henderson also said that he would be one of fifty to pay $50 and buy the extra block and donate it to the school board for the school.

A. W. Othman made a few remarks, endorsing what Mr. Henderson had said, and spoke in favor of the Smith site.

Capt. H. C. Coo then offered two acres south of the Crowell residence for $3,000, making the point that it was in a location where it could be seen by everyone passing on the main traveled road to the valley; also from the river and the North Bank road; that it would have fire protection, which the Smith block did not have, and that the grounds were ample for building and play ground.

J. F. Batschelder offered three acres at the end of State street, near Paradise farm, for $12,000, $5,000 down and $7,000 on time without interest, provided taxes and city assessments were kept paid.

A. A. Jayne made a strong argument in favor of the Batschelder site, objecting to locating the building on the highest ground in Hood River, where the children would have to climb to reach the school, and where the building could not be seen by strangers or our own people who do not live in the neighborhood, without making a special trip to the place.

Dr. Brostus made a plea for the Batschelder site, stating that it was an ideal place for a park, was conveniently located and that the building should be placed there.

J. L. Harshner advocated high ground. He said that in his travels he noticed that in most places the school houses were placed on high ground. They were usually placed in high, slightly locations, and often in the edge of town, or removed from the business or densely settled residence sections. He thought the Smith block had advantages over any other site offered.

A question arose as to the manner of voting, whether the site received the highest number of votes be whole, or whether a majority of the whole vote cast was necessary. Mr. Jayne suggested that in case the first ballot failed to carry, the lowest numbers should be dropped and moved that a vote be taken first on the Coo and Batschelder tracts, and the highest one be then voted for with the Smith block. This met with objection. Mr. Henderson declared that the motion was out of order, as it was against the school law regulating voting. While the chairman was considering whether or not to put the question, Mr. Evans moved to amend that the Coo and Smith tracts be voted on first. The chair then moved the motions out of order.

It was announced that the vote would then be taken on all propositions, by each voter coming forward and placing the vote in the hat on the table, the clerk registering the names of the voters.

The count was taken by the tellers, with the following result: Smith block, 128; Batschelder tract, 57; Coo tract, 29; State street site, 17. The Smith block having received a majority of all votes cast, was selected as the new site.

Mrs. E. R. Uyar and daughter, of Seattle, are visiting her sister, Mrs. J. Waidstein, and went to The Dalles Monday, accompanied by Mrs. Waidstein.

Allie Hamilton, suspected of connection with the murder of Julius Wollande at Silver Lake, December 27. Hamilton left Silver Lake during an investigation by Sheriff Dent and the Prosecuting Attorney from Lakeview.

The most important step which the Eugene Council has yet taken toward securing its own water system was an agreement to take over the Willamette Valley Company's plant for $140,000. The only contingency is the sanction of the people, who will undoubtedly favor it.

Fire broke out Friday night in a large lumber shed near the depot at Independence. The flames had gained such headway before the fire department arrived that it was impossible to save any part of the structure or the contents, which was mostly baled hay.

Conrad Hagen, aged 9, was instantly killed Friday afternoon at the State Deaf Mute School at Salem by falling under a heavy farm roller. The roller was going down a steep hill and passed over him before it could be stopped, but his body was not crushed. His neck was broken.

The rapidly with which candidates for the Legislature are coming to the front indicates that it will be difficult for either the Statement No. 1 advocates or their opponents to limit the number of candidates to five on a side, as desired. Already there are six on each side and four Statement No. 1 men on record as candidates for Republican nomination, with five to elect.

James Breen was arrested in Pendleton Friday charged with stealing a horse belonging to Reinhold Haras. While at the police station word came from the chief of police at Spokane to arrest James Breen on a charge of forgery. When searched a check for $200, signed by Breen and drawn on a Spokane bank in which he had no funds, was found in Breen's pocket.

Large bands of sheep are passing through North Powder daily, as owners are moving their flocks to the mountains. The loss this year has been practically nothing, as the season was mild and feed plentiful.

At an enthusiastic meeting in Dallas Friday night to organize an O. N. G. company, over 80 names were signed. C. D. Chorpensing is president. April 9 was set for final organization.

Hon. William Miller, attorney for the State of Oregon, and the William Hanley Company, have received a copy of a decision just handed down by the Commissioner of the General Land Office at Washington, which sustains the decision of the Register and Receiver of the Burns land office in recommending for rejection the segregation of nearly 70,000 acres made by the state to be reclaimed by the William Hanley Company under the Carey act. This is a very important decision for Harney county. The lands involved are of the best in Harney Valley and lie in a stretch of country directly tributary to Burns. This vast tract has been tied up for four years, withdrawn from public entry, and the contemplated reclamation by the Hanley Company has been retarded by the contest which has culminated in the present decision. The desire of the people here has been that the matter be decided one way or another, so that the land might be thrown open to settlement or else that the company be given a chance to put water on it and sell to settlers.

The next examination by the State Board of Pharmacy is to be held at the college at Corvallis, and will take place in June, possibly during commencement.

Limb Drags Him From His Horse.
Pendleton—Lodged on a pile of drift in the Umatilla river, the body of Troy Todd was found Friday afternoon. Todd was drowned while attempting to ford the river on horseback. He was dragged from his horse's back by an overhanging limb and drowned just at the beginning of the late flood, which made it impossible to find the body. A reward of $100 had been offered for the recovery of the body.

Applies the Veto.
Salem—Mayor George F. Rodgers sprang a big surprise on the liquor dealers and the City Council by vetoing the new saloon license ordinance. The ordinance, which reduces the license from $1,000 to $700, was passed by a vote of 10 to 2. Mayor Rodgers declares himself strongly in favor of eliminating the evil adjuncts of the saloon and desires the right of a city to surrender control of the liquor traffic in exchange for revenue.

Need Better Prune Packs.
Salem—At its meeting Saturday, the Marion County Horticultural Society discussed methods of preventing the marketing of dried prunes that have not been cured and packed so they will keep. It was agreed that the rejection of mouldy prunes in New York during the last few months have very seriously injured the reputation of Oregon fruit, and that measures must be adopted to prevent a repetition of the experience.
